

STUDENT SESSION WILL BE HELD ON FRIDAY

Co-Operation Between Students and Recreation is Urged

One of the biggest features of the Commonwealth Conference, says Professor Young, will be a student session held under the direction of the Student Body officials, Friday at 3:00 o'clock, to consider the question of devoting a large amount of the forest reserves of the state to recreational resorts. Several Government officials will be present at the meeting and will probably propose some organization among the students for the attainment of this end.

One of these men will be E. C. Finney, who will represent Franklin K. Lane at the conference. Who the other man will be is not yet definitely known, but he will be a member of either the United States Department of Agriculture or Forestry.

The object of the session is to inaugurate among the students of the state a movement for the purpose of devoting the latent resources of the state to recreation grounds, to secure for the state its deserved fame of having beautiful scenery. "At present," said Professor Young, "the Government is taking an interest in the state, as is shown by the appropriation of half a million dollars for highway development on the McKenzie. I personally urge every student to be present at this meeting as the matter under consideration is something of great importance to the students. It is an opportunity that will not soon come again, for the Government does not often send officials across the country."

BOTH MEN AND WOMEN LOSE TENNIS MATCHES

Oregon Trio Meets Defeat at Seattle; O. A. C. Girls Win from Local Pair

The University of Washington easily won from Oregon last Saturday at Seattle in tennis, taking all five of the matches.

Oregon was represented by "Tubby" Wheeler, Walter Church and Oscar Noren. The best and closest match of the day was between Noren and Kauffman in the singles. This match was finally won by Kauffman, 6-4, 7-5, 3-6, 5-7, 1-6. Captain Canfield, of the Washington team, had very little difficulty in defeating Church in singles, 6-0, 6-1, 6-4.

The doubles matches were also easily won by the Washington players, Canfield, Miura and Kauffman. The hardest fought contest in the doubles was between Noren and Church and Canfield and Kauffman. The latter two won, 13-11, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2. In the other double match between Wheeler and Church and Canfield and Miura, Oregon lost 6-1, 6-2, 6-4.

At Corvallis Miss Adrienne Epping and Miss Frances Baker, representing Oregon in the tennis tournament held there during the athletic carnival last week, were defeated by Miss Esther South and Miss Winifred Patterson, of O. A. C., in the double matches, but broke even in the singles.

Miss Epping and Miss Baker took the first set of the doubles with ease, but the O. A. C. co-eds came back strong and won the next two sets, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3. In the singles Miss Epping lost to Miss South 7-5, 6-2, and Miss Baker won from Miss Patterson 6-4, 6-3, thus dividing the single matches.

A strong wind and cold weather made it disagreeable for the players and made good playing almost impossible.

Professor Don Sowers was presented with a nine-pound boy Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Sowers is in the Maternity Hospital at Portland, and is reported doing nicely.

The little son of Professor Sheldon ran a needle in his foot last Friday, which necessitated an operation. The accident prevented Professor Sheldon from making a trip to Baker to deliver a commencement address, and President Campbell went in his stead.

TWENTY THREE FROSH TO APPEAR AT COURT

Singing, Dancing and Absence of Plot Are Features of Class Hour Play

Although there are 23 Freshmen in the class hour play, "This Way Out," the number has absolutely nothing to do with the title. The play is the work of Don Newbury and Doc Sutton, both of '18. The scene is laid in a court room of the local court, with the "Good Judge," the attendant, reporters and all the fixings of a typical judicial scene. There is a mere excuse for a plot, which after the manner of all musical comedies, quickly loses itself in a maze of songs, dances and specialties introduced by members of the cast to the accompaniment of an eight-piece orchestra. The cast includes the following, in the order of their appearance:

Lord Saveus—Joe Hedges.
The Attendant—Bob Earl.
Court Reporters—Bill Vawter, Albert Gillette.
The Good Judge—Doc Sutton.
Counsel for the Defense—Don Newbury.

The District Attorney—Jack Dolph.
T. Isadore Knob—Jimmy Sheehy.
Dorothy Knob—Gladys Colwell.
Her Mother—Alice Gram

The jury is composed of the regulation number, half women and half men, whose principal duty is to crawl to the latest tango music and to help with the songs. Don Newbury, Bill Vawter, Bill Snyder and Albert Gillette will show some late wrinkles in late song hits, while Jack Dolph, Gladys Colwell, Alice Gram and Joe Hedges will contribute a few specialties. The audience is urged to be seated by ten o'clock, as the doors will then be closed and not opened again until the eleven o'clock bell rings.

MUIRHEAD WILL RUN AT CONFERENCE MEET

which is said to increase his distance, to shatter even his national record.

Oregon will get little in the sprints unless Bill sees fit to run "String" Loucks in the 220, in which case the lanky boy has a good chance to place. If Muirhead can recover from his brils in time, and Bill says he can, he is practically conceded the high hurdles and the high jump. He may have trouble with McCrocky, of Whitman, in the lows, and his ability to grab first in the broad jump is also a matter of question.

"Sam" Cook will probably win the shot put if his bad arm gives him no more trouble, while Chet Fee will probably win the pole vault and place in the javelin, with a chance in the broad and high jumps.

The dual meet with O. A. C. which was to have been held in Corvallis Saturday, and was postponed on account of the poor condition of the track, will be held in that city on the 5th of June.
