Association Now Has 158 Signed Applications for Membership.

A summary report of the work of the campus Y. M. C. A. covering the period from September 1 to December 6, was issued this morning by Secretary J. D. Foster. This report will be read at a meeting of the advisory board Monday night in the campus office. The report in detail follows:

Employment Bureau—Nick Jaureguy, chairman—308 jobs, odd and permanent, have been secured, which net the holders $2,620.00.

Cards advertising the bureau were distributed to almost a thousand houses in town personally by the working boys.

Book Exchange—Over 200 books have been sold through the exchange. The Co-operative store is now ready to take over the books.

Publicity—1300 copies of the booklet "An Asset to Oregon" have been sent to the parents, students, alumni and friends. The Emerald has averaged one Y. M. story an issue.

A set of stereopticon slides is about half made. They illustrate the Seabeck conference, college and campus life. Office—Nick Jaureguy, chairman—Beaver board has replaced the black board, and posters and pictures give a much cheerier appearance. Both city papers are donated for the reading tables and six popular magazines are coming regularly.

Twenty boys put in an hour a week each assisting the secretary in the office.

Candy—This is run entirely separate from the main account. Profits amounting to $33.10 have accumulated since it was reinstated on October 25.

Finances—Floyd Westerfield, chairman—The faculty canvass is not complete but has been very encouraging.

The secretary has canvassed in The Dalles and in Medford, securing $71.00, of which $52.00 is annual.

No Eugene canvass has been made yet. Letters were sent to 900 parents and alumni, following four days after the booklets, asking for subscriptions. These have been answered by checks or pledges totaling $41.00. More is expected.

The secretary is in Portland and vicinity canvassing and advertising, to make the finance problem easier in the future.

The lot was sold for $750.00, of which $650.00 was used to pay off the old debt. The financial situation is now as follows:

Funds available since September 1, 1916—$1201.97.

Expenditures since Sept. 1, 1916—$1161.44.

Assets convertible into cash before Sept. 1, 1917—$919.96.

ANNUAL MUSTACHE RACE ON NO SENIOR GETS HANDICAP EVEN START MADE CERTAIN

No senior man may enjoy a handicap in the annual mustache race. The success of this ruling was insured at a meeting of the class of '17 Wednesday morning, when, on a motion by Frank Scaife, three barber chairs were set in motion, and all present or coming mustaches forcibly removed.

The implements of warfare were collected by Nicholas Jaureguy, who raided Friendly hall and produced three razors (two safeties and a straight-edge), two razor strops, one shaving-mug, a large bathowel, and a bottle of muckilage, which was applied in the place of bay-rum.

Full-fledged ornaments were taken from "Jimmy" Stoddard, Frank Beach, and Fred Kiddle, while "Scoop" Rathbun, Frank Scaife, and Earl Fleischmann were shaved on suspicion. There was great competition for the position of barber, which almost amounted to a riot, but none of the victims received any permanent injury.

Loren Roberts has been appointed manager of the senior basketball team.

DANCE NETS JUNIORS $250

Homecoming Dance Financial Success; Grebe Selected Basketball Manager.

The junior class met yesterday at assembly hour in the Education building. Walter Grebe was elected basketball manager for the class, and Orville Montith won out over Brick Mitchell in a race for debate manager.

Emma Wootton spoke about plans for the Oregon and solicited the class interest in the year-book.

Nicholas Jaureguy spoke on the proposed student vaudeville, the purpose of which is to raise money to buy small gold foot balls for the team. The junior class favored the idea. The suggestion is to be taken to the student council for a decision.

President Kenneth Moores appointed a committee to act upon the class hour in case the faculty grants permission to resume this form of entertainment. Martha Tinker, treasurer, reported that $250 were taken in at the Homecoming dance.

Entire Senior Class Indicted on Charge of Gambling With Their Own Names

A gambling game in which the entire senior class of 116 students is implicated, was fereted out by the Emerald yesterday, when a reporter forced admission into the senior lottery dance drawing in McClure hall.

The intrepid reporter, at risk of life, secured conclusive evidence against each of the 116. Prof. C. V. Dymont, Eulalie Crosby, Helen Curry and Jack Elliott, properly authorized representatives of the entire senior class, were discovered in a wild state of excitement, with the glazed eyes of the gambler, drawing lots to decide their principal's partners at the dance Friday night.

