

SOPHOMORES WIN HONORS IN ANNUAL UNDERCLASS MIX

Only Points Secured By Frosh Are For Grandstand Decorations.

GIRLS MIMIC BATTLE

Pushball Contest, Tie-up and Sandbag Easily Won by Class of 18. Score Is 55-10.

The Sophomores carried off honors in the mix this afternoon by the lopsided score of 55 to 10. The only points secured by the frosh were for decorations on the grandstand.

The annual contest began at one o'clock sharp. Headed by the Senior police, a bevy of 75 Sophomore girls appeared on the field dressed in green blouses and white skirts, carrying above their heads half hoops of white. They serpented to the music of "On Oregon" from the band. The freshmen girls followed in black and white attire and left foot-highing at the rear came the male contingent of the freshmen class.

The Sophomore girls then lined up at the east end of the field and began military drills. While so engaged an enemy appeared—soph girls dressed as frosh—and offered battle. The "frosh" were defeated in the battle of contetti and hid themselves to the grandstand.

The Sophomore girls were awarded five points for general beauty and appearance.

The marriage of Miss Sophomore to Mr. Nineteen was the stunt pulled off by the freshmen while the "rushing" of sororities, exaggerated into ludicrousness was the sophomore's stunt.

The push ball contest was too one-sided to have the usual interest attached, the sophs winning before the allotted time. There were 25 on each side. The sophs won the sand bag rush and the tie-up. Twenty three sand bags were carried by the sophs as against three by the fresh and four frosh were tied up and one soph.

TUITION FEES UPHELD BY WASHINGTON COURT

The act of the Washington legislature in charging tuition fees to students of the University has been upheld by the King county superior court. The decision is the result of a suit brought against the University by several students and the guardian of one in an effort to enjoin it from charging tuition.

High Schools Eager to Enter League

The High School Debating league is beginning a year that promises to be the banner season for inter-high school contests. The final day for high schools to enter the lists for the debating cup, which Salea high school now holds, is October 15. Already about 15 schools have applied for admission, and are inquiring for a bibliography, which the University of Oregon is preparing. It is expected that 60 high schools will have entered by the last day of entry, as against 33 competing teams of last year. The question for the coming year is "Resolved, That the United States should adopt some form of compulsory military training."

To-Ko-Lo announces the election of Kenneth Bartlett, De Witt Gilbert, Donald Roberts, Robert Earl, Don Belding, Laird Woods.

Once-Over Offers Contris a Chance

King Lampman, Colyumist, Wants Jerky, Raggy Stuff From Chestnut Raisers.

Every wit and humorist in the University will be given a chance to display his talent in the "Once Over" column of the Oregon Journal within a week or so if the plan staged by Professor Dymont materializes.

Rex Lampman, editor of the "Once Over" column has turned over his job for one day to the University of Oregon department of journalism, and Professor Dymont has accepted his offer. However, it is his wish that the material come from the student body in general, but if this appeal is not heeded, the column will be gotten up by some one fraternity or by the journalism classes.

"The column, duly credited to the U. of O. students, is to appear about the first week in October. Now get busy. Turn in jokes, good stories, bits of poetry and one of those tales in dashes. Label it "Once Over," and leave it in the journalism room," said Professor Dymont.

ALL DEBATERS MAY TRY FOR SAME TEAM

"If Girls Win in Tryouts They Make Team." Debate Schedule Announced.

There will be no distinction between men and women in debate this year. "The girls must tryout against the men," says Coach R. W. Prescott, "if they beat they ought to be on the team. It is an innovation here, but O. A. C. and Reed College may do so if they wish."

Two teams of two each will be selected for the triangular state debate. The first preliminary tryout will be held October 16, on the question, "Resolved that the United States should adopt some form of compulsory military training."

Ten men or women will, at that time be selected. They may take either the affirmative or the negative. Two men, Nicholas Jaureguy and Cloyd Dawson, are the only registered students who have won their "O" through forensics.

The following is the debate and oratory schedule for the year 1915-16: Saturday, October 16, 9 to 12 a. m.—First eliminating debate tryout. Ten to be selected.

October 30, 9 to 12 a. m.—Second eliminating debate tryout. Eight to be selected.

November 12, 7:30 p. m.—Final tryout and alumni medal contest. Six selected.

December 17, 7:30 p. m.—Prohibition oratorical contest tryout. January 7, 7:30 p. m.—Eliminating tryout, old line oratorical contest.

January 8, 9 to 12 a. m.—Eliminating tryout, peace oratorical contest.

January 15, 9 to 12 a. m.—Final tryout, peace oratorical contest.

January 21, 7 p. m.—Final tryout old line oratorical contest.

PROFESSORIAL PROBES SUBMIT QUESTIONNAIRE

Faculty Committee Will Meet Daily For Investigation of Indicted Athletics.

STUDENT MANAGER QUIZZED

Statistics On Relation of Sports to Studies and Student Finances Will Be Compiled.

