

NO DEFICIT INCURRED BY JUNIOR YEAR BOOK

Oregana Cost $7,400; 750 Copies Delivered. Expenses Volumes Left for Exchange

For the first time in history, the Oregana is out before Junior Week-End. Bill Holt and his assistants spent nearly all yesterday afternoon riding around in an express wagon, delivering them at the respective fraternity houses to those who were on hand with their money. The non-fraternity men, who have not received books, may obtain their copies at the Y. M. C. A.

This year's book is 8 by 10 inches, bound in peacock blue cloth, and contains 352 pages. The cost was $3,000, which is $700 less than that of last year. It was printed at Yoran's Printing House, of Eugene.

"We have put out 750 copies, and these have been distributed among the students, faculty and townspeople, and out of town friends of the University. The biggest job in putting it out was to make the book fit the price. This is the first time that the Oregana has cleared expenses. It is 160 pages less than last year's book, but we could have used at least 150 pages more if we had had the money."

Hyde said that it was necessary to cut out all color plates, some Student Body material, some athletics, and to reduce the fraternity space one-half, in order to make the book as compact as possible.

The 1916 Oregana is dedicated to Eric W. Allen, Professor of Journalism. The 1915 publication was dedicated to Samson H. Friendly, who has been a Regent of the University since 1895.

This year's book has combined the law and medical departments with the classes, so that there are only nine divisions in place of the twelve of last year's edition.

The table of contents includes Faculty and Administration, Classes, Fraternities, Student Organizations, Student Activities, Athletics, University Days, Features and Advertising.

The staff is as follows: Editor-in-Chief, Maurice Hyde; Manager, William P. Holt; Assistant Editors, Lamar Tooze and Evelyn Harding; Administration, Charlie Fenton; Classes, Wallace Eakin; Forensics, Cloyd Dawson; Organizations, Rita Fraley; Women's Activities, Marie Churchill; Sports, Fred Dunbar; Fraternities, Donald Onthank; Features, Lamar Tooze; Calendar, Cleveland Simpkins; Poetry, Chester Fee; Music, Eva Brock; Art, Joe Tomlinaga; Assistant Manager, Roy Stevens; Circulation Manager, Leslie Tooze; Editor and Manager of Law School, Merrill A. Reed.

"The thing which struck me most about this issue of the Oregana is the pleasing tendency to be conservative," said Colin V. Dymont, of the Journalism Department, after looking over the book. The 1916 class appears desirous of avoiding the chronic Oregana danger, namely a tendency to get out a publication, the purpose of which is to outshine and outspend all previous publications. The Oregana should be adjusted each year to the economic and abnormal conditions of the year. The most satisfactory thing that can be said about this year's book is the fact that it is understood to be paid for. Typographically the book looks clean enough and good enough for any class in an institution of our size."

PROFESSOR ALLEN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF ROUND TABLE

Professor E. W. Allen was elected President of the Round Table at a regular annual meeting Tuesday night at the Osburn Hotel. Prof. A. R. Sweetser was elected Vice President, and Dr. M. C. Harris, Secretary-Treasurer. The occasion was the annual banquet, at which about 50 sat down. Mrs. E. W. Allen made the reply on behalf of the visiting women.

INCREASE OF 25% EXPECTED IN JOURNALISM ENROLLMENT

Prof. E. W. Allen expects a 25 per cent increase in the enrollment of students in the School of Journalism next year. Since the announcement of the $8,000 appropriation for that department, a large number of inquiries have come in from prospective journalists.

PRISONERS GET BOOKS

Roger E. Pine, No. 27,673, San Quentin Prison, Writes for Geology Texts for Class

A package of books will leave the office of Dr. W. D. Smith, of the Department of Geology, this week, consigned to Roger E. Pine, No. 27,673, San Quentin Prison, California. They are supplied by the Department of Geology and by the Y. M. C. A. Book Exchange and sent as the result of a letter forwarded from the Department of Geology at Salem to the University.

"An unforeseen circumstance has placed me in an unenviable position I have taken up the study of geology and mineralogy in order to better myself mentally. In this prison we have a class which studies the said science. But any extra books necessary the students must get at their own expense. But as money is something I have not at the present time, I am therefore in need of a little outside assistance. Any literature or bulletins which you gentlemen's kindness sees fit to send will be put to the best possible use and certainly appreciated as a great favor.

I remain your respectfully,
ROGER E. PINE, No. 27,673,
San Quentin, California."

This incident is a reminder of the case of two weeks ago in which Mrs. Osburn, of Eugene, subscribed to a University correspondence course for one of the prisoners in the prison at Salem. The books and instruction papers were returned.

SATURDAY'S HOCKEY GAME IS LAST OF THIS SEASON

Saturday's hockey game on the local field, which was won by the U. of O. girls from the O. A. C. girls by a score of 3 to 1, will probably be the last game of the year. A former game, played at Corvallis April 3, resulted in a score of 6 to 2 in favor of the Aggies. There are no arrangements to play off the tie.

The girls who played in the Saturday game are: Vera Moffet, Margaret Crosby Helen Phillips, Olga Soderstrom, Hallie Hart, Jennie Hunter (captain), Eyla Walker, Doris Ball, Myra McFarland, Mabel Vannant and Esther Furuset. One of the two goals credited to Vera Moffet in an earlier account, was made by Helen Phillips.

The Enterprise team, who had the lead in all the Eastern Oregon districts, as composed of Willard Lewis and Harold Venske, accompanied by their coach, C. A. Montandon.

The question, "Federal Ownership of Railways," was introduced by the President of the League, R. L. Kirk. "College joy-riders! Eh! The deuce! What!"—"Spud" Hill, as Uncle Joseph Pennicque, in "Jeanett's Way."

A total of $300 is still lacking to make up the deficit in the present year's budget.

begin exactly on the dot of the half-hour. Immediately after the grand march the dancing will begin with a one-step in order to liven up things. There will be 15 regular dances, and as many extras as time will permit.

"We have already engaged Hendershott's orchestra. There will be eleven pieces, which is more than has ever been at any previous University dance. In order to secure a larger floor, the orchestra will be stationed at the north end of the balcony.

"Cabs, even though it is a rainy night, are tabooed, as are also flowers. We would greatly prefer that the sororities, also, hold to this rule."
