Student and Faculty Activities

By Dorothy Parsons

FROM 4 o'clock on next Wednesday afternoon, the members of Gamma Phi Beta will entertain with their fourth annual Christmas party for the poor children of Eugene. A large Christmas tree, gaily decked with tinsel and gifts will greet the eyes of the thirty little guests shortly after arrival. Games will be played and at 6 o'clock, a dinner will be served to the children by their hostesses. Children from the most destitute families in Eugene will be entertained and every effort will be exerted to make them happy.

The German club met Wednesday evening at the Y. W. C. A. Bungalow. Prof. Hermann Schwarz gave a talk on "German Student Life at Heidelberg" and a vocal solo by Eva Wood was greatly enjoyed. German games and songs were features of the meeting and plans for the coming Christmas party were discussed.

Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Schaefer, Mrs. William Asburn, and Rev. and Mrs. Fish were Sunday dinner guests at Mary Spiller hall last week.

Delta Tau Delta entertained at dinner last Sunday for Era Godfrey, Beatrice Thurston, Caroline Alexander, Lucile Morrow, Allyn Johnson, Reba Mack, Jennie Huggins and Mrs. Page.

Prof. J. F. Bovard was a Thursday evening dinner guest at the Delta Tau Delta house.

Everett Pixley and Al Holman were luncheon guests at the Beta Theta Pi house on Friday.

Delta Gamma will entertain on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Anita Taylor, whose wedding to Harvey Banks Kinnison, of Idaho, will be an event of next Wednesday. Besides the active members of the Delta Gamma here, the guests will be: Miss Taylor, Miss Marion Taylor, Mrs. Taylor, and Mr. Kinnison. Both Miss Taylor and Mr. Kinnison are former students of the University of Idaho, where Miss Taylor was a member of Delta Gamma and Mr. Kinnison affiliated with Sigma Nu.

Laura Jerard, Floyd Westerfield, and Harold Tregilgas were the committee in charge of the arrangements for the successful all-University band informal dance given at the men's gymnasium last night. Following the example of the Sophomores the seating arrangement was alphabetical and printed programs with sixteen numbers were provided. The music by the University band was very good. Punch was served at the door of the hand-ball room during the evening.

The patrons and patronesses invited were, President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Prof. C. V. Dymont, and Prof. Allen C. Hopkins.

Mrs. Paul Janney, of Medford, has been a guest during the past week of Mrs. George Rebec and Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons.

Beatrice Yoran will entertain Monday evening at her home in Fairmount in honor of the active members of Delta Gamma. The affair will be informal. Miss Yoran has planned this event to be a Christmas party, and seasonal decorations will be used.

Joe Bell was a dinner guest of Kappa Kappa Gamma on Tuesday evening.

Dinner guests of Chi Omega on Wednesday evening were Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Conklin, Professor and Mrs. F. C. Ayer, and Dean and Mrs. E. W. Allen.

Mrs. E. H. Boyer, house mother of Kappa Alpha Theta, left Monday for Waterbury Center, Vermont, where Mrs. Boyer will spend the remainder of the winter with her mother. Mrs. Boyer will return to the University in the fall.

The surprise of the week was the announcement of the engagements of Veola Peterson, Alpha Phi, to Ivor Ross, Sigma Nu; and Mabel Van Zante, Alpha Phi, to Oscar Goreczky, Sigma Nu. The engagements were made known to the Sigma Nu house last Sunday at dinner.

Helen Downing has returned to her home. Miss Downing will re-enter the University in February.

Dorothy Shockley was a dinner guest at Kappa Kappa Gamma on Friday evening.

Delta Delta Delta entertained with a brother dinner last Sunday. The table was prettily decorated with ivy and Oregon grape. The guest list included Jake Risley, Wayne Stater, Paul Spangler, Robert Mann, Lloyd Still, Giles Hunter, Warren Wilkins and Earl Bronaugh.

Sunday dinner guests at the Sigma Nu house were President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Henderson. Mrs. Henderson was formerly Miss Lucia Campbell.

Al Holman is spending the week-end at the Sigma Nu house. Mr. Holman has been ill at his home in Portland for several months.

Mrs. Loring Tefferly was a dinner guest Tuesday evening at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

President Campbell was a dinner guest at the Alpha Tau Omega house on Tuesday evening.

Agnes McLaughlin, '14, spent the week-end at the Chi Omega house.

Mr. Andrew R. Porter entertained with a delightful dinner at the Osburn hotel on Thursday evening for his niece, Lillian Porter. Mr. Porter's guests were Merle Hamilton, Iva McMillin, Ethel Waite and Lillian Porter.

The Christmas Spirit Finds Adequate Expression Here

Christmas Buying Center

Some people have formed an incorrect idea of this store through studying our show windows. Seeing nothing but artistic things displayed, they jump to the conclusion that only expensive articles are to be found within. By no means. The windows are purposely made as attractive as possible to form pictures to gladden the eye of the passer-by. Once inside you find that we have not only the luxuries, but the necessities; not only novelties, but also staple merchandise of thorough dependability, and all marked at prices as low or lower than those prevailing elsewhere.