In hope of getting into agreement on specific recommendations before next Thursday's faculty meeting, the faculty committee that is to report on abolition of intercollegiate athletics will meet almost daily during the intervening week.

Its second meeting will be Monday afternoon. Its first was yesterday afternoon, at which time six of the seven members were present and the whole athletics situation was roughly gone over. The committee then called upon the student manager for the following information, to be submitted Monday:

How much money comes into the student body fund from students that is afterward disbursed upon athletics?

How much is spent on coaches, grounds, seats, travel, equipment, management, trophies, and other items of intercollegiate athletic expense.

What were the scholastic records last year of students participating in intercollegiate athletics?

Give an analysis of the courses they took, and state who, if any, of them withdrew from college.

The committee in effect called for a complete analysis of athletic expenditures and athletes' scholarship.

The committee membership is: E. De Cou, professor of mathematics, chairman; Joseph Schafer, professor of history; H. C. Howe, professor of modern English literature; James D. Barnett, professor of political science; Warren D. Smith, professor of geology; Fred C. Ayer, professor of education; George Rebec, professor of philosophy.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY TO HAVE MADAME GADSKI HERE

Philharmonic society members have started a canvass for subscriptions to this year's course of recitals. J. N. Waterhouse, secretary of the society, reports that much enthusiasm has been aroused already in Cottage Grove, Creswell and Halsey. The railroads will probably grant special rates from neighboring towns for the three recitals, according to Mr. Waterhouse's report, so that out of town people may plan to hear Madam Gadski sing on December 12, and Don Emilio de Gogorza, the famous baritone, later in the season.

About 85 attended the second meeting of the society on September 27. All of last year's officers were re-elected except the librarian. Roy Stephens was chosen librarian to fill this vacancy, left by Paul Sprague. The retained officers are, Dr. Y. S. Beardsley, president; Mrs. Ambrose Middleton, vice-president; Mrs. Alton Hamton, treasurer; J. N. Waterhouse, secretary.

A petition from Verne R. Smith, a former member of the 1915 class at the University of California, dismissed last September on recommendation of the students' affairs committee, was read before the academic senate at its meeting last Monday. Smith appealed against the action of the college of commerce on August 27, barring him from future attendance at the University.

CLUBS AND CHURCHES ENDORSE DINNER PLAN

"Fine Project," Says C. D. Rorer, President of Eugene Commercial Club.

COLORED TAGS ARE PRINTED

1000 to Participate Estimate. Special Tags Will Be Worn By Ticket Purchasers.

Preparations for the "progressive dinner," on October 8, are in full swing, and, according to Frank Scafe, chairman of the committee on arrangements, who predicts a patronage of at least 1000 University and townspeople.

Lamar Tooze and Frank Scafe conferred with the board of trustees of the Eugene Commercial club at the Osburn hotel Wednesday noon and solicited their support, explaining the plans for the dinner and the purpose of the new women's building. The club voted unanimously to do all in its power to help out both in advertising and in patronizing the affair.

"It is a fine project," said C. T. Rorer, president of the club. "We heartily endorse it and I, personally, urge every Commercial club member to buy a ticket and attend." Among those present at the luncheon were C. D. Rorer, Dean Hayes, Joseph Koke, A. A. Hampton, S. Dike Hopper, Judge E. O. Potter, and D. F. Yorlan, ex-mayor of Eugene.

The Science, Atlas and Fortnightly clubs have also promised their support.

Lamar Tooze has written to two Portland firms asking them to donate coffee for the dinner.

Colored tags have been printed, one of which will be given to each ticket purchaser. The tag reads, "I AM GOING TO THE PROGRESSIVE DINNER, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, ARE YOU? A GREATER OREGON. LET 'ER GO."

In order to systematize the sale of tickets among the townspeople, Frank Scafe has put tickets on the Y. M. C. A., the Coe Stationery Co., Atlas club, Commercial club, The Rainbow, and Obaks, and he has appointed the following to take care of the circulation among the various churches:

Presbyterian, Charles Collier; Methodist, Wendell Bartholemew; Congregational, Paul Spangler; Unitarian, Miss Campbell; Catholic, James Sheehy, and Christian, Harold Humbert.

Helen Weigand, chairman of the sororities, says that the details are now completed and that everything is working out in good shape.

"There will be a booth in each sorority house, where those who have not already done so can buy tickets on the night of the dinner," said Miss Weigand. "But don't leave it until the last minute. Buy early and avoid the big scramble."

Frank Scafe has appointed the following girls to take care of the sale of tickets in their respective houses.

OREGON'S GRIDIRON HEROES CONQUER LIGHT PACIFIC UNIVERSITY TEAM 47-0

Morning Game Between Oregon Freshmen and Eugene High School is Also Lop-Sided and Goes to Freshmen 19-0. Forest Grove Team Is Fast But Inexperienced.

