Student Activities

Beta Theta Pi entertained informally on Friday evening with a dancing party at the chapter house. The patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pratt, Dr. and Mrs. Timothy Cloran, Professor and Mrs. Frederick Young, and Dean Elizabeth Fox. The house was attractively decorated with greens and cut flowers. The guest list included Mary Murdock, Marguerite Gross, Cleome Carroll, Marion Grebel, Laura Jerard, Margaret Rogers, Josephine Driscoll, Lucille Stanton, Lorraine Mahoney, Helen Downing, Lucinda Cochran, Mildred Broughton, Mamie Gillette, Helen Bracht, Anne Dawson, Carol Montague, Melba Williams, Marion Coffey, Ruth Montgomery, Nellie Reidt, and Marjorie Kay.

Mrs. Joseph Moss spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her daughter, Jeannette, at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

Cary Howard left on Wednesday for Salem, Oregon. Miss Howard, who is a Kappa Alpha Theta pledge, will leave soon for her home in Aberdeen, Mississippi. She made many friends during her stay at the University.

McLeod Maurice, '19, of Portland, is a guest at the Phi Delta Theta house.

Mrs. R. R. Butler and daughter, Betty, were Monday guests of Elsie Fitzmaurice at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Helen Downing, '18, of Seaside, Oregon, is a guest at the Chi Omega house. Miss Downing will return to college in February.

Francine Miller was a guest of Kappa Kappa Gamma during the week end.

Mrs. A. D. Garner, of Astoria, spent the early part of the week at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, visiting her daughter Jessie Garner.

Miss Elizabeth Fox, Lillian Littler, Helen Purington, Celeste Foulkes, Gertrude May, Genevieve Keller, Dorothy Duniway and Gladys Smith were dinner guests of Mrs. E. K. Wheeler on Thanksgiving Day.

Football Schedule

Oregon Agricultural College at Eugene, January 12 and 13.

University of Oregon at Corvallis, January 19 and 20.

The 1917 track schedule is:

May 5, University of Oregon vs. Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis.

May 11, University of Oregon vs. University of Washington at Eugene.

Mr. 19, Pacific Coast Conference meet at Seattle, Washington.

June 2, Pacific-Northwest Conference meet at Pullman, Washington.

DANCE CLASS OPENS

The class in social dancing which Miss Rader and Miss Goldsmith are conducting met after a rest of several weeks, due to vacation, and football games.

SOCCER SQUAD MUST GET MORE PRACTICE

Coach Dymont Issues Ultimatum as Result of Showing Against Multnomah.

The early snowfall Tuesday prevented the soccer squad from getting the practice, which according to Coach Dymont, is absolutely necessary if the percentage column is to be kept free from defeats. The coach was none too pleased with the varsity's exhibition against Multnomah. The clubmen were on the offensive practically all the time, particularly toward the end of the game. If the halves were 15 minutes in length the locals might do some rushing themselves but 35 minutes wears the boys out. To get them into condition to play a game at top speed all the way is the intention of the coming practices.

Herb Heywood's place at center half will probably be filled by Hinson, although it depends on how the other candidates show up the next two weeks. This is the most important position on the team and requires a player who knows the game thoroughly. Hinson is a newcomer this year and has a lot to learn.

The rest of the team will line up as usual. The last two games have developed more team play than was evident in the opening game against O. A. C. and the passing and dribbling has become more sure. Jimmy Sheehy and Nelson between them have shot all the goals scored in the three games so far, Sheehy booting four and Nelson putting two through the posts.

Soccer apparently has gained a strong foothold in the interest of the students this year. The short season and early schedule of games has found favor with the players and more have come out than in any previous year.
