SELLING OF PROGRAMS COUNCIL'S PROBLEM

Considers Question Raised by Soliciting of Advertising for Washington Game

BRAMHALL ELECTED MANAGER OF EMERALD

Frank Scaiefe Made Yell Leader to Fill Place Left by John Dolph.

WHAT THE STUDENT COUNCIL DID LAST NIGHT.

Investigated the issuing of programs for the Oregon-Washington football game, which issuance, it is alleged, was in violation of the student body resolution: Appointed a committee to prepare an amendment to the constitution which, if adopted, will make the University orchestra a student activity. Elected Burle Bramhall business manager of the Emerald. Elected Frank Scaiefe yell leader for the remainder of this school year.

JENNIE HUGGINS, Secretary.

The election of Burle Bramhall as manager of the Emerald to succeed George Colton, resigned; the election of Frank Scaiefe yell leader to succeed Jack Dolph who has left school; the consideration of an amendment making the orchestra a student activity, and the investigation of the issuing of programs for the Oregon-Washington game were some of the features that filled the program of the student council's meeting last night.

"Upon two issues," Nicholas Jaureguy, president of the student council, explained to that body at its meeting last night, "depend the final settlement of the problem raised by the soliciting of advertising from the Eugene merchants for the programs for the Oregon-Washington game last Saturday. The first of these is the promise given to the merchants in 1914, that from that date only the Oregon and the Oregon Emerald would be entitled to their support as student body publications, and advertising space in these two mediums would be the only space sold with the endorsement of the student council.

"The second issue arises from the fact that at the last meeting of the council, October 25, a resolution was passed stating that this case was not to be an exception and that the consent of the council could not be given to the publishers. This was passed after the council had discussed what they considered the facts of the case."

The consideration of the question last night began with a brief review of these facts; the concession, according to Russell Ralston, one of the publishers of the program who was present at the meeting, was originally given to William Snyder by A. R. Tiffany. Snyder in turn gave the rights to Ralston, James Vance and Robert Atkinson and Ralston and Vance were most active in the issuing of the program. Before proceeding with the issuing of the programs, Ralston asked Karl Becke, a member of the council, if he thought the consent of the council could be gained. Becke told Ralston that he thought the council could not object, provided the merchants were warned that this was not a student body enterprise and the plan of the publishers to print on each page a statement to this effect was carried out. The merchants were each advised according to Ralston but the printing of the statement on each page of the program was neglected.

The objection to the soliciting of advertising space from the merchants lies in the fact that only a certain amount of money is set aside for advertising each year by the business men and according to an estimate submitted to the council the loss to the Emerald through advertising which will now be denied the student paper on account of having been given to the program, will amount to about $140.

GERMAN CLUB FROLICS

JOKES OR FORFEITS, WHICH? PLANS ENTERTAINMENT

The telling of German jokes and the redeeming of the forfeits which were paid as a penalty for not coming forth with a joke, caused a great deal of merriment at the meeting of the German Club at the Y. W. C. A. Bungalow last night. The means of regaining the forfeits differed all the way from a German political speech for Hughes to a declaration of love in German.

The latest thing the club is planning to stage is a student body dance to be given by the club at the men's gymnasium November 25, the evening of the O. A. C. game. The plans cannot be made definitely till arrangements are made concerning the date, but if it cannot be arranged for that time the dance will be given later on.

Plans are also being made for a Christmas entertainment to be given the Thursday before vacation begins. A Christmas tree and program will be features of the evening and refreshments will be served.

Now is the time to be looking up good German poems as there will be first, second and third prizes for the best German recitations in the near future. These are to be spoken before the members of the club who will decide on the merits.

The date of the presentation of the German play, "Der Meisterschaff" has been announced as the first Friday in January.

Games and a German reading by Professor Herman Schwarz are planned for the next meeting, which will be Wednesday night.

MANY BETS WILL BE PAID

Wagers Take Form of Mill Race Parties, Banquets and Candy.

Bets varying from a banquet to a millrace party featured the election on the campus. Several of the fraternity houses staged bets between their Hughes men and their Wilson supporters.

The Delta Tau Deltas have agreed that the losing side will submit to being thrown into the millrace by the winners. In that house the Hughes supporters are in the minority, so the prospects for them are not very bright.

In the Kappa Sigma house the sides are exactly even, 18 to 18. There the losing men will have to stage some sort of an entertainment and provide a dinner for their victors.

The Phi Deltas have arranged for a banquet at the Osburn a week from Sunday. The two sides are evenly matched in numbers and the losers will have to finance the dinner.

Some of the individual wagers were in the form of dinners for two or four at the Osburne. Many bets of candy were made by the co-eds. A freshman and a senior made an unusual bet, almost. The senior, if he lost, agreed to wear a green cap one whole day, while the freshman, if he were the loser, promised to sit all day, or at least at every possible opportunity, on the senior bench. The freshman, however decided that he was taking great chances and "resigned" on the bet.

PRESIDENT ON TRIP EAST

Expects to Be Back From Convention in Two Weeks.

