

SOCCKER GAME DELAYED; TECHNICALITY CAUSE

Although Crack Jefferson High Team Will Come for $30, Whole Student Body Must Act On It

No soccer game will be played on Kincaid Field tomorrow afternoon between the crack Jefferson High School team, of Portland, and the University of Oregon eleven. A telegram sent to the Jefferson coach on Wednesday evening read: "Unforeseen difficulties force us to cancel Saturday game."

The "unforeseen difficulties" were really just one difficulty: the statement by the Executive Committee of the Student Council that soccer had never been formally accepted by the Student Body as a regular activity, and that therefore under the constitution no guarantee could be made to Jefferson.

A majority of the Executive Committee believed the Student Body would authorize the game because of the smallness of the guarantee involved. So eager was Jefferson to get at the University team that its athletic association voted to pay all the expenses of 13 men to Eugene, except $30.00, and let Oregon keep all the gate receipts. The high school boys wanted the prestige of meeting a university team. The deficit from the game would therefore have been trifling if there were any at all.

No Student Body meeting will be held until February 24, however, and the Executive Committee said it did not dare assume responsibility for the game without specific authorization. To prevent a similar fiasco in future, the status of soccer will probably be presented to the students at this meeting. The players contend that soccer everywhere pays its own way, that it was supported by the Student Body last year, and although a new sport on the campus, sustained only $35.00 deficit on the season, that in future years it would be a money maker, and that they have practiced faithfully since September in anticipation of games. They have asked for three games, one in Portland, two in Eugene.

SIX SENIORS COMPETE FOR FAILING-BECKMAN PRIZES

So far only six Seniors are competing for the Failing-Beekman prizes, to be awarded during commencement week for the two best orations delivered at that time. They are: Peter Crockett, whose subject is, "World Peace"; Lawrence Dinneen, "Success; Can It be Measured?"; James Donald, "Equality of Opportunity Before the Bar"; Maurice Hill, "The Northwest and Panama Canal Tolls"; Victor Morris, "Democracy and World Peace"; and Don Orput, "The Saint of Linnisfarne."

The Failing trophy, amounting to $150.00, is given to the Senior who presents the best address. The next best oration is awarded the $100.00 Beekman prize.

MERRIL A. REED LECTURES TO STUDENTS IN ADVERTISING

Merrill A. Reed, President of the Reed Advertising Company, of Portland, and chairman of the Education Committee of the Portland Ad Club, this afternoon gave the first of 14 lectures by practical advertisers that have been planned in connection with the newly established course in Advertising Practice.

More than 100 students from the Departments of Commerce and Journalism have registered in the class, which is held every Friday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock.

The lectures are all open to any wishing to hear them.

SENIOR PLAY APRIL 2

"Jeanette's Way" Selected by Committee. Dramatic Club Will Give "Within the Law"

"Jeanette's Way," a play whose setting is on a college campus, has been selected by the committee as the Senior Play to be given April 2. This same production was given last year by one of the classes at the University of California, and was a marked success. The play has not yet arrived, but the parts will be assigned as soon as it is on hand.

The Dramatic Club will present "Within the Law," if the play can be secured.

FACULTY REINSTATES 17 OF THE 25 FLUNKED STUDENTS

The Freshman class has forfeited the oyster supper promised by Dean Straub.

"Boys," he said, at the Freshman Mix last semester, "to the first Freshman class that goes through the year without losing a member because of grades, I'll give an oyster supper—that is, if President Campbell will pay for it."

However, according to the list of flunkers made out at the Registrar's office, there are fewer Freshmen leaving than usual. This must mean that better work is being done by the students, for the scholastic standard has been raised, which should tend to increase the number of flunkers.

As the list now stands, 17 students are forced to go. Originally the list contained 25 names, but at the request of the reinstatement committee, the faculty finally reinstated eight.