The verdict rendered by the Supreme Court of College Tradition was that as a penalty for getting caught, each senior must attend the public execution at the Sigma Nu house Friday night and there receive his just deserts. The funeral ceremonies will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

FISTIC AND MAT BOUTS MANY MYSTERIOUS STUNTS FRESHMEN WILL REVEL

An unequalled round of mirth provoking stunts! A period of unrivaled joy! A marvelous unending session of "talk!"

The first year men promise the realization of all these things at the freshmen smoker at the Kappa Sigma house next Friday night.

The evening's entertainment will be crammed full of wild and various things. A sensational criminal trial will be staged for the special benefit of the freshmen smoker. A genuine wild west bar will be wide open. One of the many Mexican republics has authorized a special issue of money for the occasion. A vaudeville skit is on tap. A correct imitation of an old fashioned Irish hoe-down is scheduled for the evening. Fistic and mat bouts are to be staged together with several stunts now shrouded in dark mystery.

"This a'int all either," said one of the Kappa Sig neophytes, "but they gotta come to find out the rest. We got enough to eat and drink to make 'em all go away with a stomach ache."

INTEREST IN DRAMA KEEN

Rivalry of Campus Organizations Increases Activity in Dramatic Circles.

With two rival dramatic organizations on the campus, the University will be offered more than the usual number of plays this year. Formerly there was only one players' club—the University Players—which has been established for a number of years, and, until now, has produced all the college theatricals. But during the last session of the summer school, a second organization, the Campus Players, was formed by the department of dramatic interpretation.

The first play to be given by the newly-organized players' club will be an adaptation of the three-act French farce, the "Live Corpse."

It will be produced at the Eugene theatre on January 13. The leading roles will be in the hands of Mrs. Bates and Ernest Watkins, both of whom have been seen in many of the Guild hall productions. Walter Gilbert, of the Baker Stock of Portland, who has been engaged to coach the comedy, will take charge of rehearsals shortly after the holidays.

MEDICAL CENTER GROWING

Multnomah County Hospital May Adjoin University Medical School in Portland.

The O. W. R. & N. Co., has granted a tract of land above Terwilliger park on Marquam hill to the University of Oregon medical school to be the Portland hospital center. In keeping with this policy, Dr. Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie, dean of the University medical department, has offered as a gift to the county a site for a county hospital on the tract reserved for the center.

It is probable that the offer will be accepted if the county gets all the funds available for the construction of the first unit of the hospital this year. There will be an attempt made to obtain $150,000 out of the combined county and road levies. The need for this hospital is very great, the present county hospital being sadly in need of repair and lacking facilities. In making this gift Dr. Mackenzie stated that the proffered land was in no way dependent on the fortunes of the medical college.

GOLD FOOTBALL FOR EACH VARSITY MAN

Student Council Votes Reward for Pacific Coast Grid-iron Champions.

"VAUDEVILLE NIGHT" WILL PROVIDE FUNDS

Dance Set for Dec. 15; Penalties for Broken Canoeing Rules to Be Fixed.

The Student Council last night decided:

1.—To give a vaudeville performance at a local theatre the evening of December 16, the proceeds to be devoted to the purchase of gold footballs for the letter men of the football squad.

2.—To hold a student body dance in the men's gymnasium Friday evening, December 15.

3.—To provide penalties for violations of the canoeing regulations passed last year, to consider which a committee was appointed.

(Signed) JENNIE HUGGINS, Secretary.

Because the Oregon football team is entitled to the Pacific Coast championship for the season just closed, according to comparative scores, sporting writers and public opinion in general, the student council is anxious to see the members of the team rewarded with a special token in addition to the regular sweater and "O." With this in mind, a movement was begun recently to provide gold football watch fobs for the men who made their letters in the past season.

Last night the council authorized a vaudeville performance under the management of the four classes to provide the funds necessary for the footballs. It is understood that a local theatre can be secured for a small amount and the acts will be provided by the classes.

This practice of awarding gold fobs to the winners of conference championships is almost universally followed throughout the United States.

The old problem of canoe regulations again presented itself and a committee of Karl Becke, Martha Beer and Ray Couch was appointed to consider the question and decide upon suitable penalties for violations of the rules.

The council discussed the advisability of awarding some form of official recognition to members of the freshmen team for participation in scheduled games.

No action was taken on the modification of underclass activities as the freshmen bonfire, class mix and so forth, which was to have been presented by a member of the faculty. The council expressed its opinion that the action should originate with the faculty rather than with the council.