PENALTIES ARE MANY OREGON IS PENALIZED

Hoisington Shows Line-Breaking Ability and Most Stars in Open Field. Irle, Lucas and Abrahams Are Stars for Visiting Congregationalists.

Eugene High School and the "Frosh" staged a game upon Kincaid field this morning which resulted in a 19 to 0 score in favor of the latter. The game could not be characterized as exciting, although thrills were furnished at various times by good field running and fumbles. The Freshman team were nearly rushed off their feet in the first minute of play, but as soon as they had their chance to attack they advanced the ball in an excellent manner.

Eugene's star men were Newman, Schafer and Smith, while the lustrous luminaries of the Frosh aggregation were Hoisington, Mast and Leo Coosman.

Hoisington showed lots of stuff, tearing off 15 to 35 yards quite frequently.

FACULTY TO APPEAR IN SPIRITUAL PLAY

"Passing of Third Floor Back" to Dedicate Guild Theatre October 8 and 9.

"The business of art is to show the beauty that underlie all things," says the artist in the "Passing of the Third Floor Back," the play to be presented by the faculty of the University at the opening of the Guild theatre, in Johnson hall, October 8 and 9. The author, Jerome K. Jerome, had in his consciousness this quoted idea when he made it the business of his art to show the beauty that underlies even the sordidness of a London boarding house.

It is hardly a play, rather a sort of parable, containing a prologue in which the eleven members of a boarding house are continually wrangling, backbiting and exhibiting snobbery, selfishness and sordidness. At this point, the "Stranger," played by Prof. A. F. Reddie, enters. In the intermediary acts following the prologue, transformation of each member of the house is accomplished by the "Stranger" through a series of situations and through dialogue in which he makes each of them see the good things in their characters and forget the petty meannesses.

The epilogue finds the boarders living with each other, entirely transformed, in serenity and good fellowship.

The "Stranger" slips from their midst as quietly as he came, his mission is accomplished. Nowhere in the play has an inkling been given as to his identity, but it is understood that he is meant to be Christ incarnated in the form of a modern "gentleman."

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia—According to an approximation of the total enrollment in the University this year, it is estimated that about 7,500 students have registered. This number, which will probably be increased by late registrations, eclipses the total of last year by 300.

The game between Pacific University and Oregon ended with the score standing 47 to 0 in favor of the Varsity. The game was interesting from the standpoint of the possibilities of the Oregon team, and the fight showed by the light, fast Pacific team against overwhelming odds in weight and experience.

The stars for Pacific were Inle former Portland High star; Lucas and Abrahams, who returned to the game after repeated lay outs.

For Oregon Malarkey, Montlieth, Hoskins and Tuerck played the best games although everyone was there with some good stuff. Montlieth, Malarkey and Hoskins kept pulling off long broken field runs.

Coach Yeakle stated before the game, "We should put up a good fight against Oregon if the fellows play up to expectations." As usual Coach Bezek said "Nothing."

Oregon was penalized 8 for a total of 75 yards while Pacific was only set back 10 yards by the referee.

In the first quarter after Pacific had thrown a scare into Oregon in the first few minutes the Varsity settled down to business. After ten minutes play Malarkey ran 35 yards through a broken field and brought the ball within 5 yards of the line. A second later he put the ball over the line. Beckett kicked goal. Score 7-0.

Oregon kicked and after see-sawing and kicking exchanges the Oregon team began a march down the field which ended in a touchdown by Montlieth. Beckett kicked goal. Score 14-0 Second Quarter.

Another touchdown was made from the 50 yard line, when on four runs, when Montlieth carried the ball 10 yards, Malarkey added 30 yards, Tuerck failed to gain and Montlieth out the ball over from the 10 yard line. Beckett kicked goal. Score 21-0.

After Hoskins returned the ball 25 yards on a punt, Tuerck runs 40 yards through the whole P. U. team for a touchdown. Beckett kicked goal. Score 28-0.

Starting from Oregon's 40 yard line the Varsity took the ball to the enemy's 40 yard line and then attempted two forward passes to Riskey. The first went over his head and he dropped the second. End of half Score 28-0.

Oregon receives the ball, Montlieth runs the ball in 35 yards, Malarkey adds 10 yards, Montlieth added 7 yards and had the ball in 5 yard zone when they were penalized 15 yards, and on the next play were given five more. After see-sawing Oregon penalized 15 yards for holding. Montlieth kicks to Pacific's 3 yard line. Pacific kicked and Oregon carried the ball over for a touchdown by Hoskins. Beckett kicked goal. Score 35-0.

Hoskins returned the ball 20 yards from the kick-off. Oregon failed to make yardage. P. U. attempted another pass but Tuerck intercepted, Montlieth then ran 20 yards and the ball was bucked to the 1 yard line, where Malarkey carried it over. Beckett missed goal. Score 41-0.

Hoskins runs 70 yards from kick-off, running outside on the 5 yard line. After another buck he carried the ball over. Beckett failed to kick goal. Score 47-0.