President P. L. Campbell left Tuesday evening for Washington, D. C., where he will attend a meeting of the National Association of State Universities on the thirteenth and fourteenth of this month. President Campbell has been asked to address the association on the question: "Can we formulate ideals for which state universities are sponsors?" About forty universities are to be represented in this congress, and since the time given to the congress is so short, it is a noteworthy honor which has been conferred upon the Oregon president.

Besides attending this meeting President Campbell plans to attend The National Commonwealth Congress in Philadelphia on the fifteenth and sixteenth and look after other University matters en route. He is expected back on the campus in two weeks.

VARSITY BASKETBALL WILL BE REINSTATED

Faculty at Special Meeting Decides to Allow Resumption of Sport.

Prospects for Team This Year Doubtful; Few Old Men Back.

Varsity basketball will be reinstated this year. This was definitely decided Tuesday evening at a special meeting of the faculty. Action on the matter resulted from a petition presented by the student-council asking for resumption of the varsity game. Last year Oregon was not a member of any conference in basketball.

The student-council argued for reinstatement of intercollegiate basketball on the grounds that it furnishes physical benefit to as many students as does inter-class games; that it does not interfere with coaching a large number of students by the physical trainers;

Rooters, Send 'Em Off

The team leaves Friday morning at 7:35 to beat the Dietz machine.

Be there to give the gang a push. They are up against the hardest thing in the West. Let Oregon give her team all she has. Have breakfast early and GET TO THE RALLY.

ROOTERS, BACK 'EM UP!

The railroads are running special trains with reduced rates to Portland for Saturday's fracas. Scrape those nickles together and go along. Back the team there on Multnomah field. W. S. C. will have a gang of rooters.

Who is going to promulgate the racket and the oskies if you don't go?

Back 'em up boys, back 'em up.

FRANK SCAIEFE, Yell Leader.

that the benefit to the student-body as a whole from varsity basketball far outweighs any possible advantage of intramural sports.

Student sentiment has been in favor of the varsity game since its suspension by the faculty last fall. It was claimed that more time should be allowed coaches during the winter for attention to a large number of students who would not play varsity ball. The argument that intercollegiate basketball was expensive and yielded little returns was also advanced by several members of the faculty. The faculty decision comes as a surprise to the student-body generally. Although the petition was favored by a large majority of the students it was feared that it would be voted down by the same sentiment that originally figured in the discontinuation of the varsity sport.

Interclass games proved a decided success last winter. A large number of games were played and a great many students benefited by the contests, but attendance was small and the spirit which characterize intercollegiate contests was almost absent.

The petition by the student council advanced the contention that the same widespread benefit is possible along with varsity basketball. And that the spirit of rivalry is healthy to the students and school in general in developing individuality and confidence.

Several old varsity stars have not returned to the University. Just what the prospects are for a team this season are doubtful. A few good men remain as a nucleus around which to build a strong quintet.

ASSOCIATION TO MEET.

The Woman's Athletic association will meet in Guild hall Tuesday, November 14. This is the last meeting at which old members can pay their dues. New members will be taken in at this time. Chairman of the different sports will speak and the Oregon Trail movement will be discussed.

SPECIALS TO CARRY STUDENTS TO GAME

"Pep" Fest in Villard Hall Tonight to Raise Enthusiasm.

Frank Scaiefe, New Yell Leader, Urges All to Be at Train and Rally.

Plans are well under way for a royal send-off for the Oregon football team on their departure for Portland where they will battle with the huskies from Washington State College Saturday.

Frank Scaiefe, who has been elected yell leader in the place of John Dolph, is in charge and urges everyone to be present at the train Friday morning at 7:30, when the team will leave accompanied by the band.

"This will give everyone time to make their eight o'clocks and there is no excuse for anyone not being there," says Scaiefe.

BACHELORS, ATTENTION!

Y. W. C. A. TO SELL EATS WOMEN WILL BRING FOOD

Take heed all you bachelor lads and lassies and other people who eat! A cooked food sale will be given one week from Saturday, November 18, by the advisory board of the Y. W. C. A. Cakes, pumpkin pies, baked beans, preserved meats, and all other good things that people like to eat will be there in abundance for sale. The entire proceeds will be given to the Y. W. C. A. The advisory board is trying to get the financial condition of the association in good order before January when the new secretary will be here.

There are twelve women on the board and each one is asked to bring food which will sell for at least $2.50. From former sales about $25 have been made. Two sales are usually given each year.

LIBRARY BOOKS MUTILATED

Clipping Cut From Bound Magazines and Books; State Law Violated.

The library is being troubled by students mutilating books, magazines and they were last spring," says Mr. Douglass. These depredations are not confined to unbound copies; many bound magazines have clippings cut from them.

"Mutilations happen every year and fortunately are not as bad this fall as they were last spring," says Mr. Douglass. Mr. Douglass, asks that anyone finding mutilations report them at once as it is sometimes hard to duplicate a magazine if it is very old.

