Notice: An Urgent Need.

IT IS MORE than noticeable around the campus that a majority of students, and of faculty, for that matter, do not know the rules and regulations of the University in regard to many important matters, especially those governing the relation between faculty and students.

This fact emphasizes a real need of the University: and that is the codification of the associated student body constitution together with the faculty rules and regulations governing the scholastic and social activities of the students.

How many on the campus know the detailed powers of the faculty, the authority invested in the legislature through the board of regents, the source and maintenance of the University? How many know the rules governing honor students, the social affair rules, the social convention decrees and what-not?

The Emerald would like to see this matter given consideration by both faculty and students, and, if possible, taken up in the student and executive councils. This is the time for such a codification to be made for the student body has just revised its constitution, which necessitates the printing of this governmental instrument.

COMMUNICATED

Editor Emerald: In your last issue a reporter, through misapprehension, represents Dr. Gilbert as naming me as the "originator of the honor system at Oregon." Dr. Gilbert did not intend to give this impression and there is no truth in it.

To Professor H. C. Howe, with the committee, who aided him in shaping up the details, belongs the credit of originating the honor system at Oregon. F. G. YOUNG.

CUES

What I want to know is—where did Bill Tuerck and men of like calibre get their experience in holding? Hayward, official doughnut referee says it is foul—the way they hold.

"Chuck" Dundore is an optimist. He says there are lots of ways to earn a living.

"Yes," answers the college wit, "there would always be a job waiting for you."

"For me," smiles the unsuspecting "Chuck."

"Sure," chuckles the college wit, "you could sell red-crown gasoline."

(Screamingly funny, isn't it?).

MU PHI EPSILON INITIATES

Mu Phi Epsilon, Women's Honorary Fraternity, held initiation Saturday night at the school of music followed by a banquet in the private room of the Men's dormitory. A feature of the banquet was the introduction of a new sorority song composed by one of the initiates, Hazel Radabaugh, and sang by Leah Perkins and Hester Hurd with Miss Radabaugh at the piano.

Cincinnati is considering the abolition of all intercollegiate sports.

HOME SCIENCE MENUS

NOTE—It is the intention in this work to suggest those items within range of economy, based on quotations of local markets.

CEREALS

Most people are familiar with cereals only at breakfast time but they really offer many possibilities as tasty luncheon and dinner dishes.

When unpatented cereals are cooked a reliable rule is the coarser the grains the more water will be required and the longer will be the time of cooking. Finely ground preparations, such as farina and cornmeal, should be mixed with cold water first to prevent the formation of lumps, while flaked preparations must be sprinkled through the fingers into boiling water, one teaspoonful of salt being used for two pints of water.

Home Croquettes.

Cover 1 cupful of hominy with water and let it soak overnight; then boil it in one quart of milk until quite tender; let it cool. Then add 2 teaspoonfuls of butter, one beaten egg, salt, pepper, and paprika, to taste. When cold make into neat croquettes, brush over with beaten egg, toss in fine bread crumbs fry in hot fat; drain and serve hot.

Cracked-Wheat Pudding.

Stir two cupfuls of soaked cracked wheat into four cupfuls boiling water; add 1 teaspoonful of salt and cook twenty-five minutes; then add 4 cupfuls of milk, 1 cupful of sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoonful of melted butter, 1 cupful of raisins, 1 cupful currants and 1/2 teaspoonful each of cinnamon, ginger and nutmeg. Pour into buttered dish and bake in moderate oven until the pudding is set. Serve with cream or stewed fruit.

Corn Meal Dumplings

Mix 1 pint cornmeal with one teaspoonful of salt; pour boiling water over the meal, and stir well using water enough to make a stiff dough. Divide the paste into small pieces; form the pieces into flat dumplings and dredge with flour. Drop them into a kettle of boiling water. Cover, and cook twenty-five minutes. Serve hot with spinach.

Homing and Not-Loaf

Grind one cupful of walnut meats and 1 cupful of roasted peanuts and mix with them 1 pint of cold water, 1/2 cupful of bread crumbs, 3 hard boiled eggs chopped fine; 1 tablespoonful of grated onion; 1 beaten egg, salt and pepper to taste. Form into a loaf, put into a buttered tin and bake 30 minutes in a hot oven; baste with a little butter and wafer occasionally. Garnish with slices of lemon and parsley. Serve with brown sauce.

