

SOPHS HUMBLE FROSH

18-ers Win Underclass Game by Three Touchdowns. McLean Is Star.

Captain Joe McLean's sturdy sophomores plugged through the Frosh line last Saturday morning for three touchdowns and were returned 20 to 0 victors in the annual underclass football game.

The Soph backfield consisting of McLean, Peacock and Trigilgas, ripped off ten to fifteen yard gains at every attempt. Captain McLean made the first score through left tackle and kicked an easy goal.

Five minutes later Quarterback James scored a touchdown after running eight yards on an off tackle play. He missed goal. In the final period, after a series of line plunges and a long pass to left end Mason; Peacock shot through the line for the final score of the day. James kicked goal and the score showed a 20 to 0 balance in favor of the class of '18.

Fullback Joe McLean was the big star of the game. He was good for fifteen yards on every plunge. Coach Bezdek watched his actions and intends to pull him over to the varsity ranks next year. "Scop" Mason proved to be a bear on the defense for the second year men. His tackling was clean cut and he pulled down a beautiful pass out of the air. Nelson and Tourtellotte formed the bulwark of the Frosh defense.

Feeling that rugby is losing its popularity, the Leland Stanford Athletic association has sent 4500 letters to its alumni assuring them that the game with Santa Clara will be the big game of the season.

NOTICE.
There will be no meeting of the Commerce Club tomorrow night.

DEDICATION PROGRAM

beans; the Sophomores, salad; and the freshmen will make the sandwiches. Twenty-five dollars have been donated by the local alumnae and $20 by the faculty to cover the expense of the luncheon.

It is planned to have the bleachers on the athletic field decorated with Oregon colors. The committee in charge comprises Charlie Fenton, Emma Wootton, and Genevieve Chapin. The luncheon tables will be trimmed with greens and yellow chrysanthemums.

Several of the business houses have offered to give cups for the best decorated student quarters, including Mary Spiller hall, the men's dormitory, sororities and fraternities.

The Luckey jewelry store has put up a 14-inch silver cup. It is engraved as follows: "Presented by the Luckey Jewelry Store for the Best Decorated Student Quarters. Won by _____, November 20, 1915." This cup is on exhibition in the store window.

The dance and reception in the evening will begin at 8 o'clock sharp. Music will be furnished by Hendershott's orchestra.

"This dance will be very informal," said Emmett Rathbun, chairman of the "hop" committee. "The general admission will be 50 cents. Alumni will be admitted free. There is room for at least 500 couples. The committee is planning for a large crowd. The program consists of 15 dances and no extras, and each dance will be long."

In connection with the dance there will be a reception in one of the adjoining rooms at the Armory, where the old "grads" and their friends, who do not care to dance, can sit and talk over the "good old days". Punch will be served here. Genevieve Shaver is chairman of the committee in charge. A special committee of the Eugene Alumnae will assist during the evening.

Announcement

Certainly the mill race, its beauty and charm, its place in the hearts of University folk needs no introduction at this time. It does seem fitting, however, to acquaint the undergraduates and their friends, with the change in management of the canoe house, formerly run by Mr. Bond.

The Raceway, as the place will henceforth be known, is now run by a member of the University. A new member to be sure, but one, nevertheless, who is zealous for the best interests of the institution. It is his purpose to develop the unlimited possibilities of the mill race, to adapt his policy to the needs of the patrons and render the waterway an even greater delight to the hearts of the graduates and undergraduates alike.

Plans are now under way for a new and complete lighting system. It is proposed to arch the race with three arches of colored lights. The swimming pool is to be rendered more attractive for evening bathing. The number of bathing suits has been doubled. The canoes are to be put in the best of condition, and new canoes purchased. The grounds are to be leveled and an observation platform erected. Every unsightly object must go, and the whole place rendered a worthy adjunct of the campus. These many other improvements are under consideration. Though it will be some time before the place can be put in the condition desired, nevertheless, barring unforeseen difficulties, the major portion of the improvements will be affected this year.

These improvements mean work for University students, and work is a problem just now. If that statement is doubted, ask J. D. Foster. These improvements also mean money, and that is another problem. Ask any one. However, there is a solution to the problem.

It is assumed that this enterprise deserves the support of the student body, in that it contributes to the support of students. Let everyone who likes canoeing, and who can afford it, purchase a canoe ticket. These tickets call for twenty hours of real recreation, at a cost of 10 cents per hour; are transferable, and good at any time, with the single exception of Sunday afternoon after May 1st.

There are only 100 tickets and these must be sold before Christmas. The money derived from this source will tide the enterprise over the slack period, and permit of the immediate employment of students on the proposed improvements.

Are you individually and collectively for this enterprise? If you are, this is YOUR opportunity to show that you are, at a time when it will be appreciated most.

Tickets may be had at the Y. M. C. A., and the Y. W. C. A., or you may buy them at your fraternity or sorority house.

Yours for recreation,
GERRY WATKINS.

U. of O. vs. O. A. C.

The football game this year between U. of O. and O. A. C. will be bitterly contested. Oregon won from the strong U. of S. Cal. team, 34 to 0, while the Oregon Aggies defeated the Michigan Aggies 21 to 0. These two teams rank with the best in the United States. The winning of this game at Eugene on Nov. 20th, by either team, means more than a championship. It will be worth your while to see it. Trick plays, forward passes will keep the spectators tense from the start of the game to the final blow of the whistle.

THE SAVOY WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY The College Orphan

A film story of unusual sort, the scene being laid and acted principally around a college. The principal characters being college men, co-eds, and frat boys. One of the characters in the "College Orphan" is Socrates. Every American College has its character, at once beloved and made fun of by the students. Yale has its John, the Orange Man; Harvard its Charlie the Old Clothes Man and University of Vermont its Prexy Stowe; Oregon, Jim, the Blacksmith.

Many interesting scenes including a football game and a night at the theatre in which the boys kidnap the chorus girls go to make up an interesting story that will furnish a very pleasant evening's entertainment.