Recent mutilations are: The bound volumes of Architectural Record No. 23, page 283, illustration of the entrance to the Hearst memorial building of the University of California. Survey for September, 1916, the article on the students of the University of Minnesota organizing to exterminate mosquitoes torn out. Bound volume 75 of The American magazine has the picture of Maude Adams as Peter Pan cut from it.

The state law in cases of this kind is as follows: Section 4355. Whoever willfully or maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears, or destroys a book, plate, picture, engraving, map, newspaper, magazine, pamphlet, manuscript, or stationery belonging to a law, city, or other public or incorporated library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $50.00, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months.

A. T. O. HAS ORCHESTRA

Croner, Folts, Burns, Morgan, White, Simpson, Potter, Gould, the Musicians.

The musical members of the A. T. O. house have organized an orchestra. Charles Croner is the leader. The orchestra consists of the following members:

Croner, first violin; Folts, second violin; Burns, piano; Morgan, cornet; White, cornet; Simpson, cornet; Potter, clarinet; Gould, snare drum; Barnett, snare drums.

Charles Croner the leader of the orchestra says, "We have been practicing since the beginning of the year and hope later to be able to play special numbers for our dances."

There are not enough pieces in the orchestra to enable it to give concerts.

Y. W. BOOSTERS IN CHARGE

Freshman Organization Conducted Meeting in Bungalow Last Wednesday.

The Booster's club, a freshman society of the Y. W. C. A. with Jessie Garner as leader took charge of the Y. W. C. A. meeting held Wednesday afternoon in the Bungalow. Y. W. C. A. organization and work were discussed by the girls Dorothy Hinziker explained the local organization of the association, Jeannette Moss, secretarial work, Anna Lee Miller, field organization, and Alice Vander Sluis, world organization.

Musical selections were given by Carol Montague and Alice Baker.

Types of association work were covered by Helen Hall, speaking upon city work, Dora Birchard, work among the Indians, Mary Irving, traveller's aid, Miss Fox, work with the immigrants and the negroes, and Grace Hammarstrom about the conference held at Seaback.

TEAMS PRIMED FOR FIGHT TO FINISH

Dope Gives U. of O. 50-50 Chance Against W. S. C. Saturday.

DIETZ HAS NINE VETERANS IN LINEUP

Victory Will Place Oregon in Running for the Championship.

William Haseltine

With both teams having a 50-50 chance on the dope sheet, Oregon and Washington State are primed for a fight to the finish next Saturday on Multnomah field. The Varsity will leave Friday morning on the 7:35 Oregon Electric so that they can have a workout in Portland before the game.

The lemon-yellow has put in a strenuous week of practice as the strength of the Pullman contingent is known to be equal if not superior to the championship team of last year. All of our men are in fine condition with the exception of Monteth who has a weak knee, but he will undoubtedly be ready when the whistle blows.

To beat W. S. C. is going to be a Herculean task, for Indian Dietz has nine of his old men back. Zimmerman and Loomis, ends; Brooks and Herried, tackles; Fishback, guard and Langdon, center, are all letter men in the line. In the backfield Bangs at half, Doane at fullback and Durham at quarter were also regulars last year. Hamilton, guard, and Boone, right halfback are the newcomers.

Loomis may be out of the lineup as he was injured in the Idaho game. If the bear stories from Pullman are to be believed four or five more of the squad are under the weather.

Oregon is going up against a team that started slow but kept getting better and better until now it has reached the maximum of its power. O. A. C., aided by the breaks in the luck and by the Staters fumbling, beat them 13-10 although Dietz's men outrushed the Aggies two to one. This took the overconfidence out of them and they overwhelmed the heavy Montana eleven 27-0 and trampled on Idaho 31-0.

In the Idaho game Durham kicked three field goals out of four attempts. Anywhere within the 40 yard zone Durham appears to be well-nigh infallible.

Both Oregon and Washington State use the direct pass and practically the same formation. They are about evenly matched in weight and experience as well. W. S. C.'s defense has held all of the opposing backs it has met so far to small gains. Montana made three first downs and Idaho but two.

Multnomah field is easily drained and almost sure to be dry so that a better game than last week's is certain. The team that gets the breaks will win.

The same lineup that started the Washington game will start Saturday. If Loomis and Zimmerman are unable to play, Hanley and Boone will probably get their positions. Otherwise Dietz will depend on the men that beat Idaho.

Pullman is planning on sending their band and about a hundred rooters with the team and from present indications will have as many if not more. Sections will be reserved for the students in the bleachers. The newspapers are advertising the game extensively and provisions are being made for a record-breaking crowd.

If Oregon wins she will still be in running for the championship.

DOLPH LEAVES UNIVERSITY

Accepts Position in Akron, Ohio; Will Lead Rooters in Portland.

John M. Dolph, yell leader, withdrew from the University yesterday and left last night for Portland. Dolph will appear before the rooters once more in the game Saturday with W. S. C. in Portland. He intends to leave Portland for Akron, Ohio, where he has a good opening in a company there.

Dolph, who is a junior in the university, was a member of the men's glee club, a member of the Oregon staff, and a member of the campus players. He was a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity and was majoring in Greek.
