ALL ACTIVITIES MAY COME UNDER RULING

Extending Conference Regulations.

Doughnut League Will Probably Be Exempted; Exercise Beneficial.

Working along the line of further raising the scholarship of the University, a committee of the faculty is meeting this afternoon to consider the adoption of the scholarship rules of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Athletic conference to apply to all activities of University students.

Under the plan elective offices on the Emerald and Oregana and positions in the band, glee clubs and all elective ofleader and managers of different branches of student activities, would be put under the same scholarship ruling that now applies to athletics in inter-collegiate sports. Oratory, debate, and dramatics, although considered to be of more scholarship benefit, will probably be included if the proposed ruling is adopted by the faculty.

The ruling of the athletic conference bars sophomores from participating in inter-collegiate sports who have eight

Before referring the matter to com- mira high school team mittee the faculty decided not to consider the adoption of the one-year residence rule which applies to athletes.

The ruling may be extended to include other forms of student activity, such as reporting for the Emerald, membership in honorary societies and dramatic clubs and possibly Doughnut league athletics. The Doughnut leagues stand in small danger, however, owing to the general belief that a small amount of athletics is good even for poor students. The plan of the faculty is only to stop over-indulgence in athletics by students who need of those who made the trip to Cottage the time for their other work.

"The cost of maintaining the University of Oregon is $270 a year for each student and the work offered by the departments, made possible by this money, should be the most important work of the student," says Professor R. W. Prescott. 'It is toward this end that the committee is working; that the students get full benefit out of the work of the University New Committee Aims for Higher Religibefore they are allowed to spend their time on work of lesser importance."

Should the plan be recommended by the committee and adopted by the facul- ligious and Moral Activities Committee ty it is probable that it will be made ef- was held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'cloc fective with the opening of school next in President Campbell's office.

Oregon University Has Taken Five Firsts in the Last Eight Years.

The annual state oratorical contest among the nine colleges of Oregon will take place on the ninth of March et O. A. C. Earl Fleischman has been chosen to represent the University. This is Mr. Fleischman's second year in both oratory and debate.

The oration which Oregon's representative will deliver will be on the subject of "Education for Peace". Last year Walter Myers won first place for Oregon with an oration on "World Peace and States Sovereignty". This year marks the ninth meeting of the Res. 1082 State Oratorical Association. In the last eight years Oregon has carried off five firsts.

Each class in the University is entitled to two representatives. The juniors have elected Vivian Kellems and Herbert McFadden. The seniors, Ernest Watkins and Nick Jaureguy. The sophomore and freshman Jele-University Faculty to Consider gates are yet to be chosen. At the last contest Oregon's Jelegation was the smallest of all the state colleges and it is greatly feared that we will suffer the same disadvantage this year unless the under classmen elect representa-
