

FROSH BEAT CHEMAWA

Line Flays Indians While Backs Make Points.

Steers, Strowbridge, Reinhart, Brattan and Leslie, Star; 22 on Trip.

A charging line, an ability to break up plays, and a backfield that make the most of its interference gained a 42 to 0 victory for the Oregon frosh over Chemawa Saturday.

Coached by "Bill" Warner, of Cornell and Oregon reputation, the red men were expected to put up a hard game but inability to hold the ball made them helpless at every stage. Downe, considered a wonder at open field running was able to make only one 25 yard run.

The freshmen played consistent football. Reinhart, Steers and Strowbridge carried the ball for steady gains but could not complete forward passes.

Reinhart kicked off for Oregon and Chemawa returned to the center of the field. Downe fumbled and Leslie fell on the ball. After three minutes of play Steers went over for a touchdown. Reinhart kicked goal. A second touchdown by Steers and a safety ended the scoring for the quarter.

Chemawa braced in the next period and played a better defensive game. Another touchdown by Steers and goal made the score for the half 22 to 0. Steers was the bright star, crossing the line three times.

Brattan, substituting for Mast, who was kept out of the game by an injured knee, bucked three yards for another six points early in the third quarter. Again Reinhart kicked goal and the score was brought to 29. Strowbridge tore off gains of 10, 20 and 15 yards and Steers scored. In the last two minutes of play, Reinhart snorted 20 yards around right end for a touchdown making the score 42.

Twenty two men made the trip and during the last ten minutes all got into the game. Those who went were: Reinhart, acting captain, "Brick" Leslie, Benefield, Berg, "Spike" Leslie, Tracy, Wilson, Anderson, Steers, Strowbridge, Mast, Brattan, Laughlin, Ellis, Stom, Brown, Mulkey, Zumwalt, Simpson, Bradison, Jensen and Nicol.

SORORITY DELEGATE HERE

Margaret Nachtrieb, Gamma Phi Beta, on Western Tour of Inspection.

Miss Margaret Nachtrieb, national delegate for the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, is at present visiting on the campus. She is now on her western tour of inspection, having visited the universities of Idaho and Washington before moving here. She had intended leaving for Berkeley on Friday night, but the demonstration of enthusiasm for the coming football game has persuaded her to remain here until Sunday.

Miss Nachtrieb's home is in Minneapolis. She is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. She is also a counsellor for the Minnesota branch of collegiate alumnae. Her father, Prof. H. F. Nachtrieb, has held the chair of animal biology in that university for 30 years.

She will complete her western tour before the holidays, spending about four or five days at each college.

TWO DOBIEITES OUT

Gardner, Halfback, and Anderson, Substitute, Injured.

Low Grades May Eliminate Star Punter From Saturday's Contest.

Washington suffered her first loss of men through injuries in her victory over Whitman. Gardner, Dobie's regular right halfback, was laid on the shelf, for the game here at least, by breaking his collarbone and Anderson, his successor, went out a few minutes later with a broken leg.

If such calamity happened to Oregon, Bezdek would be strictly up against it but Dobie with his long line of substitutes can fill the position easily. Logg, a second string man last year, may get the place.

Vic Morrison, a tackle, and the player who has been doing the punting, is low in his studies and may not be allowed to play. He is by all odds the best punter on the Seattle team.

But two of the men who faced Oregon in the memorable 10-0 game of 1914 are still on the northerner's team. Louis Seagraves, captain and right guard, and Cyrus Noble, right halfback, are the two players who participated in that contest.

The remainder of the team are new to varsity fans but they are evidently of the same caliber as the champions of the past, judging by their pre-season work.

MORE COURSES BEGIN

Five Extension Classes Organized Last Week in Portland.

Department Unable to Supply Demand for Instructors;

Five more courses in the University Extension Service began last week. These include architecture, education, English, music and philosophy. The courses in architecture and art subjects and in music have not before been given in Portland. Mr. Roswell Dasch reports that his class in freehand drawing, which meets on Friday evenings has an attendance of 23. His class in modeling which meets on Saturday afternoon, has an attendance of 15. Professor E. F. Lawrence has a class in architectural designs which has an attendance of 22. The attendance of Mr. L. C. Rosenberk's class in pen and pencil is 23. Courses in the department of architecture are given in the north gallery of the central library.

