Alumni Notes

Mina Ferguson, '16, is teaching mathematics in the Corvallis high school. The freshmen elected her as class advisor.

Elizabeth Minturn, who was one of the three out of the class of 1916, who graduated with special honors in mathematics, is teaching mathematics and physics in the Milwaukie high school. She is also coach of the girls' basketball team.

Jewel M. Tozier, '16, is teaching mathematics and physical training at the La Grande high school, and supervises playground work of the grammar grades. This is all new work in La Grande. Miss Tozier wrote to Professor E. E. DeCou, head of the mathematics department, that she thinks if more University representatives spoke in La Grande and other parts of eastern Oregon it would create a greater interest in the University. "We are in just as close touch with the Universities of Idaho and Washington here as with Oregon," said Miss Tozier.

Herman L. Smith, who completed two years here, has been recently appointed instructor in mathematics in Princeton University. Mr. Smith completed his college work at Chicago University, receiving his B. A. degree in 1914, and M. A. in 1915. Professor E. H. Moore, head of the department of mathematics at the University of Chicago, wrote professor DeCou that "Mr. Smith is one of the strongest men in mathematics who has ever come to the University of Chicago, which is the center of mathematical work in this country."

C. L. Stoddard, '14, has accepted a position as electrician at the University. Since graduation he has been working as machinist on a ranch in Eastern Oregon. Stoddard was in the class of '11 but was forced to withdraw on account of sickness, receiving his degree in '14.

SOPHOMORES TO GIVE HOP SATURDAY NIGHT

Annual Dance of Second Year Class Will Be Held in Armory.

New Seating Arrangement to Facilitate Finding of Partners Will Be Tried.

The sophomore dance to be held Saturday night at the Armory is destined to be a great success, if Lynn McCready, head of the dance committee, is to be believed. The various committees are making heroic efforts to have the affair complete in every detail, he declares.

The decorations are under the direction of Charles McDonald. The plan is to use red and white bunting, and to display the class numerals in colored electric lights.

Marion Coffey, who has charge of the feature dance, says the feature will be a decided novelty. "It has never been used before, and I am sure it will be attractive," said Miss Coffey.

Merely as an experiment, the class has decided to make new seating arrangements for the dancers. The plan is to have the girls sit in groups which will be alphabetically arranged, to facilitate the finding of partners.

The music has been chosen by the class.

You men who travel require unusual service from your clothes; your rapid jumps allow little time for proper attention to your suits.

We can show you clothes that will retain their good looks under these conditions. Real value is in them.

They are made by Hart Schaffner & Marx, in the new styles, from all-wool fabrics.

We'd like to show you how much value and style a nominal price will secure.