Whole Wheat and Tapioca Pudding.

Wash and soak 1 cupful of tapioca overnight in cold water. Drain off the water and add 1/2 cupful melted butter or good drippings, 2 cupfuls of sifted whole wheat flour and 1 teaspoonful salt. Mix and put into a buttered mold; over with buttered paper and steam 3 hours. Serve with golden syrup or fruit sauce.

Oatmeal Soup

Melt 2 tablespoons of butter, add 1 chopped onion and let it cook slowly without browning. Add 2 cupfuls of cooked oatmeal, four cupfuls of milk, salt and pepper to taste and stir until it boils. Simmer until smooth and rub thru a sieve. Reheat the soup, pour over the beaten yolk of 1 egg and serve.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dr. F. C. Ayer, head of the appointment bureau, says that the University has received ten or twelve calls for teachers that it has been unable to fill, because requests have been made for teachers of subjects for which none here is prepared.

Chester Huggins will teach physical training, bookkeeping, and English in Milwaukee, next semester.

P. D. Baker, O. C. Hadley, E. W. Heckert and Eva Brock are ready for schools, but have found nothing suitable to date. There are very few good positions open at this season of the year. Most of the appointments are made in April and May.

Dr. Ayer says that the University always receives many calls for teachers of commercial subjects and domestic science which it is unable to fill. This is because so many schools are putting in courses in these subjects and very few teachers are prepared to teach them.

Tuesday, February 15, 7: 30 p. m.—Faculty colloquium, Dr. Danton of Reed college will speak.

Wednesday, February 16—Assembly, Dr. Danton, professor of German, Reed college, will address the assembly.

4 p. m.—Dr. Rebec will give the next number of the 4 o'clock series on "Durer and Rembrandt—Both Worlds at Once."

4 p. m.—Student affairs committee meeting. Friday, February 18, 8 p. m.—Miss Forb's will give a recital in Villard hall. Admission free.

In order that the scholarship ratings of the organizations be made out as soon as possible no changes in membership or grades will be allowed after next week.

TEACHERS FOR 1916

A meeting will be held in Dr. Sheldon's room, Thursday, February 17, at 4 p. m., for all those desiring to register with the appointment bureau this year. FRED C. AYER, Director.

"DASHES"

The professionalizing of "Chet" Fee turned out to be nothing more than a newspaper yarn. Some Eugene citizen sent a letter to a Portland scribe without signing his name.

The rumor comes from the Aggie town that Hobgood has resigned on the two-mile this year and will enter only the mile. "Doc" Stewart must have something in the way of a trump slipped up his sleeve.

"Moose" Muirhead gave all the Oregon supporters a thrill of joy when he appeared on the campus the first of the week. A thrill is all it turned out to be, however, for "Moose" stayed only long enough to say he had no intention of registering.

No one seems to know whether "Moose" Payne is coming back or not. The last time the "jack-rabbit" was heard from, he was in Portland, and it rather looked like a case of come-back.

Clyde is again captain of the Washington track team. He is expecting great things from his squad this season. Clyde is a crack miler and will have a good mate in McDonald, second place man in that event at the conference meet last year.

Oregon's first real turnout for track came yesterday, and there was a goodly looking crew. The spring weather is probably responsible for the large turnout so early in the season. Bill needs all the good weather he can get, if that is the case.

The Columbia indoor meet has been called off because of damage to the track by the recent storms. This will rob Hayward of a chance to see what his new men can do when put to a real test. The far western meet at Corvallis, on April 1 will, serve as a substitute.

Few Allens at U. of C.

Despite the fact that California is much closer to the Oriental countries than eastern universities, only 191 of 4,222 foreign students in 275 American universities and technical schools are registered in California institutions, according to a report issued by the Bureau of Education. Fifty-one countries are represented, French Guiana and Siberia being the only ones without students in American schools. New York leads in the number of foreign students.

The class of 1915 at Amherst, following the custom of previous classes, has presented to the college a set of books for the library. It consists of the "Harvard Classics" in 51 volumes, sometimes known as "Dr. Eliot's Five-Foot Shelf."

The students of Wellesley College are protesting against certain rules which prohibit them entertaining their beaux on Sunday. The Sabbath was certainly made for man, they say.