Mrs. Parsons has charge of three classes: one in teaching of English which has an attendance of 140, one in modern drama with an attendance of 225, and one in short story with an attendance of 225. Mrs. Parsons also delivers a series of lectures to the women's club and to Laurelhurst club.

Dr. J. J. Landsbury is teaching musical understanding and the science of music. The attendance at both classes is 105.

Dr. Geo. Rebec's class in present day philosophical thought is attended by 60 people.

In the commercial department, Professor D. W. Morton meets the American Institute of Bankers and also the Credit Men's Association. At the first lecture there were 62 present at the former and 60 at the latter.

Professor Percy P. Adam's classes in graphic statics and in descriptive geometry are well attended.

Dr. DeBusk is giving a clinical course in child psychology every Friday evening in the Portland library. There were but 100 present at the first lecture.

There is a large demand for more classes in psychology and also in science. There is a particular demand for the lecture, "Present Day Educational Problems of Special Interest to Parents," also for lectures "Science for teachers." A science course for members of the Mazama club is also desired. The extension department feels that it may be able to fulfill some of the demands but owing to the lack of funds and the lack of instructors who can give enough time from regular campus work, they will be unable to offer classes in all the desired work.

O. A. C. WINS MATCH

Fifth Girls' Hockey Game Goes to Huskier Team.

U. Women Weak on Defense; Several Players Visit in Corvallis Over Week-End.

With a score of five goals piled up, the old Oregon fight and spirit was there in the Oregon-O. A. C. hockey game in Corvallis Saturday. The game was hard fought till the final whistle and the spirit of the Oregon girls was the feature of the game.

They showed good coaching and hard work but met a more athletic team. The Oregon defense was inferior, and if the defeat can be traced to any one point, it lies there. The forwards were nearly equal to those of the O. A. C. team and put up a good fight.

Considerable hockey enthusiasm was displayed at the game, watched by nearly 200 people.

The Oregon girls were treated royally, and were entertained at dinner after the game at Cauthorn hall, where decorations of green and lemon-yellow, with yellow chrysanthemums were arranged. "As I sit and dream at evening," was sung in honor of the guests. Several of the girls spent the rest of the week-end in Corvallis.

This is the fifth hockey game played with O. A. C. since the team was organized two years ago, three having been played on the Aggie field, and two here. Of the five, the University team has won the two games played in Eugene.

VESPER SERVICES SUNDAY

Major W. S. Gilbert Will Speak at Villard on Universal Service.

Major W. S. Gilbert, former pastor of the Eugene Presbyterian church, will speak on the subject "Universal Service" Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. vesper services in Villard hall. Major Gilbert occupies the Presbyterian pastorage at Astoria where he is also chaplain of the Oregon National Guard. He was on the Mexican border with the troops last summer and is prepared to tell of the conditions there from interesting personal experiences.

Mr. Gilbert will arrive tomorrow and be present for the student-body rally and exercises following tomorrow evening.

The vesper services Sunday are planned especially for Homecoming visitors and alumni from all over the state. The meeting is open, however, to anyone who wishes to attend, whether alumni or student. Appropriate music will be furnished by the music department, according to Professor Lyman. The glee clubs will sing.

Miss Mae Herbert, chairman of the Y. W. C. A. committee on publicity and decorations, will have charge of decorating and providing ushers for the vesper services. Decorations will be in keeping with the Homecoming celebration and the services throughout will be appropriate for the occasion. The girls of the Y. W. C. A. will co-operate with the Y. M. C. A. of the University in making the meeting a real treat to Homecoming visitors and students.

A special invitation has also been extended to the local organization of Oregon National Guard.

Marion Veatch

Candidate for County Coroner

I want to thank the voters of all political affiliations who aided in my election to the office of County Coroner two years ago and will appreciate your support on Nov. 7th.

I believe in caring for all cases without calling a physician or putting the County to the expense of holding an inquest unless absolutely necessary.

I have good and convenient equipment for handling the work and if elected will render the same fair and economical service to the County and every one concerned.
