

51 ORGANIZATIONS COUNTED ON CAMPUS

Nine Sororities and Ten Fraternities Not Included. Polity Club Latest Addition.

There are 51 organizations on the University campus. This number does not include the nine sororities and ten fraternities which are also organized and hold weekly meetings. The first organization was the Laurean Debating society, formed in 1880. The most recent organization is the branch International Polity club, organized Thursday, April 27, 1916.

Three organizations are now extinct. They are the Engineering club, Women's Choral club and the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. The Choral club is now the Women's Glee club. Both engineering clubs went out when the engineering department was transferred to the Oregon Agricultural college.

Following is a list of the organizations:

1. Associated Students of the University of Oregon. 2. Seniors' class. 3. Juniors' class. 4. Sophomores' class. 5. Freshman class.
6. Student Council. 7. Girls' Glee club. 8. Men's (Glee club. 9. Oregon Mandolin club. 10. Mu Phi Epsilon.

TRACK PROSPECTS BLUE

Advance Dope on U. A. C.-Oregon Meet Favors Rivals.

"Track looks pretty blue to me," declared Trainer Bill Hayward as he viewed his rain-soaked field at the University yesterday. He had looked forward to getting his men in fine form for the Corvallis meet on May 13.

"As near as I can judge at present," said Hayward, "O. A. C.'s team looks just a little stronger than ours. I had counted on strengthening the Oregon boys in the weight events, hurdles and distance runs, but the rain is against me. Corvallis has its big armory in which to keep in form in spite of adverse weather conditions. All Oregon has its little track shed and they didn't even have it a short time ago. The hurdlers are making the best use they can of it, but the sprinters find it of no use as the shed is not long enough.

"I could put my men out on cross-country, but it is the wrong season and would slow them up too much. Besides this we have suffered more than any of the others in the loss of last season's men.

SORORITIES TO PLAY BASEBALL SERIES

Women of University Form League. First Game Scheduled for May 5.

Women at the University are taking up baseball as a sport in much the same way in which the men are. The athletic council elected Olga Soderstrom baseball manager to arrange a schedule for a loughnut or inter-house series.

The first game is to be played Friday, May 5, between the Delta Delta Deltas and the Kappa Alpha Thetas. On the following Saturday morning and afternoon the second and third games will take place.

As much interest has been shown in the comparatively new sport as in hockey or any other attempted by the women. Every sorority with the exception of the Alpha Phi and Pi Beta Phi have entered a team. The women majoring in physical training, the Oregon club, and Mary Miller hall will also be in the league.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS ELECT

Theatians Add to Membership and Choose Heads for Coming Year.

THE UNIVERSITY PLAYERS announce the election of Creston Maddock
Albert Holman
Este Brosius

The University Players met at the home of Miss Echo June Zahl on Thursday evening and elected the following officers for next year: President, Alexander Bowen; vice-president, Echo Zahl; secretary, Martha Beer; treasurer, Marion Tuttle.

Creston Maddock, Albert Holman and Este Brosius were elected to membership in the club. Plans for the initiation of these neophytes are under way and the initiation will be an event of the near future.

The University Players was organized last fall by a group of students who were interested in the production of modern plays on the campus. The organization is limited in membership to fourteen, the qualifications for membership being ability and a genuine interest in dramatic work.

"The Fortune Hunter," a comedy by Winchell Smith, which was given at the Eugene theatre on March 31 and April 1, under the direction of James Mott, was the initial production of the organization.

The officers for the past year were: President, Mandell Weiss; vice-president, Merlin Batley; secretary, Emma Wootton; treasurer, Juanita Wilkins.

TEN TIMES TEN?

JIM CELLARS.

Quiet reigned around the library at 8 o'clock. Amusement stood in every eye. "Chet" Fee's jaw hung as loose as his flowing tie. "Hank" Howe grew as pale as his white trousers. Howard McCoullough fumbled with the needle then put it back with a regretful sigh. The mystery of the lost muffler from Moose's Betsy was solved. But—who had muffled Gilbert.

What humorist made anyone enjoy his stuff more than he did himself?

The last semester's o'er and they've closed the college door,
'Tis the last that we have seen, of the beautiful campus screen,
And the heaped bones of bulls lying scattered on the floor.

By the way, there is one animal that hasn't missed a class or cut an assembly before or since the initiation of the cut system. It takes all the hours they give, too. Who is it?

In regard to the short poem contest being carried on by Dean Collins, we would like to submit this under either of the following titles: "The professor's epitaph," or, "Why A student died." Here it is:

STUDENTS ORGANIZE POLITY CLUB HERE

Society Is Branch of Organization Founded in England to Discuss International Topics.

Forty-five University students and members of the faculty met at the Beta Theta Pi fraternity house last night to organize a branch of the International Polity club. Lamar Toose was elected temporary chairman and Cloyd Dawson, temporary secretary. A committee was also appointed to draft a constitution to be adopted at the next meeting on Thursday, May 4.

The International Polity club is an organization which was founded in England for the purpose of arousing the interest of college students in the discussion of international questions. It is backed by the Carnegie foundation and provides excellent speakers who are sent to its branches all over the country. Lamar Toose first became interested in it when he was with the Ford peace party and as other clubs were being organized on the coast, he started the movement at the University. Invitations were sent out to students who appeared interested. Nearly all responded and attended the meeting last night.

President P. L. Campbell and Professors D. W. Morton, N. C. Grimes and E. C. Robbins were also invited to become members on the same basis as the students. Professor Robbins gave a short talk last night telling of the work of the clubs in the eastern colleges with which he has been connected.

The committee which will draw up the constitution is composed of Cloyd Dawson, Bothwell Avison, Nicholas Jaureguy and Professor Robbins.

COOPERATIVE STORE TO BE INCORPORATED

Will Have Stock of $1000 in Shares of $1; Prof. McAuslan Elected Manager.

The University cooperative store is to be incorporated under the state law, with a capital of $1000, which consists of books now on hand. This was decided by the Student Council at its meeting Tuesday night. The capital stock is to be in shares of $1.00, to be held in trust for the student body by the council as the board of directors.

At the same time, Robert McAuslan, of the school of commerce, was elected general manager of the store.

Memberships will be sold at $1 each. Members will participate in the profits according to their purchases, while non-members will share at the rate of half their purchases. This plan permits all the students to benefit by the store, while still offering some inducement to membership.

The council endorsed the candidacy of Edell Fraasch, a sophomore in the University, for queen of the Portland Rose festival, and urged that all possible student support be given her.

Another meeting of the council will be held next Tuesday, at which the council's contract with Mr. McAuslan will be discussed.

Municipal Band Concert at Armory Draws Large Crowd

The municipal band concert last night in the armory was a great success and met with well-earned applause. Perhaps the best received band selection was "The Wedding of the Rose," by Jessel, in which the drums and piccolo were used effectively. "Mighty Oregon," the march composed by Professor Albert Perfect, the director, and "L'Africain," by Meyerbeer were also popular.

Mrs. Daise Beckett Middleton sang "Carmena" with "Dandelion" as an encore. Her rich contralto voice captivated her audience.

Following the concert was a dance, which as the night progressed, attracted a large crowd which thronged the floor until after midnight.

Students of the University of California talked over the long distance telephone this week to students of Columbia university, in New York city.

The date rule does not apply to seniors in the University of Oklahoma. Beginning with the opening of the second semester they are allowed dates every night if they choose.
