

OREGON AGAIN HOLDS MULTNOMAH TO TIE

SCORE IS 1 TO 1; VARSITY PLAYS BETTER SOCCER THAN VISITORS

"WATCH TUERCK" OF NO AVAIL

Time-Keeper Bezdek Becomes Absorbed in Game and Allows Two Minutes Too Much

By Floyd Westerfield.

What was in the University of Oregon soccer team came out on Saturday afternoon, when, for a second time, the Multnomah Club failed to win. The score was 1 to 1, and on the day's play Oregon was slightly superior, although perhaps not enough so to deserve a victory.

The possibilities of soccer, from a spectator's standpoint, was a distinct feature Saturday. The game was as filled with thrills as a close interference struggle of the intercollegiate type. So exciting was it, in fact, that Hugo Bezdek, time keeper, let the minutes overrun, and as the Portlanders closed with a dangerous rally lasting ten minutes, the two minutes extra that was played all but cost the University the game. "It got so interesting I never thought of the time," said Bezdek apologetically afterward.

On the science side there was little to choose. The passing of the Oregon forwards was slightly better than that of the Multnomah sharks; at any rate it was a type of passing better adapted to the greasy ground. Tuerck's swings to the outside wing men were beautiful, but so slippery was the ball that frequently it skidded over the side lines—sometimes, it must be said, when it should have been kept in. Crockatt's passing was less showy, but just as effective. It was the physical strength of Tuerck, however, that demoralized half of the Multnomah team. The clubmen's instructions were to watch "Tuerck," and faithfully they obeyed, but time after time Tuerck broke past two or three opponents and passed successfully to his wings.

The Oregon half line was much better than in Portland. Of the three, Ralston probably checked his men best, and Ralston's wing was the harder one at that. The Oregon backs were also good, with Spellman playing his best game of the year and Campbell perhaps a trifle too aggressive for safety.

Multnomah's goal was scored in the first half. Gorezky tried to fist out the wet and heavy ball and succeeded only in putting it to a Multnomah forward, who promptly shot it through. Oregon scored early in the second half, when a pass swung across the goal mouth from the right wing to Sheehy, who poked it through.

The game was rough in the second half. The field was like a trench along the Ypres.

The soccer team disbanded after the game. The 1915-16 captain will not be elected until fall. As the game is now a Student Body activity, a lively season is expected in the autumn. The game ends normally about March 1. Corvallis expects to put out a team next year.

Father Moran was referee on Saturday.

- OREGON SOCCER LINEUP
- Goal—Gorezky.
- Backs—Spellman, Campbell.
- Halves—Pearson, Rathbun and Ralston.
- Left Wing—Neal Ford (Capt.) and Sheehy.
- Right Wing—Crockatt and H. Ford.
- Center—Tuerck.

IF YOU DON'T LIKE "THE PEARLY GATES," YOU CAN GO?

Sophomore Class Hour to be Heavenly—Ballet of Sixteen Fox-Trotters Featured

At the Pearly Gates—Sophomore Extravaganza—"For the Ultimate Good of the University."

Such is the proclamation displayed on University bulletin boards since Monday morning. It means that at assembly tomorrow, the Sophomores will pull off their annual class hour. "At the Pearly Gates" is a humorous skit portraying real, live campus characters, written by Edison Marshall.

It includes a Swedish dialogue by Martin Nelson and Leo Furney, an English monologue by Martyn, and music by a quartet composed of Lois Ladd, Olive Risley, Dorothy Wheeler and Maude Newberry. The grand finale is to be a fox trot by eight couples who have been trained by Miss Hael Rader, of the Women's Physical Department.

There is to be a special Sophomore orchestra, scenery made for the occasion, a spot-light and other unique lighting effects.

Frank Beach states that the doors will be closed at 10:00 o'clock and that no one will be admitted after that time.

DOUGHNUT HANDBALL STARTS THIS WEEK

Baseball Schedule is Compiled and Games Will Start After Finals in Indoor Sport

Doughnut League spring sports will be inaugurated tomorrow with the ushering in of the annual handball tournament. The baseball schedule has also been drawn up and the elimination contests will closely follow the close of the handball finals.

