

VOICE OBJECTIONS TO FRESHMAN BONFIRE

Parents and Faculty Members Believe Much Time and Money Wasted.

WILL BUILD NO BLAZE BEFORE O. A. C. GAME

Conflagration for Washington Game Taxed Frosh Too Greatly, Is Declared.

One of the ancient traditions of the University, the freshmen bonfire, is threatened with annihilation. Parents of the freshmen and members of the faculty have objected to the excessive amount of time and expense necessary to the building of such a conflagration as was set off last Friday night. According to Karl Onthank, secretary to President Campbell, no official action has been taken.

Dean Elizabeth Fox hopes the student council will take steps to regulate the subsequent freshmen bonfires. "Bonfires ought to be discontinued," she declared. "They require too much effort on the part of the men and women of the University." She considers the serious purpose of the students interfered with and their lessons made to suffer. The students are just now beginning to recuperate from the physical effects, believes Miss Fox.

"It is perfectly absurd for the girls to get up in the small hours of the morning to feed the men. The girls lose sleep which can not be made up; their schedule is too strenuous," Miss Fox said. "I heartily disapprove of the part which the women assumed in connection with the bonfire, although I admire their spirit." Miss Fox gave this quotation as descriptive of the situation. "Oh sense thou art both good and right, but nonsense thou art exquisite."

The student council has passed a ruling that the freshmen build two bonfires; one before the Washington game and one before the game with O. A. C. President Pixley of the freshmen class says, "The class will not be able to build the fire for the O. A. C. game owing to the time and expense which went into the bonfire before the Washington game."

Mr. Onthank says such a bonfire as the one Friday night is dangerous to the buildings near the fire. He says, also, that bonfires, if allowed in the future, will probably not be over 15 by 15 feet square.

DANCE FINANCIAL SUCCESS

$500 Taken at Doors Saturday Night; $130 Clear for Juniors.

The Homecoming dance given by the junior class last Saturday was a financial success, according to Joe Hedges, chairman of the dance committee.

There were 500 paid admissions and it is estimated that there were 150 alumni present. The expenses amounted to approximately $120, leaving about $130 clear for the exchequer of the junior class.

Refined Bull-pup Is Sought; Must Have Melodious Howl

"What is home without a war-dance?" facetiously remarks Billy, the love-smitten senior in "Strongheart," to be produced in Guild hall by the Guild Players on next Friday and Saturday evenings.

Yes, and what is a college play without a real, live bull-pup for a mascot. That is just what is bothering the members of the cast of this play. All the parts have been assigned, and rehearsals are progressing without a hitch, until the action reaches a certain point. This is where "Siegfried," the talented dog of Billy's is supposed to make his entrance.

But where can such a dog be found, that is the question? It can not be an ordinary canine, but a refined, intelligent creature, absolutely accustomed to feminine society. And above all, he must be musical, possessing a voice that will harmonize readily with the atmosphere of the play.

Needless to say, such a dog is hard to

75 STUDENTS WERE THERE

THE MORNING WAS COLD

BUT TEAM GOT BIG SEND-OFF

Crisp, snappy yells. "Mighty Oregon."

The shouts of 75 students. Such was the send-off which the Oregon team received Friday morning when it left for Portland to meet the W. S. C. aggregation. The cold morning air livened the students who saw the train leave, and yell-leader Frank Sealefe had little trouble in directing the overflow of "pep."

Each man on the team was given a yell. Then followed "Oskies" and the spelling of Oregon. The band turned out and played several marches. The train finally left at 7:35.

At a meeting of the University Players at the Gamma Phi Beta house on Thursday evening Ruth Montgomery was elected to membership in the organization.

Arrangements were made for the initiation of new members which is to take place next Wednesday. Other new members who are to be initiated next week are Muriel Perring, Russel Fox, Lyle Bartholomew, Curtis Peterson, Keith Kiggins, and Lyle McCrosky.

Cross Country Team Will Be Picked November 18.

