

CHET FEE IS THIRD BEST ALL-ROUND ATHLETE IN AMERICA

Oregon Track Captain Cops Big Place in Decathlon. Others Make Mark at Meet.

Chet Fee, captain of Oregon's track team, proved himself to be the third best all-around athlete in the United States, when he annexed 6442.1 points in the Decathlon at San Francisco during the National meet this summer. The two men who prevented Fee from realizing first honors are Richards of the Illinois Athletic club and Brundage, a middle Western entry. Richards and Brundage were both members of the American representation at the Olympic games at Stockholm three years ago, Richards taking the high jump. These men registered 6953 and 6457 points respectively.

In practice the Pendleton product has been able to do better in every event than he did at San Francisco, except the pole vault. In the Decathlon he ran the 100 meters in twelve and a fifth and covered the 400 meters in 53 2-5. In the pole vault he went 12 feet and in the high jump five feet five inches. He did his hardest event, the 1500 meters in 5:30 but he made up for this slow time by hurling the discus 99 feet 10 inches and putting the shot 35 feet. The high sticks were negotiated in 16 1-5 and in the javelin the best heave was 15 feet 9 inches. Had Chet been throwing the spear up to form he would have taken second place. For any toss near his former mark of 179 feet would have given him a comfortable margin.

Fee placed in every meet he entered. Besides his record in the National Championships he garnered six points in the far western meet with a first in the javelin and fourth in the vault. In the junior events he tossed the javelin for a second.

Guy Hobgood of O. A. C. and Sam Bellah, the veteran Multnomah man were the other stellar performers for the Northwest. Hobgood took first in the mile and two mile in the far western meet. In the National Championships he ran third to Hannes Kohlemaien, of New York, and Oliver Millard, of the Olympic Club—5 milers. This was pronounced one of the most stirring races ever run on the coast, due to the hair raising finish in which a yard stick would have covered all three runners. "Hoby's" achievement was all the more remarkable for the fact that he had only a few days to train for the longer event.

Bellah covered himself with glory by winning the pole-vault in the far western meet at 12 feet 6 inches, and then capturing first honors in the National Championships with a leap of 12 feet 9. Sam also took fourth in the javelin throw at the far western meet.

"Moose" Muirhead did not acquit himself in the expected style. He captured fourth in the high sticks in the far western meet when Fred Kelly tied his own world record of fifteen seconds flat. After this meet "Moose" could not get into form.

Hummel of Multnomah, Cole of O. A. C., Clyde of Washington, also brought home points for the Northwest. Hummel took second in the 440- hurdles and fourth in the 220-toppers at the far-western meet. In the Junior events he annexed second honors in the low sticks. Harry Cole could not get his discus away from him in form. He took only one place—a fourth in the far-western meet. Paul Clyde placed second to Hobgood in the far-western mile.

Bill Hayward, Oregon's great track coach took the boys south and a great deal of their success may be attributed to Bill's handling.

JOURNAL JOKESTER OFFERS OREGON THE "ONCE OVER"

Rex Lampman, who edits the once over column and the "Alibi" on the Oregon Journal, has offered the former column to the University Department of Journalism for one day about the first of the week in October.

"The kind of material desired is the dash story, the short joke, funny poetry—in fact anything that goes to make up a freak column," said Professor Dymont, of the Journalism Department. The lead in this issue will be a dash story similar to the ones now used by Mr. Lampman. After material has been handed in, the best will be chosen and forwarded to Portland, where Mr. Lampman will give it the "once over" and—if satisfactory—place it in this special column.

Students are asked to leave all material with Mr. Dymont as soon as possible.

MISS M. L. CUMMINGS AIMS AT POPULARITY FOR GIRLS' ATHLETICS

New Head of Department Pleased With Attitude of Westerners.

Miss Mabel L. Cummings, the new head of the Women's Physical Training department, arrived in Eugene early in the week, and is busy bringing the different gymnasium and physical training classes up to their usual working efficiency.

Miss Cummings comes from the Illinois State Normal University, where she was head of the department of Physical Training during the past 9 years. Miss Cummings attended the Boston Normal school of Gymnastics, which is now the department of hygiene at Wellesley College and is a graduate of the University of Chicago and of the Rush Medical College, of Chicago.

When questioned concerning her work for the ensuing year Miss Cummings said, "I want to make this department of Physical Training more popular with the students than it has been heretofore and increase their interest in athletics. It seems to me that such courses should play a large and pleasing part in the undergraduate life of the women. Of course I am used only to eastern conditions but there, athletics fills one of the largest and most interesting places on the campus. At Wellesley the senior Tree Dance is one of the biggest features of Commencement Week. So far I am very much pleased with the situation here and especially with the western attitude toward athletics for women."

Our Methods:

THE METHODS and manner in which the Sample Store operates their string of 20 stores are identically the same as if it were one great institution under one roof. Their buying is done in the same manner as are the largest mail order houses of the country, such as Sears Roebuck & Co., Montgomery Ward, National Cloak and Suit Co., Etc. The advantages the Sample Stores have over the mail order houses are this: They are on the local ground of the consumer and naturally are located, thus the consumers have the opportunity to see the merchandise they are anticipating buying. The prices are practically the same, in some cases they are a few cents less, figuring in the parcel post or transportation. When the decision is made there is no time lost in exchanging and worry about bad fits, waiting, etc. 609 Willamette Street.
