KILLING JEALOUSY

Having settled the appropriation ques tion equitably between Oregon Agricultural College and the University of Oregon, namely $65,000 each, the state legislature has shown in its attitude no discrimination. At least such discrimination as was shown by the committee making a report on state institutions. This is a matter of much significance, showing as it does the high regard in which the University work is regarded by deep thinking men. It would surely be true that were not the University regarded as a permanent institution whose field of activity is so far removed from that of the state college it would not have received the appropriation for further building and increased extension work.

It is regrettable that the reporting committee on state institutions took the fling it did at the alleged jealousy existing between O. A. C. and the University. If this be a fact it is news to the Emerald, and we are sorely displeased with our contemporary the O. A. C. Baromit should have lent its columns to reprinting that section of the report deal- did not bring it forth. ing with the jealousy without commenting on it editorially to rebut the impression given out. Or is the Emerald to understand by the Barometer's silence it believes such jealousy exists?

If such jealousy should exist-and the dent body papers to kill it or at least ask?-J. D. G. stigmatize it so that it would die of its own shame. Fie, on any such thing as CLASS PLAYS ARE PLANNED jealousy existing between Oregon's two great educational institutions! There

Blossom Time in the Golden State

A friend just back from Southern California says: "The weather was fine, in fact too warm for heavy clothes. Many were bathing at the beaches. Oranges were ripe in the valleys, while the mountains nearby were covered with snow."

With warm sunny weather it will not be long before the blossoms on the trees will be everywhere announcing that spring time is here.
