

CALLED FOR RECRUITS

College Men Wanted in Field Work in Europe.

Transportation to the Front and All Expenses Will Be Paid of Volunteers.

College men as Y. M. C. A. recruits for field work in the prison camps and hospitals of the different warring European nations are called for to perform Christian service and Y.M.C.A. work. College men are asked for as being best fitted to interest the prisoners of war and convalescing wounded men in the organization of impromptu Y. M. C. A. associations and tasks of a like nature. Transportation will be furnished to the front and expenses paid. This campaign to secure volunteer social service workers is conducted by I. B. Rhodes, the northwest secretary of the Y. M. C. A. It will be considered as a sort of extension department of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Wheeler, managing editor of the Portland Evening Telegram is assisting in the campaign for men.

HAVE YOU BOOKS TO SELL?

Secretary Foster at Book Exchange Prepares List of Needed Books.

In order to assist students in disposing of text books no longer needed and also to make it easier and more economical for those desiring texts to secure them, Secretary J. D. Foster of the University Y. M. C. A., has prepared a list of books which are at present in demand. Books included in the following list, especially, are desirable just now and should be turned in at the Y. M. C. A. Book Exchange in Deady immediately by those desiring to dispose of them.

According to Secretary Foster, the book exchange will remain at its present location in the basement of Deady Hall indefinitely. Until regular hours are arranged the exchange will remain open during the entire school day.

Following is the list of books especially desired at present: Organic Chemistry, Perkins & Kipping; Mechanics and Heat, Anderson; Briggitta, Anerbach; Psychology, Pillsbury; Inorganic Chemistry, Newell; Latin America, Shepherd; Renaissance and Reformation, Hulme; Psychology, Angell; Cost Accounting, Nicholson; Cost Accounting, Rowes; Agricola, Tacitus; Quatres Vintes Tres, Hugo; French Grammar, Olmsted; Spanish Grammar, Olmsted and Gordon; Her Name, Hugo; Essentials of German, Vos, New Edition; Early American History; The Study and Practice of Writing English, Lomer and Ashmun; The Mechanics English Style, Smith; Teaching of Mathematics, Young; History of the Revolution, Channing; Greek Grammar, Gleason; Geology, Chamberlain and Salisbury; Marie Stuart.

LOCATIONS ARE CHANGED

School of Extension Goes to Education Building; Journalism Expands.

The School of Extension will move into the new Education building as soon as it is completed. The school of journalism will occupy the extension building, together with the present rooms in McClure. The change is made to allow for more room for the printing department, better and larger offices for the Emerald, a place to work up a larger museum and a good storeroom.

A more adequate phone service will be installed, for with the school of Journalism scattered throughout the two buildings, it would be impossible for all work with one phone. The Physics, Botany and Zoological departments, located in Deady, have installed a private phone service of cost of $100, which connects all of the departments. Something of this sort will probably be installed in the School of Journalism, though it must also be connected with the city phone service.

'FROSH' CLASS MEETS

Largest Number on Record Meet Friday in Villard.

Nominating Committees Are Chosen to Place Officers for Election Meeting Monday.

The first meeting of the class of 1920 was held in Villard hall at 4 p. m., Friday. There was a good attendance at the meeting with the men being in the majority. This year's class is the largest freshmen class on record, according to registration figures.

Several talks were given at the meeting. President Campbell spoke a few general words of welcome, and then announced that the course in Practical Ethics is compulsory for all freshmen. Miss Fox will have the women's division Tuesdays at 11 a. m. in Deady hall, and at 1 p. m. in Guild hall. President Campbell is to have the men's division at 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. on Tuesdays, both in Villard hall.

Dean Straub limited his talk to a short discussion on the method of nominating officers for the class this year. Two committees are appointed to nominate candidates for president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. The first committee this year is composed of Backstrand, Carlie, Miss Helen Whittaker. The second is composed of: Randall, Sevi, Miss Otten.

The persons named by the two committees will be voted upon at the next meeting to be held in Villard hall, at 4 p. m. on Monday, the 18th of September.

Mrs. Parsons then urged the girls to get acquainted and to join the Triple A, an organization which is to foster good-fellowship, as well as to develop the democratic spirit for which Oregon is famous.

Dean Walker and his team of 13 football men attended the meeting. He spoke later and asked for more men for freshman football.

WOOD TO KEEP US WARM

1700 Cords of Fir Slab Delivered to University Heating Plant.

There certainly is some woodpile over behind Mary Spiller hall. It measures about 1700 cords. There are nearly 30 ricks and the longest is 244 feet in length, and 8 feet high. The wood is all seasoned fir slab excepting about 100 cords of body fir, which will be used in the Mary Spiller furnace.

TO CONSIDER HOMECOMING

Student Council Meets Wednesday to Choose Sophomore Members.

The problem of over-organization which created such a stir on the campus last year appears to be solving itself. The Greater Oregon committee will either be re-organized or its work taken over by the student council, according to Nicholas Jaureguy, student body president.

At the first meeting of the student council which will be held next Wednesday Sept. 20, the sophomore member of the student council will be elected. This will bring the membership of the council to 14 as the result of the sophomore amendment passed last semester. At the same meeting the yell leader advisory committee will probably be elected to select the names of several candidates for the position of well leader. From these candidates the student council will elect one at a later meeting, and the leader chosen will appoint his assistant.

The re-instatement of intercollegiate basketball will also probably be discussed at this meeting and definite steps will be taken at an early date, says Mr. Jaureguy, toward action in this direction. The combining of Home-Coming Day with the Oregon-Washington football game on November 4 will be considered by the student council and probably be decided upon, since this will be the most important football game to be played in Eugene this year.
