WILL THEY DO IT?

From one point of view, the fact that a young lady is able to fill her dance program several days in advance of the event may be considered a compliment to the young lady. Again, it may be considered merely as an indication that she has an asinine collection of male friends.

This, the eve of the annual Freshman Glee, is an appropriate time for the discouragement of the practice. A general blacklisting by the college women of their over-ardent admirers who have been causing a congestion of the local telephone system during the past few days is in order. If each co-ed would gently but firmly repulse the passionate pleadings of this type of gallant, she would raise herself in the respect of the average normally-balanced ed.

So far as the Emerald is concerned, we are disinterested, and can prove it. But as each of the big formal rolls around we hear the same mutterings against the pernicious activities of the "peach" trust. On general principles, we are opposed to monopolies and special privileges.

For the sake of the "square deal"—we dislike the word "democracy"—let the Oregon women make the contest for space on their programs fair and above-board—with an even break for everyone, and a penalty for the man who "beats the gun."

EXTENSION LECTURE

Dr. Hodge and Supervisor O'Reilly are lecturing this week-end in the interest of school standardization. Thursday afternoon they were at Rickman's, and Thursday night at Marcola.

This afternoon Dr. Hodge spoke at Mount Vernon, and this evening at Fall Creek.

"Worlds in the Making" was the topic of a lecture given before the class in Historical Geology this morning by Professor Stafford, of the Chemistry Department.

Professor A. F. Reddie rendered Maeterlink's "Bluebird" this afternoon at the Glandale High School, before the teachers, students and parents.

Dr. Bertha Stuart will speak before the girls of the Harrisburg High School this afternoon on "Physical Education for Girls." Tonight Dr. Stuart delivered a public lecture at Harrisburg on "The Value of Play and Physical Training for Young People."

Dr. Clark addressed Dr. Schafer's History class at the Central Library, Portland, this evening. His subject was, "Turkey and the Balkan States."

Professor E. E. DeCou spoke at the Bellview School, near Ashland, this evening, on "Twentieth Century Canada." On Saturday evening Professor DeCou will lecture before a local Woman's Club on the "Peace Movement."

Professor Reddie will meet his Portland class in Public Speaking as usual this week-end.

Professor F. C. Ayer talks on "Knowledge that is of Most Worth," at Gaston, on Saturday evening.

Professor A. R. Sweetser spoke this evening at a school just outside of Springfield, before a standardization meeting.

Dr. Edmundson lectured at the River Road School this evening on "Japan; Its Condition and Customs."

ONCE OVERS

By Rex Kay.

Alfred Miller, of Vancouver High School, has registered and will turn out immediately for track. Miller is the clever little sprinter who won the dashes at the stadium meet last spring and if he makes good will fill acceptably the place on the team vacated by "Les" Cooke.—Evergreen.

Carl Pearson, 175 pounder, has been chosen captain of the W. S. C. wrestling team.

Pearson came to the front last spring when he threw Van de Bogart of Washington.

Ray Bryant has left college, but he promises to return for football next fall.

It has been decided by the authorities at the University of Kansas that swimming be made compulsory for all men taking athletic work. By this system they expect to make all their men expert swimmers. Special instructors will take charge.

When the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America meets at Madison Square Garden on March 6, there will be the greatest collection of athletes ever assembled for an indoor meet. More than 2,000 will enter events. Cornell is the favorite, according to Eastern dope. Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania and Dartmouth follow, but some of the smaller colleges are figured strong.

W. S. C. has a wonderful center in that man Hildebrand. He ranks next to Savage, of Washington, in the estimation of the Oregon men.
