

Student and Faculty Activities

By Dorothy Parsons

ON SATURDAY evening the newly installed "Mask and Buskin" chapter of the Associated University Players will give a formal dance at the Rainbow gardens which will be attended by the members of the chapter and a limited number of guests. Clever programs have been arranged, each number representing a scene from one of Shakespeare's plays.

The feature dance which is called the "Mask and Buskin" has been attractively arranged. The dancers will be masked and the men and women sent to opposite ends of the room, after which the choosing of partners will take place. A "cabaret" supper dance will be an especial treat. Miss Hazel Rader and Jerome Holzman will be the entertainers.

The patrons and patronesses for this affair are President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, and Miss Winnifred Forbes.

The chapter was installed on Friday evening, the installing officer being Colin C. Clements, of Washington University who is editor-in-chief of "The Cue," the official magazine of the Associated University Players.

Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 P. M., at Guild hall, the chapter entertained with a pleasing vaudeville program. Formal invitations were extended to a large number of guests.

The Chi Omega house was the scene of a jolly informal dance on Friday evening. The patrons and patronesses invited were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mr. and Mrs. Marion McClain, Miss Margaret Upleger, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Professor Howard Annett, and Mrs. Charles A. Gray.
