ANNOUNCEMENT

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Varsity Fifty Five Designs for Fall

are their own best announcement

NOTHING WE CAN say about these very striking and snappy styles for men and young men will be half as strong as the clothes will say for themselves. If you pass our store, you can hear what they're saying to well-dressed men; and if you enter the doors and see the clothes face to face they'll prove to you conclusively that here are the most stylish suits ever produced.

Come early, and get first choice. There's no good reason for waiting; you want one of these suits; or two.

PAGEANT OF OREGON LORE IS ARRANGED

Drama Is Written By Dr. Schafer and Plans So far Indicate a State-Wide Spectacle.

A pageant depicting the lore and history of Oregon, to be written by Dr. Schafer, head of the history department, and to be presented by the students and townspeople next spring, is being planned as one of the big features of this year's work at the University.

It is expected that all the history department will cooperate in searching out suitable material for this out-of-door production. The English, music, public speaking department, fine arts and journalism and physical training will contribute their share towards the construction of this enterprise. It is also like representatives of all patriotic societies in the state will be represented, as it is intended to be of state-wide interest.

Mrs. George Gerlinger, one of the regents, in discussing the proposed affair, said:

"We have a wonderfully rich heriitage in the history of the great Oregon country, and it is fitting that the State University should gather up and keep in permanent form this historical lore."

Dr. Schafer thinks that a meeting to discuss and make plans for the production will be called shortly.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The Young Women's Christian Association has planned a special vesper service for Sunday afternoon, to be led by Miss Watson, one of the English teachers. The service will be held at the Bungalow and will be followed by an informal good time and a marshmallow toast. All new girls are especially invited to attend.

On Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, in the Bungalow, will occur the Dove reception for Freshman girls.

A joint Y. W. C. A.-Y. M. C. A. reception is scheduled in Villard hall, Sunday evening, September 24.

There will be a few changes in the Y. W. C. A. cabinet this year, as a few of the officers have not returned to school.

This year the Bible study classes will be held in the Sunday schools, which will do away with the campus classes.

At present the association is engaged in preparing a Y. W. C. A. exhibition for the State Fair at Salem. This will be composed of posters, charts and pictures, both inside and outside the Y. W. C. A. bungalow.

The souvenir Oregon pencils which were on sale during the registration days at Johnson hall by the Y. W. C. A., are now on sale at the book store.

In October Miss Eleanor Hopkins, who succeeds Miss Fox as Northwest student secretary, will visit the campus with Miss Jane Scott, executive of the Northwest field.

It is planned to hold a council for high school girls from different parts of the state some time before Christmas. The purpose of the council is to inspire the girls to attend college here and to interest them in Y. W. C. A. work.

The Portland Alumnae of Chi Omega announces that they will present a silver cup, to be awarded annually to the women's fraternity in Pan-Hellenic having the highest scholastic standing, the first award to be made at the end of the coming school year.

The Y. W. C. A. employment bureau reports that there are two or three places where a girl may earn her room and board. Information can be obtained from Miss Gillies.
