THE ANNUAL DOLLAR

Yes, the time has come. Following an ancient custom, and incited by the present necessity, the Secretary hereby issues the first call for dues for 1915-16.

The Emerald reaches several hundred alumni. We could effect a considerable saving in postage, if this note might be considered in the light of the usual circular letter.

While you are sending in the dollar, please take time to add to your letter a bit of news that the rest of us may not have heard.

THE NEW REGENTS

University graduates seem well pleased with the choice of new Regents, just announced by Governor Withycombe.

Mrs. Gerlinger, by her active work promoting scholarships, has endeared herself to the alumnae, who are doing much along the same line; and to the alumni, who should perhaps be doing more than they are.

Mr. C. C. Colt has already served the University as an adviser of the School of Commerce. Alumni who know the quality of his work thus far, are glad to see him in a position of still greater usefulness.

Mr. Henry McKinney, '07, is well known to both the older and younger generation of alumni. As a hard working student, as editor of this paper, as orator and debater, and as an all round athlete, McKinney made a college record that has probably not been equalled. Since graduation, as rancher, business man and legislator, he has been a factor in the development of his community and of the state.

DR. HARVARD C. MOORE, '09, IN GOVERNMENT SERVICE

Portland (Special to Alumni Section)—Harvard C. Moore, '09, has been ordered to go on active duty at once at Vancouver Barracks. Dr. Moore has for some time been on the Medical Reserve Force of the U. S. Army.

DR. HAROLD L. HOPKINS TO HEAD SCHOOLS AT BEND

Bend (Special to Alumni Section)—Harold L. Hopkins '93, M. A. '96, has been chosen city superintendent of schools of Bend. Mr. Hopkins has the degree of Ph. D. from Oberlin, and of B. D. from Yale. He has been city superintendent at Bandon for some years past.

CURRIN AND MCCOY ARE AT WORK IN ALASKA

To Editor Alumni Section: Please make my address Juneau, Alaska. I am working at the power plant, where Louis E. McCoy, '11, is head operator.

I do not know of any other Oregon graduates in this country. It was only a few miles from here that Shattuck perished in 1912.

HUGH P. CURRIN, E. E. '12. MEDFORD ALUMNAE ARE IN COLLEGE WOMEN'S CLUB

Medford (Special to Alumni Section)—Miss Lucile Allen Davis, '13, formerly head of the English department in Grants Pass High School, is now an instructor in the Medford High School.

The following former students of the University are now prominently identified with the College Woman's Club, of Medford: Mrs. Helen McKinney Arnspiger, '13; Mrs. Sarah Reed Hammond, ex-'08; Conifred Hurd, '11; Winifred Hurd, '11; Mrs. Bessie Kidder McDaniels, '08; Eva Lucile Marshall, '13; Ruth M. Merrick, '12; Mrs. Mardella Weaver Phipps, ex-'13; Mrs. Etha Williams Thayer, ex-'05; Mrs. Aletha Emerick Vawter, ex-'14.

Charles R. Oleson, '12, who has been with the Oleson Lumber Company, in Portland, for the past two years, has moved to Woodland, Washington. He will engage in farming.

The 1915-16 catalogue is now with the State Printer and will be out by May 1. About 5,000 copies are being printed.

JOHN STRAUB WRITES

He Meets Many Former Students On His Trip Through Eastern Oregon

Union, Or., Apr. 8, 1915.

To the Alumni Editor:

Anyone who thinks he can go to any part of Oregon without meeting a former Oregon student will quickly learn that that is one of the few impossibilities. On the train to Portland were two Eugene alumni. In Portland, in an hour's trip, I saw between 26 and 27 (about 26½) alumni on the streets. When I boarded the train for Ontario, I thought that I could surely have a good time from here on, but in the seat in front of me sat Mrs. Erma Clifford McCulloch and her husband, and back of me was Miss Melissa Hill. I saw then that the "saintly life must be mine" on this three weeks' trip, and I might as well make up my mind to be good.

At Nyssa I found Mrs. Jessie Calkins Morgan, with whom I had a very pleasant conversation on the phone. At Ontario I found Miss Lilah Clark and June Gray, who are doing good and acceptable work in the high school; also Mr. Prather, a former Summer School student. I was pleased to meet Bill Fizer, a former Avava, the pole vaulter of three years ago. He will not return, as he has a wife.

At Vale I found Miss Fay Clark, County Superintendent. She was very kind to her former instructor and showed him all the wonders of her town. Also had the pleasure of dining with Mr. and Mrs. Crandall, parents of the Sigma Chi Crandall.

Baker has perhaps more old U. of O. students than any other town excepting Portland and Eugene. It would be impossible to name them all. They are all staunch friends of the University. Miss Susie Moore, James Cuning Frank Mitchell, O. B. Mount, Leland Funk, are a few of those whom I met here.

At Union we had the pleasure of meeting Marion Davis and Prof. Aubrey Smith, with the latter of whom we had the honor of dining. From there we went to Cove, where Prof. Allen and Miss Williams, former Oregon students, are teaching.

LaGrande, Or., Apr. 14, 1915.

While at Union I was invited by Prof. Aubrey Smith, of the Union High School, to attend a surprise party to be given to Rufus Wright, who, with his brother Elmer, was a student at U. of O. and a Sigma Nu, some twelve years ago. There I met Mrs. Hall, who also was a student over 25 years ago, her name then being Miss Miller. She and Mrs. Charlotte Roberts Elton were room-mates.

At LaGrande there are probably 40 or more old students: Mrs. Alice McKinlay Miller, Herbert Hanna, court stenographer, Turner Oliver, a prominent attorney; his brother Jack, an abstractor; Howard Davis and Ray Logan, real estate men; Joel H. Richardson, an attorney; and many others whom I could name.

From LaGrande I went to Wallowa, where I found U. R. Wilson, electrician; C. T. McDaniels and Leonard Couch, old students of '90-'93. McDaniels is a banker, with a wife and three fine children, getting ready for U. of O. The above three are ardent boosters for U. of O. Here was also Helen Kurt, last year's Freshman and a Mu Phi. She goes to Notre Dame, Ind., next year.

At Joseph I met Miss Strachan, a Beth Rhea of three years ago, teaching in the high school. She hopes to be back this fall. Here lives also a Mrs. McCully, who as Miss Mary Gaily was a student one year in '95. Her daughter will come to U. of O. of course, after two years more of high school.

At Enterprise is Mr. Wattenburg, class of 1910, an architect, well spoken of in his community.

Elgin, the home of George Hug, holds three of our students, Prof. O. C. Maxwell, a Summer School student, Miss Blanche Ferdine, '10, and Prof. C. T. Kronenberg, who will be superintendent of Elgin schools next year.

I find a very friendly sentiment toward the University in Wallowa county. The people, however, complain because the University does not send more representatives up this way. The four towns above mentioned want the Glee Club next year, and they all say they will give the club a cordial welcome. In my opinion, a Glee Club trip up here would be a paying investment in bringing new students to U. of O.

JOHN STRAUB.