The tryouts for the Oregon-O. A. C. cross country run which will be preliminary to the Oregon-O. A. C. football game at Corvallis, November 25, have been set for November 18. Oregon will be represented by four men chosen at this time.

Wednesday night was the end of the three-a-week practice and the beginning of the every night turnouts for the twenty men competing for the team. On account of his heavy duties in connection with the football team, Coach Hayward has been unable to give much attention to the development of the men but will devote more time from now on. Up to this time the training of the men has been in charge of Captain Nelson of the track team and one of the contestants for a place on the cross country team.

Freshmen are not allowed to compete in cross country runs.

"Strongheart," the play which will be produced by the Guild Players, will be staged Friday and Saturday nights, November 17 and 18, instead of on November 10 and 11, as previously announced.

WILL ASK FOR 50C LEVY FOR BUDGET

Womn's League Wants Amendment to Constitution of Student Body.

"Such a Budget Would Not Be Elastic and Opposition Arises" Says Jaureguy.

The Women's League of the University will be placed on a new financial basis if a proposed amendment to the constitution of the student body is passed. Although no definite steps have been taken to have the amendment formulated or presented to the student body, the student council will discuss the proposition at its next meeting November 22, and will vote upon the measure at that time. If the student council does not endorse the amendment it is understood that a representative of the Women's League will present it to the associated student body at its meeting in December.

The amendment as outlined by Mrs. George Gerlinger, originator of the plan and a member of the board of regents, would give 50 cents out of each student tax paid by the women of the university, to a special fund to be administered by the Women's League. This, it is argued by the supporters of the movement, would provide a tangible budget for the enterprises carried on under the auspices of the Women's League. At the present time there are in the neighborhood of 400 women in the university and had the amendment been in force this year, $200 or over would have been at the disposal of the league.

Jeanette Wheatley, president of the Women's League, is strongly in favor of the amendment and feels that it is necessary to free the women of the school from having to pay special taxes at irregular and frequent intervals throughout the year.

Dean Elizabeth Fox says that because of her own experience in Barnard it seems rather irregular to have the finances for women's activities handled through the same channels as the regular student body affairs. She also believes that new interest would be taken by the women in the affairs now given under the auspices of the league and that interest in events not yet attempted by the women here will be aroused.

The movement is not sufficiently well understood as yet to have aroused much discussion, according to Nicholas Jaureguy, president of the student body. However, he says that several members of the student council are opposed to its passage.

"The opposition arises from the fact that such a budget would not be elastic," said Jaureguy. "Either too much or not enough money would be on hand each year. Another problem would be faced in determining just what affairs would actually come under the direction of the Women's League. For instance, the recent luncheon on the campus in connection with the Homecoming day program was actually handled by the student body although the general impression was that it was given by the Women's League."

"X" CLUB PHILOSOPHIZES

Discusses William James' "Pragmatism." Regular Sessions Held.

A club has existed on the campus for nearly two years which is a near approach to the Free Intellectual Activities Society. This club, originally called "X," was started by Lois Gray, Nelly Cox, Kate Stanfield, Grace MacKenzie, Kate Shafer and Caralie Snell, with the guidance and suggestions of Miss Mary Watson and Mrs. Mabel Holmes Parsons.

The purpose of the club was to facilitate free and unembarrassed discussion of ideas to a greater extent than is possible in a class room. The club has been known as the Ethics club, because formerly the discussions were from that point of view. This year the club is discussing philosophy, and the name Quadrangle has been used, though not adopted as yet, according to the president Nellie Cox. The club meets every Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Parsons for their philosophical discussions. The club is now discussing William James philosophy of pragmatism.

SELL SORORITIES SWEETS

Y. W. Vends Candy in Houses Friday Noons to Raise Money.

The Y. W. C. A. has introduced the sale of "Hersheys" and other refreshments in sorority houses. The proceeds from the sale of this candy will be used for running expenses of the Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. makes about one third profit on the money taken in, which amounts to about one dollar a week from every house. The girls find that candy in the house is very handy.

Last year an attempt was made to introduce candy in fraternity houses but it was prevented by the inter-fraternity council.
