CAMPUS "EATS" WILL BE "A LA CAFETERIA"

Thousands of Alumni and Their Friends Will Renew Old Acquaintances on Nov. 20.

Plans were perfected last night at a joint meeting of the local alumni and of representative students held at the Commercial club rooms, at 8 p. m., for a home-coming dinner, to be served on the campus at noon, November 20, according to Lamar Tooze, president of the student body. All alumni and guests, both local and visiting and all students of the University are invited. Preparations are being made for 1500 people.

Under the general chairmanship of Louise Bailey, president of the Woman's league, and of Mrs. Edna Datson, who represents the alumni, assisted by a committee composed of Lamar Tooze, Charles Collier and Nicholas Jauregui, all students are being asked to help in contributing foodstuffs and time. The girls, who have been divided according to classes, each one of which has a head, are to give sandwiches and salad; the fraternities and the men's dormitory will supply paper plates, cookies, besides necessary time and energy.

If the weather is fair, the luncheon will be held outside on the grounds, if not, it will be given in the men's gymnasium.

Another project for which plans were perfected last night, is that of having the local alumni furnish cars to conduct the visitors on a trip through the campus, Sunday, when all University buildings will be open.

All University correspondents, and also all local merchants, have been asked by President Tooze to append a statement of home-coming day to each letter they send out between now and November 20.

Among those who will return to the campus for the Oregon-O. A. ## LAND SHOW CALLS "GRADS"

Cards Are Being Sent to Portland Resident Alumni to Be Present November 10

"Twelve Oregon college presidents and hundreds of alumni will renew their youth and express their loyalty by joining in the celebration of college night at the Land Products show in the Portland armory, Wednesday evening, November 10.

"As a loyal alumnus of the University of Oregon, you will, of course, help to give the University of Oregon the largest and most enthusiastic representation. Bring your Oregon spirit with you. Leave your dignity at home. Meet at the Chamber of Commerce, Oak street, near Fifth, at 7:30. Rally around the big Oregon banner.

"The only expense is 25 cents admission to the land show. Come. We'll have a good time."

The above is the message carried by small cards which are now being sent out by a committee composed of E. N. Blythe, '02, L. R. Alderman, '98, and John C. Veatch, '07.

"Wednesday will be observed as military day, and college night," says the land products show program in the Sunday Oregonian, for November 7. "The companies of the Oregon National Guard will turn out on parade with two bands, and college presidents of Oregon will march to the exposition after a banquet at the Chamber of Commerce."

The educational side of life at Oregon will be emphasized during the "college night" festivities, says President P. L. Campbell, who will participate.

A special musical program which is to be given will include numbers by an Oregon quartet composed of Professor R. H. Lyman, dean of the school of music, Albert Gillette, Iver Ross, and John Black. Professor Lyman and Mr. Gillette will also render solos. The men leave for Portland Wednesday.

PERSONALS

Herbert G. Moulton, a native of Oregon and a graduate of her University, was recently chosen by the New York public service commission as expert on subway underpinning. After graduating from the engineering department at Oregon, Moulton went east. He has been employed for the past six years by Eugene Meyer, Jr., & Co., of New York.

George Noland, a graduate of the University of Oregon in 1882 and circuit judge of the district comprising Klamath and Lake counties, died of heart failure, here today. Judge Noland was the father of Virgil Noland, who met a tragic death at the University four years ago. D. V. Kuykendall, another alumnus, was endorsed by the Klamath Bar association for the position left vacant by Judge Noland's death and later was appointed.

Five former Oregon students are attending North Pacific Dental college, located at Portland, Oregon. They are: Edward Gray, ex-'18; Cecil Lindley, ex-'16; G. A. Billings, ex-'16; Ray Murphy, ex-'13, and E. R. Abbett.

H. L. Smith, ex-'14, is assistant professor in mathematics at Northwestern university, located at Evanston, Illinois. Smith took his bachelor's degree at the University of Chicago, where he made Phi Beta Kappa. He intends to remain in the middle west until he secures his master degree and then return to the Pacific coast.

H. C. Bean, '12, completed his medical course at Johns Hopkins university last year, and received an appointment to a professorship at that institution.

Cecil Miller, '13, has recently spent several weeks in and about San Francisco.

Multnomah will play the Olympic club at San Francisco November 14.
