

OREGON DEBATERS TO FACE MONTANA FRIDAY

Victor Morris and Cloyd Dawson Will Negate Government Ownership of Railroads

Oregon's negative debate team will face Montana's representatives in Villard Hall next Friday evening in a discussion of the question of government ownership of railroads. The men who will speak for Oregon are Cloyd Dawson and Victor Morris, while the Montana team is composed of Payne Templeton and Clarence Street. The visitors are expected to arrive Friday.

Dr. A. C. Schmitt, President of the First National Bank of Albany, Emmett Callahan, a Portland attorney, and W. R. Rutherford, of McMinnville, have been selected for judges.

The men will probably stay at the hotel, but an effort is being made to entertain them during their stay here.

In speaking of the chances of winning, Cloyd Dawson said: "We have a fine case, and if we can put it over I am confident of winning. Victory depends upon our ability to put our case forward well."

LAST VESPER SERVICE TO BE MUSICAL TREAT

Gounod's St. Cecile Mass to be Sung by Special Easter Chorus and Soloists

A musical treat is promised in the Easter Vesper service, to be held in Villard Hall next Sunday at 4:30. The music will consist of the famous St. Cecile Mass, also known as the Messe Solenne, by Gounod. The mass consist of the following numbers, all to be sung in Latin with printed translations supplied to the audience.

Kyrie (Prayer for Mercy); Gloria; Credo (Creed); Sanctus (Holy, Holy God); Benedictus (Blessed be the Lord); Agnes Dei (Lamb of God).

The chorus numbers will be interspersed with solos, duets and trios, all of which are of exceptional beauty. These solos will be sung by Miss Eva Brock, soprano, Mr. Paul Sprague, tenor, and Mr. Albert Gillette, baritone.

The reasons for using the Latin words are that they adapt themselves much better to the music, as the music was written for the Latin words only, and because Dean Lyman, director of the choir, wishes them to study the music in its original form.

Dr. Herbert Swan Wilkinson, of the First M. E. church, will have a special Easter message.

The Easter service will be the last Vesper service of the year.

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED TO ARRANGE TRIPLE B PICNIC

Because of other activities, Triple B has not been as active this year as the Sophomore women had wished it to be. However, Echo Zahl, President of the club, has recently appointed a committee to arrange a picnic, to be given before spring vacation, at which a number of plans for the development of the usefulness of the society will be discussed. The committee is composed of Louise Allen, Frances Heath, Mildred Broughton, and Helen Curry. Triple B is endeavoring to do for the Sophomores what Triple A has done for the Freshmen.

LETTERS FOR 25 PEOPLE ON BULLETIN BOARD IN VILLARD

Letters for the following people, on the bulletin board in Villard, are still uncalled for:

Henry Howe, Curtis L. Beach, Carl Pendleton, Ford Pettison, Bruce Flegal, Frank Johnson, Paul Merrill, Florence Bowderman, Charles Haines, Ralph Allen, Mary Kent, Baline Youel, Ira Barnett, Louise Blaney, Conifred Hurd, Herman Smith, Victor Lane, Thomas Lynch, James Howard, Mr. Proctor, F. South, Mr. Swinson, R. E. Ralston, Mrs. Parsons and Miss Barr. Three of these letters are posts.

Wellesley girls have received permission to play outdoor baseball. Up to this year the faculty would only allow the game when played in the gym.

JUNIORS IN MEETING CONSIDER PROBLEMS

Prom, Class Hour and Oregana Are Main Afflictions Which Trouble Brown's Cohorts

The Junior Prom, Class Hour and Oregana were the principal items of business considered by the 1916 seniors at their monthly class meeting in Professor Howe's room, Deady, this morning.

Bothwell Avison, general chairman of the Prom committee, announced that a meeting of sub-chairmen had been held recently and that plans were being perfected for the Junior Week-End formal. The question of decorating the gymnasium is undecided. William Holt spoke in favor of decorations, saying that the 1916 class should set a precedent in this regard, since nearly all previous classes have done no decorating.

Wallace Eakin, chairman of the class hour committee, made a report on the progress that was being made for the Juniors' assembly program. He announced that the details of the program would be kept secret.

Speaking on the subscription campaign of the Oregana, Leslie Toole, circulation manager, said that at present the number of subscriptions exceeded those taken for the 1915 Oregana by five, having been secured to date. He stated that indications were favorable for the taking of 50 or more additional subscriptions.

William P. Holt, manager of the Oregana, said that the book would go on the press this week and that the copies would be ready for distribution by May 1. Professor Allen, class adviser, made several suggestions concerning the financial affairs of the book.

OREGANA NOMINATIONS TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Sophomores Decide to Pick Year-Book Engineers Early—Conklin Gives Parental Advice

The Sophomore class, at its monthly meeting in McClure yesterday, decided to hold nominations for editor and manager of the 1917 Oregana tomorrow afternoon at 4:00. The election will probably be by ballot in Villard next Monday from 1:00 to 3:00.

Miss Hazel Rader was given a vote of thanks for her services in training the chorus for the Sophomore class hour.

Dr. E. S. Conklin, class adviser, talked on scholarship mainly, but mentioned the class hour, saying that it was all right in his opinion, that he took in good humor the little jibe at him, and that the class should not worry, because it is impossible to please everybody.

"I want a spirit of real scholarship developed here at Oregon," declared Dr. Conklin, urging the Sophomores to do their part in the change.

"There is no place except one where tradition is so entrenched as in college. One man told me that if one tried to suggest an idea in his house, he was laughed at. Now if they would let that man go, he would lead the house to scholarship.

"The students should love to do individual scholastic work, to seek knowledge for its own sake."

Coach Luehring, of Princeton, picks the following all-collegiate basketball team:

Forwards—Brown, Cornell; Kinney, Yale.
Center—Lee, Columbia.
Guards—Haas, Princeton; Arnold, Yale.

Three hundred students are now taking courses in the University of Oregon Correspondence School.

126 HIGH SCHOOLS IN EMERALD CIRCULATION

Alumnae Association Makes Deal that Brings Subscription List Up to 1,450

As the result of a deal between the Alumnae Association and the University, 126 four-year high schools of the state are receiving copies of the Emerald for the balance of the year.

The Alumnae Association contracted last fall for more subscriptions than it was able to dispose of among its members. It has finally been able to sell the unused balance to the University; and, starting with the last issue, the paper is being sent free of charge to the above mentioned prep schools.

The total circulation of the Emerald at present is 1,450 copies per issue, a number about equal to that of last year. Of this number, 650 are distributed in Eugene and the remainder to places outside of the city.

MILLER, '14, INTERVIEWS BRYAN ON PEACE MOVEMENT

Waldo S. Miller, '14, who is now specializing in Finance at the University of Pennsylvania and taking a prominent part in the activities of the University of Pennsylvania Peace Society, last week had an interview with Secretary Bryan at Washington, for the purpose of getting his co-operation in the peace movement at Pennsylvania.

This peace society was organized at the beginning of the present year to arouse sentiment against Representative A. P. Gardner's proposal to increase the military armament of the United States. It has also been instrumental in organizing peace societies in other colleges and universities in the United States.

Miller will return to Oregon in June by way of the Panama Canal.

$75 for a Recipe
Tea Garden Syrup is used thousands of ways in cooking. We want the housewives of the Northwest to tell us how they use it for desserts, for preserves and crystallizing fruit, etc. For the best receipt received we will pay $75 in gold, and $25 for the second best. Send as many as you desire. Contest open until September 1.
Tea Garden Syrup is delicious and nutritive—it is far superior to and more healthful for the children than all corn or glucose syrups.
