"EVERYBODY GOES"

Now that the Senior class has undertaken the management of the first Student Body lottery dance, the other three classes doubtless will lend their heartiest co-operation toward making it a "go." The venture will be either a colossal success or a colossal failure, depending upon the extent to which the sentiment, "Everybody Goes," is indoctrinated in the Student Body.

Each class, through committees, should see to it that its masculine members accept the ukase of the lottery like "good sports," and provide for the attendance of every girl in the University who wishes to dance. It is by far the most democratic idea yet conceived for a University social function, and it can be worked out.

Of course, should this first lottery prove the success which is expected, the present Senior class will be rendered considerably more pecunious. This fact, however, should not spoil anybody's evening. If the innovation proves practical, the dance undoubtedly will become an annual event, and each class in turn will reap the financial advantage.

Somebody had to inaugurate the movement, and since the Seniors have taken the chance, they are entitled to the spoils. Not only are they the fitting sponsors for such an undertaking, but they happened to have the most available date, and incidentally they need the money.

THE TURKISH BLEND CIGARETTES

Men Read this:

Lippitt & Myers Tobacco Co., 212 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Gentlemen:

I am not an ad. man, nor can I draw, but when my heart is with a thing I can talk convincingly, because I know what I am talking about!

Smoking experience is the greatest of teachers. It teaches a fellow always to get the best when it is not more expensive. After giving practically all so called "Turkish blend cigarettes" and "gold tipped" cigarettes fair trials, my room-mate persuaded me to try Fatima Turkish Blend Cigarettes, and Fatimas, who don't already have "pulling power," You can tell all the fellows who don't already know that Fatima Cigarettes are the last words in individuality and satisfying excellence.

These are my sentiments, and if things straight from the shoulder have "pulling power," then all live college men will gravitate about Fatimas. Sincerely yours,

(Signed) CLAYTON R. PALLAN, 115 N. Thayer St.
P.S. In the event my ad. wins a prize, please send the prize money in Fatimas instead of the cash—no matter if it is the $500.00 prize.

The $500 Prize

$500 will be paid to the college student who sends to us the best original advertisement for Fatima cigarettes before June 1, 1915. In the meantime, for each ad. we publish we will pay the writer $5. Illustrate your ad. if you can, but if you can't draw, then use your kodak or describe your idea.

Prize will be awarded by a committee of three prominent advertising men, L. B. Jones, Adv. Mgr. Eastman Kodak Co., F. R. Davis, Adv. Dept. General Electric Co., and J. George Fredrick, Editor of Advertising & Selling.
