

Student and Faculty Activities

By Dorothy Parsons

On Monday evening at eight o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Potter, of 1178 Willamette street, Miss Pauline Potter, a well known Eugene girl, became the bride of Carl Norman Homer in the presence of over 100 guests. A great deal of sentiment was attached to this wedding as the bride's parents were married in the same house, on the same day, at the same hour, and by the same minister, Rev. D. A. Watters, of Portland, twenty-six years ago.

The house was beautifully decorated and the ceremony took place in a bay window festooned with white clematis. Katherine Watson met the guests at the door and Miss Norma Hendricks played the wedding march, accompanied on the violin by Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Vancouver, B. C.

Miss Lenore Hansen, of Portland acted as bridesmaid, while Miss Anne McMicken was maid of honor. Little Gay Hamilton served as flower girl. She was dressed adorably in white with a large pink bow for a sash and another on her hair. She preceded the bride carrying a basket of Cecil Bruner roses which she strowed along the aisle as she went. The bride entered on the arm of her father and was met at the altar by the groom. Three Gamma Phi Betas, Marguerite Gross, Helen McCormick, and Esther Hill made an aisle a pink tulle through which the bridal party passed.

Miss Potter was exquisitely gowned in white satin trimmed with choice lace. She wore a Juliette cap from which dropped the long veil and her bouquet was a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Hansen and Miss McMicken were dressed somewhat alike in pink with large picture hats and bouquets of Ophelia roses.

After the ceremony, Mrs. George O'B. DeBar and Mrs. M. E. Watson invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. R. S. Hamilton and Mrs. Earle Stanley Smith assisted. Eight Gamma Phi sisters of the bride served the wedding supper, following which the reception, to which 150 more guests were invited, took place.

The bride and groom left by automobile for Albany and from there they will go to Newport for a few days, after which they will be at home in the Thorne cottage on Fairmount boulevard.

Mrs. Homer was a graduate of the University in 1913 after which she received a library degree at Simmons College. She was a member of Gamma Phi Beta and is well known in Eugene social circles.

Mr. Homer attended the University of Oregon for two years and is a Sigma Chi man. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Potter, parents of the bride, are also graduates of Oregon.

A beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wilkins of Eugene, on Wednesday evening when Miss Juanita Wilkins and John Wolfe Crews, of Columbia, South Carolina, were married. Rev. A. M. Spangler performed the ceremony and before the bridal party entered, Miss Margaret Spangler sang, delightfully accompanied on the piano by Miss Elaine Brown who afterward played the wedding march.

Miss Gladys Wilkins served as bridesmaid and preceded Miss Wilkins who entered the room and proceeded to the altar alone. Warren Wilkins, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Seventy-five people attended the wedding which was especially simple and beautiful.

The bride was daintily and girlishly attired in a gown of white silk net, cut quite short and with a train. Her veil was arranged in cornet style and was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bridal roses.

Miss Gladys Wilkins' dress was of pink satin with an overdress of net and embroidered with baskets in pastel shades and silver. She carried a large bouquet of Ophelia roses.

After the ceremony, a wedding supper was served in the dining room by the girls of the Middy club. The evening was spent in singing college songs and dancing until time for the one o'clock train on which the young couple left. They will go at once to South Carolina by way of California and will stop at San Francisco, Denver and St. Louis.

Mrs. Crews was a junior in the University and a popular member of Delta Delta Delta fraternity. Mr. Crews has been for a number of years, an attorney in Columbia and he has recently been elected to the state legislature of South Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. Crews became acquainted five years ago when Miss Wilkins was visiting in the East.

Delta Gamma entertained at dinner Thursday evening, Mrs. Wm. Boys, of Portland, and Helen DuBuy and Marguerite Gross, of Eugene.

Sunday dinner guests at the Delta Gamma house will be Dr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Schmidt, Professor and Mrs. C. H. Edmondson, and Mrs. Brown.

Alpha Phi entertained on Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Alonzo G.

Barker from three to six. The house was attractively decorated with vines and autumn leaves which offered gay contrast to the gowns of the women present. In the receiving line were Mrs. A. G. Barker, Mrs. John Straub, Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mrs. E. S. Parsons, Mrs. Alton Hampton, and Jeanette Wheatley. Presiding graciously at the table were Mrs. John Bovard, Mrs. Robert McMurphy, Mrs. A. C. Dixon, and Mrs. Eric W. Allen. The freshmen of the fraternity assisted in serving and about three hundred guests were invited.

Elizabeth Bruere, Ailey Church, and Edith Dahlberg are spending the week end in Portland.

The meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday afternoon was turned over to the freshmen, Helen Hall acting as chairman. At four o'clock, tea and wafers were served by a bevy of freshmen girls which followed the business and devotional meeting. Volunteers were called on to tell of the first impressions of college and a free and interesting discussion was entered into by the members present. Miss Fox gave a short informal talk in which she told of the way she first became interested in Y. W. C. A. work when attending Barnard College.

Cord Sengstake left Friday to spend the week-end with his people in Portland.