President Chester Huggins, of the Interfraternity Athletic Association, has appointed the following committee to take charge of handball: Harry Kuck, chairman; Ernest Watkins and Emerson Merrick.

All teams will be duly notified and failure of one to put in an appearance will automatically forfeit the game to the other team. It is planned to play the preliminaries Tuesday and Thursday, the semi-finals Friday.

RADIATORS TO PARADE

"Brown of Harvard" Seat Sale Opens Tomorrow at 9:00; Production is Thursday and Friday

By Mandell Weiss.

Attired in their uniforms, the Radiators, headed by the University Band, will parade the streets on Thursday afternoon and herald the performance of "Brown of Harvard," which is to be given at the Eugene Theatre on Thursday and Friday nights of this week. The seat sale will open tomorrow at 9:00 o'clock.

The cast for "Brown of Harvard" contains the most notable array of University talent ever seen on the local stage at one time.

Tonight and tomorrow night the finishing touches will be put on by J. Mott, the director, in the dress rehearsals. Every indication points toward equalling the success which the play attained in New York a few years ago. There it ran for two solid seasons at one theatre and smashed the box office records in every big city in the country.

"Brown of Harvard" is a comedy, an uproariously funny comedy, with a tremendously exciting plot. That is a combination which may be rather hard to imagine, but that's what "Brown of Harvard" is. It is a scream, a riot, a deafening crescendo of laughter and succession of thrills.

PLAN FOR BUILDINGS BEFORE COMMITTEE

WILL CONSIDER $4,500.00 ADDITIONAL FUND FOR INDUSTRIAL SURVEY

REGENTS GRANT LAND BUY

Authorize $19,600.00 for Purchase of Tract Between Kincaid Field and I. O. O. F. Cemetery

A committee composed of five members from the Board of Regents will meet Friday to decide whether or not the School of Commerce and Industrial Survey shall be given an appropriation of an additional $4,500 per year, and consider the erection of several other new buildings for the University of Oregon.

This special committee consists of J. W. Hamilton, M. A. Miller, A. C. Dixon, W. K. Newell and State Superintendent of Schools J. A. Churchill.

The committee will also decide whether or not the salaries of 26 instructors in the University shall be advanced.

Other questions which are left to this committee to decide are: whether or not new buildings shall be erected for the School of Music, the School of Education, the School of Commerce and the School of Law. Whether or not the athletic field shall be moved at an early date or let stand as it is until some indefinite time in the future. They will also decide whether or not to have a survey of the University made by the United States Board of Education. They are also to decide whether to authorize the appointment of several new instructors in various departments of the University at this time or not.

Hon. H. B. Miller, Dean of the School of Commerce, has requested that he be relieved of the duties in this office as soon as possible.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Regents of the University, held in Villard Hall Saturday morning, it was decided to give Prof. John F. Bovard, of the Department of Zoology, an increase in salary from $2,000 to $2,500 per year. Mrs. M. H. Parsons, of the English Department, was given the rank of professor.

The Board also authorized the purchase of that tract of land lying between Kincaid Field and the I. O. O. F. cemetery. It will be purchased from H. R. Kincaid for the sum of $19,600.

DEBATERS WILL MIGRATE

Crockatt and Morris Leave Wednesday for Palo Alto; Washington and Oregon Meet in Eugene

Peter Crockatt and Victor Morris will leave Wednesday night for Palo Alto, where they will meet Stanford in debate upon the question of Federal Ownership of Railroads. This is the same team that recently won a unanimous decision over O. A. C. Bert Prescott expects another scalp.

While this team is attempting to subjugate the California school, the affirmative squad, composed of Fred Hardesty and Nicholas Jaureguy, will debate against the University of Washington in Eugene.

While in California, Crockatt and Morris intend to "do" the exposition and San Francisco, and declare they will not come back until their where-withal gives out.