In response to what Harold Tregilgas, chairman of the student dance committee, says has been an insistent demand on the part of the student body for more dances, a student body dance was set for December 15, the evening preceding the College Vaudeville night.

Admission to the student dance, which will be held in Hayward hall, will be 15 cents per couple. Music will be furnished by the band and, said Tregilgas, "It will be a regular dance, programs and

Tryout Adds 4 Debaters to Team

In the final debate try-out, which took place last night in Guild hall, four new members were added to the Varsity debating team. The successful contestants were Lewis Beebe, Vivian Kellems, Don D. Davis, and Walter Bailey. The two substitutes are C. N. Patterson and Carlton Savage.

Because of the large number entering, the last year's debaters were excused from the final try-out. Those passing on their previous work in debate are: Walter Myers, Rosalind Bates, Nicholas Jaureguy and Earl Fleischmann. These four represented the University in various debates last year.

The eight debaters entering the try-out last night had previously passed an elimination try-out where they were chosen from eighteen contestants. The same question was used in both elimination and final try-outs. The question is: Resolved, That the United States should adopt the essential features of the Canadian system for the settlement of industrial disputes. None of the men entering knew on which side they would speak until three hours before the debate, when they met in Prof. Prescott's room and drew for sides. The time in the final last night was eight minutes for constructive speech, three for rebuttal.

Of the four new men making the team, Mr. Beebe alone has had experience as a Varsity debater. He was on the Morningside college team in Iowa during his freshman and sophomore years.

Miss Vivian Kellems, well known in dramatics, is the second woman to make the Oregon team. Rosalind Bates made the team last year and will be on again this year. Both Mr. Davis and Mr. Bailey had experience as high school debaters.

Coach Prescott expressed himself well pleased with the new material. "The prospects certainly indicate a good year in debate," he said.

The judges for the final were Miss Ida Turney, Prof. Prescott, Prof. Howe, Prof. Gilbert and Mr. Hamilton. The debaters entering were: C. N. Patterson, Don D. Davis, Lewis Beebe, Carlton McFadden, Carlton Savage, Walter Bailey, Vivian Kellems and Lloyd Still.

SKETCHES SENT TO NEW YORK

The architecture department of the University sent 12 sketches from the campus school and from the extension school to The Beaux Arts Society of New York.

Red Cross Seals Will Be Sold by Girls to Aid Nation-Wide Tuberculosis Fight

The sale of Red Cross Christmas seals to raise funds to further the nationwide fight against tuberculosis is being launched this week in Eugene, downtown and on the University campus by Mrs. W. P. Boynton, Lane county representative of the state anti-tuberculosis association. Mrs. Boynton is visiting woman's organizations on the campus to tell the girls about the sale in former years and to ask their help again this year. The sale on the campus will be conducted by girls and will begin Friday. "The girls that I have visited are co-operating willingly and seem anxious to begin the work," said Mrs. Boynton.

The sale of stamps last year was not as large as in former years because, according to Mrs. Boynton, a report was printed that 90 per cent of the money taken in is spent outside the state. "I want to impress it upon the people that 90 per cent of the money taken in is spent for the work inside the state and only 10 per cent is sent out," said Mrs. Boynton. She says further that the money spent outside the state is spent for seals and the rest goes to the American Red Cross association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis.

Proceeds from the sale of seals in Oregon last year amounted to $4,757.40 and the sale in Lane county amounted to

College Men in Business in Eugene Will Unite and Form University Club

Although there are many college men in business in Eugene, no attempt has ever been made to form a definite organization for co-operative work and pleasure.

Saturday, December 9, there will be a luncheon in the grill room of the Osburn hotel at 12 o'clock, to which all college business men are invited and which is for the purpose of forming a University club. "This initial step will but start the ball rolling, and the organization will assume a more permanent nature as the winter's plans progress.

E. O. Immel, attorney, and chairman of the committee on arrangements, said in speaking of the plan, "As many college men as there are in Eugene, we have never worked together; we should be organized, and that is what we will do at the luncheon. It will be absolutely informal, with informal talks, the principal one of which will be President Campbell's report of the educational convention which he recently attended in Washington, D. C. We have no definite or extensive plans yet. What we want now is organization—plans will develop later in the winter."

D. W. Morton, dean of the school of commerce, and I. P. Hewitt, a University of Nebraska graduate and a practicing attorney, are the other members of the committee which is responsible for this movement.