Miss Fox entertained most cordially on Monday afternoon with her weekly tea at her apartment at Bartle Court. These little informal gatherings have done much to do away with homesickness already and are always eagerly anticipated by freshmen girls. Though a few girls only are invited every time, all who care to come are cordially welcomed and Miss Fox is an exceptionally gracious and charming hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Robinson of Pendleton, spent the early part of the week in Eugene visiting their son, Donald Robinson of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

The Eugene branch of the University of Oregon alumnae met last Saturday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers. Mrs. J. O. Holt was chosen president; Miss Mozelle Hair, vice-president; Miss Hager, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Naomi Williamson, corresponding secretary. Mrs. William Kent, of California, a representative of the woman's party spoke at the meeting.

An acquaintance party given at the men's gymnasium last Saturday evening by the freshmen scored an almost unheard of success. The affair was very informal and not a moment lagged throughout the evening. President Campbell, Dr. Straub, freshman advisor, and several prominent members of the class gave short talks and from nine to ten-thirty o'clock, dancing was in order with Hendershot's orchestra furnishing the music. After the dancing, refreshments were served in cafeteria style. About 300 freshmen were present and the patron and patroness were: President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Professor and Mrs. John Straub, Professor and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Professor and Mrs. D. W. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Bezdek, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayward, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker.

In honor of Mrs. Percival Lowell, Mrs. P. L. Campbell entertained with a delightful luncheon last week Friday. Huge purple pansies in a basket looped with lavender tulle graced the center of the circular table. The guests of Mrs.

Campbell on this occasion were: Mrs. Percival Lowell, Mrs. E. W. Allen, Mrs. John Straub, Mrs. George Rebec, Mrs. E. H. McAlister, Mrs. E. S. Conklin, Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. Warren Dupre Smith and Miss Julia Burgess.

Kappa Alpha Theta is entertaining with an informal country dance this evening. The party rode in a hay rack to Willikenzie Grange. The dance followed the general scheme of an election, suitable colors and election posters being used as decorations. In old fashioned basket supper and dancing made up the program of the evening. Patrons and patronesses for the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Onthank, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bovard, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hayes and Miss Norma Hendricks, Mrs. E. H. Boyer and Mrs. J. O. Potter. The guest list included: Hunt Malarkey, Frank Farrell, Bill Hazeltine, George Gates, John McMurray, Russell Fox, Hugh Thompson, Don Rader, Lyle McCroskey, Walter Ampsoker, Bob Atkinson, Lenny Floan, Jay Gore, Linn McCrady, Morris Morgan, Don Roberts, Harold Treguilgas, Nicholas Jaureguy, Everett Pixley, Kenneth Moores, Joe Hedges, Francis Yoan, Curtis Peterson, Harry Mills, Arnold Mennis, Charles Dundore, Frank Beach, Jack Montague, Bu-le Bramhall, Walter Church, Warren Edwards, Franklin Miller, Frank Sciaefe, Ned Fowler, Don Robinson, Bill Vawter, Jay Fox and Allyn Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson visited their son Harry Jamieson at the Phi Delta Theta house on Friday afternoon.

Beta Theta Pi entertained Dr. John L. Landsbury at dinner on Thursday evening.

Gladys Harbke, Chi Omega, is spending the week end in Portland.

Mrs. Emma Carlisle and Mrs. Mary Logan of The Dalles are week end guests at the Chi Omega house.

(Continued on page four)

E. O. POTTER
Republican Nominee for
Circuit Judge

Born in Lane county, Oregon in 1860; Graduate of the University of Oregon; County Judge of Lane county one term; Practicing lawyer for 26 years.
(Paid advertisement)

Save Money

Make your clothes investments carefully; you'll be glad if you do.

We're ready to help you by showing you the superiority of HART SCHAFFNER & MARX clothes over many others.

You can get a splendid suit at $25.00; one at $18 if you want, and you can satisfy yourself as to fit, materials and workmanship before you buy.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

WADE BROTHERS

The Home of Hart Schaffner and Marx Clothes.

Jim Says:-

Quit Running on Flat Tires.
Wear Neolin Soles and Rubber Heels
JIM, The Shoe Doctor

Opposite Rex

SHORT ORDERS AT ALL HOURS

ALL PREPARED EATS UNDER GLASS

Cleanliness is our Hobby

Pullman Lunch Room

C. M. Shortridge, Prop.

712 Wilamette

STUDENTS LUNCH	DINNER SANDWICH
Choice prepared dinners .....	With Tea, Coffee or Milk .....
25c	15c

Have your PHOTOGRAPH taken at
TUTTLE'S STUDIO
Sweepstakes Winners at Lane County Fair last year
606 13th Ave. E.

A WHOLE BOX OF CANDY FOR

5c

Can You Beat It?

Hoefler's Individual Chocolates

PETER PAN

CAN YOU Find Yourself

IN OUR

1916-1917 STUNT PICTURES KODAK SHOP

Opposite Rex Theatre

MONDAY NIGHT

BIG HIPPODROME VAUDEVILLE

6 Acts—Full Show—Acts 6

The Three Lilliputs

Singing and Dancing Comedians

Four Musical Bonnells

Xylophone, singing, fun makers

Jenne

Laugh Extracting Comedienne

Chas. Hendrix & Co.

Comedy playlet with plenty of singing, dancing and talk

Vardaman

The Gay Deceiver

Adelyne Lowe & Co.

Novelty Surprise Artists

The Queen Of Precious Stones

Diamonds are the Royalty of Jewels—Supreme

Appropriate for all giving and all occasions.

An everlasting delight to the eye and, at the same time, an enduring investment that increases in value all the time.

And, of course, value assured by

Seth Laraway

Diamond Merchant and Jeweler