Howard Zimmerman, '13, a former leader in forensics in the University, will act as time keeper at the Stanford-Oregon contest.

Both the students and faculty of Northwestern University have recently adopted the honor system by a vote of four to one.

THIRTY MEN TRY FOR PLACES ON TRACK TEAM

"OUT EVERY NIGHT FROM NOW ON," SAYS BILL HAYWARD

DISTANCE MEN ARE SCARCE

Payne is Only Letter Man to Report; So Far No Freshman Material Has Developed

By Harry Kuck.

Swish of cleats on soft earth, dull thumping sound of descending shot, whirring of the javelin and discus, gliding hither and yon of lithe, supple bodies in the starts, jumps, dashes, distances and the authoritative instructing voice of Coach "Bill" Hayward, makes Kincaid Field a busy placetheese days and augurs well for another track championship for Oregon.

"I'll have a good team; it will necessitate lots of work for the youngsters, but they have it in them, and I can make track men out of several," says "Bill" in discussing his squad of thirty odd aspirants.

"Out every night from now on," is "Bill's" ultimatum, and it promises bad for the loafers. He says: "A track man will never get anywhere by spasmodic training—some of these fellows think they can come out when they feel like it and get by, but they have a lot to learn."

"Grasshopper" Loucks promises to be utility man. "Bill" can use Loucks anywhere from the century to the half, and it all depends upon how the other men develop in which race he will specialize. "Doc" Stewart thinks he has a find in Kadderly, and this pair may furnish some thrills before the spikes are laid away this spring.

Martin Nelson, the half miler, is a little lighter than last year, and ought to clip a little off his time. "Cotton-top" is the only 880 man of note on the roster.

Distance men are pretty scarce this year, especially when one looks back to former seasons and recalls such stars as Windnagle, McClure, Huggins and Payne. In previous years the Lemon and Yellow have had a lot of dependable long distance men, but this year Payne is the only letter man out. He has been sick this winter and may not run up to par. Bostwick and Langley are good pluggers. No Freshman star has separated himself enough from his fellows to brighten the coach's eye.

"Bill" has prescribed a new jumping form for Muirhead and "Moose" is coming along well in this department. Clark, the Coos county athlete, has a good prep record in the high jump, but is very slow to get going in the new style.

Sam Cook is heaving the shot and will probably throw the discus and javelin also, as weight men of ability are scarce. Except Heidenreich in the discus, the other weight aspirants are Frosh; Callison, Philbin, Monteith and Snyder being out for the shot.

Over a dozen candidates are out for the sprints. Gorezky probably has an edge on the field at present. Boylen, last year's mainstay in the short runs, will probably be missing this season. Kent Wilson, Clarridge, Westerfield, Peacock, Sheahan, Hamstreet, Barnett and Gilbert are lining up for starting practice.

Staub, Washington High's 440 crack, fails to improve to suit Coach Hayward, but if his form can be remodeled slightly "Bill" expects him to make some fast quarters.

The first meet is the Columbia Indoor Meet at Portland the middle of April, and "Bill" don't propose to let O. A. C. cop the honors if good, hard, early training will help any.

Ground was broken last week for the erection of a $15,000 thirty-room dormitory at Purdue University.

DATES ARE FIXED FOR BLANCHARD MEETINGS

Y. W. C. A. Speaker Will be Entertained Friday at General Reception in Bungalow

The final schedule of dates for the Blanchard meetings has been fixed. Miss Blanchard will arrive in Eugene Friday morning. In the afternoon a reception will be held for her in the Y. W. C. A. Bungalow. Mrs. Campbell, Miss Guppy, Katharine Bridges and Mrs. R. H. Edmunson will be in the receiving line. All the women of the University are invited to come.

Miss Blanchard comes directly here from O. A. C., where she has been holding meetings similar to the ones to be held here. She is a graduate of Stanford, and but little more than a college girl herself, and understands girls thoroughly.

Miss Blanchard will give her first lecture Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock in the Women's Gymnasium. Her topic will be "Unfinished Faces." The Girls' Quartet will give several songs and Marie Churchill will sing a solo.

"The Light of His Countenance" will be the subject for Saturday evening, and Miss Blanchard's final address, "The Way and the Will," will be given Sunday at 4:00 o'clock. There will be musical programs and everything that will insure a successful meeting at each lecture. Notices printed on postal cards will be sent to every girl in the University, containing a schedule of the lectures. All other dates have been postponed this week-end to allow every woman in college to attend these meetings, and members of the faculty are co-operating with the students to insure their attendance.

- A Greater Oregon feed, to which all University men are invited, will be held by the University Y. M. C. A. next Thursday at six o'clock in the City Y. M. C. A. Building. The occasion is the installation of the newly elected officers, Cloyd Dawson, President; Martin Nelson, Vice President; Charles Collier, Treasurer; Kent Wilson, Recording Secretary.

At Harvard, owing to lack of sufficient financial backing and the present financial conditions, the gymnasium committee has decided to discontinue further canvassing of the undergraduates for subscriptions to the gymnasium funds.

WEATHERFORD WILL SPEAK AT BANQUET

PRESIDENT CAMPBELL TO PRESIDE ALL OREGON MEN ARE INVITED

OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED

Koyl Pronounces Speaker's Ability to be Unparalleled—Circular Letters Sent to Every Student

Dr. W. D. Weatherford will attend the banquet Thursday evening in the City Y. M. C. A. and will give a short address. The main series of lectures will open Friday evening at 7:00 in Villard Hall.

President Campbell will preside at the banquet. Gale Seaman will install the newly elected Y. M. C. A. officers, who are: Cloyd Dawson, President; Martin Nelson, Vice President; Charles Collier, Treasurer; and Kent Wilson, Secretary. The Glee Club will sing several selections and Paul Sprague will give a vocal solo. The members of the Greater Oregon Committee are endeavoring to get every man in the Student Body to attend the Weatherford banquet, and as a final reminder the executive committee of the Greater Oregon group has sent the following circular letter to every man in the Student Body:

"The first Greater Oregon meeting will be held in Villard Hall Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock, March 19. As a final gun in the campaign to get every man at every meeting, a 'feed' will be given at the City Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening at 6:00 o'clock.

"The principals speakers at the feed will be Dr. W. D. Weatherford, of Nashville, Tennessee; Mr. Ivan B. Rhodes, State Y. M. C. A. Secretary; and Mr. Gale Seaman, Pacific Coast Secretary and member of the International Association Committee. At this time will also occur the installation of the newly elected officers of Greater Oregon.

"Signed, Leland G. Hendricks, Tom Boylen, Bert Lombard, Peter Crockatt.

Charles Koyl, Cloyd Dawson, James Corbett and Douglas Corpron attended the Y. M. C. A. state convention last Saturday and Sunday at Newberg, Oregon. All of these men heard Dr. Weatherford speak and have heartily approved his ability. Charles Koyl said:

"Weatherford is a bigger man than we thought he was. There is absolutely no limit to his forcefulness. If any man at Oregon does not hear Weatherford's lectures, he is going to lose the greatest opportunity of his student life. Weatherford is not an emotional speaker, but he just uses plain, cold reasoning, and plenty of that. He is so convincing and reasonable that he reminds me of a battering ram. Weatherford gives the best series of lectures I have ever heard. Let's have every man out for every meeting."

"The Evergreen," a weekly paper published by the students of the Washington State College, at Pullman, Washington, prints the following in a 1,000-word article on the success of the Weatherford meetings at that college:

"The visit of Dr. W. D. Weatherford is over, but the force of his message is still with the 500 students, faculty and townspeople who heard him on 'Christian Leadership' in the four days while he was here. He chose for his addresses such subjects of the big theme as in his experience he has found to be the crucial questions in the life of the college man, and he treated them in a way that stimulated his audiences."

W. M. Smith, Secretary to the President, announces that the Student Affairs Committee has refused any dates this week-end, on account of the Weatherford meetings.
