PENCE GIVES FINAL ADDRESS TO WOMEN

Subject Last Night "A Supreme Experience and Its Motive."

Speaker Returns to Portland After Giving Series of Three Lectures.

"A Supreme Experience and Its Motive" was the subject of the lecture given last night in Guild hall to University women by Dr. Edward H. Pence, pastor of the Westminster church of Portland. Last night's lecture was the last of a series of three given by Dr. Pence.

The "Sermon on the Mount" was the basis of the lecture. "Christ meant to outline the ideals of a great life in the sermon," declared Dr. Pence. "Anyone who hears, believes, and follows the sermon will stand when the crisis comes."

Dr. Pence put the beatitudes in modern English. "Blessed is he whose mind and soul is not preoccupied," he translated, "for if the mind and soul are preoccupied there is no room for God."

"Blessed is the soul which has the capacity for serving," was the way the speaker translated another beatitude.

"Blessed are they with a soul which has the capacity for profound earnestness," Dr. Pence says he believes in laughter and that those who can give a ripping laugh are the ones who know when to be earnest. Dr. Pence said that remarks made by Dr. Adam in a talk earlier in the day hit him "in the solar plexus with aromatical accuracy."

"Blessed is the soul with the capacity for serving," translated Dr. Pence. "Blessed are they who cultivate a sense of otherness."

"Blessed be they who know how to work on a team."

"Meekness is the art of submitting to the inevitable, but be very careful what you call inevitable," said Dr. Pence in comment upon another beatitude.

Ruth Wilson, president of the Y. W. C. A., presided at the meeting. About 200 girls were present.

Dr. Pence returned to Portland last night on a midnight train.

U. WANTS ATHLETIC FIELD

Student Committee Will Petition Board of Regents at Next Meeting.

To represent the case of the Student Council and its position upon the subject of providing facilities for the staging of athletic events at the University, the executive committee of the council met last night with President P. L. Campbell. The requests of the council will be carried by the president before the Board of Regents at its next meeting, which is to be held shortly, and action taken at that time. The council included among its requests a plea for help in the providing of a new athletic field and grandstands.

STANFORD EXPELS 75 FLUNKERS

Seventy-five students have been expelled from Stanford University for poor scholarship, according to the announcement of the registrar. This is the largest number expelled at one time in the history of the university. In addition to those expelled 117 students have been disciplined to poor scholarship.

WASHINGTON LIMITS DANCERS

In the interest of all students at the University of Washington, the next two-bit dance, according to the chairman will have an attendance of 225 couples and no more. When this number has been sold the boks will be closed, and in this way those present will be able to dance in perfect comfort.

CORNELL PROPOSES NEW COURSE

A school of business administration offering courses in public affairs and leading to a master's degree, with an entrance at any college of the university, has been proposed at Cornell University.

WANT U. W. MAT MEET

Rutherford Asks Washington Wrestlers to Stop Here.

Men Preparing for Possible Encounter Monday Night; No Dope on Visitors.

Oregon fans may yet have a chance to see the varsity wrestling team in action. Captain Ellwyn Rutherford and graduate manager A. R. Tiffany are trying to get in touch with the University of Washington squad which meets O. A. C. at Corvallis Saturday night in an effort to get them to stay over and meet the local grapplers next week. If they are successful the events will probably be held Monday night.

Every member of the team is eager to prove that he can better his showing at Corvallis. Coach Ed Shockley has been putting his men through daily workouts to have them in shape in case the Washington meet is secured.

Little is known of the strength of the Washingtonians other than that their strongest men are in the 115 and 125 pound divisions. No man on the local team has yet won his letter with the probable exception of Captain Rutherford who tied his match. If the same ruling is followed that holds in track he will get his "O", for when a track man ties his opponent in any event he receives a letter. Unless the Washington deal goes through wrestling will be over for the year.

FURNEY BACK AT U.

Muirhead Will Be in Eugene Tomorrow; May Register.

Both Are Star Athletes; 'Moose' May Be Ineligible.

Leo Furney, who threw the shot forty-one feet five inches in the doughnut track meet last spring thus beating the best mark made in the coast conference by over a foot, has registered in the class of 1917. Furney arrived here Sunday from Wallace, Idaho, where he has been working for the American Mining and Smelting company.

Furney is also material for the varsity pitching squad but announces that he will go out only for the shot put. It is probable that he will take part in the doughnut baseball series.

Furney says that Moose Muirhead, who has been working with him in Wallace is now in Portland and will arrive in Eugene tomorrow. Muirhead may register although he is undecided. Muirhead has many records in the Pacific coast conference. He is an all-round track man and is rated one of the best athletes turned out by the University. It is possible, however, that he will be ineligible this year.

TUNG HE FOLLOWED EXAMPLE

Editor, Cornell Daily Sun:—I have read the letter of "Graal." I am sorry I put my feet upon the library table. But when I walk through the College of Arts the doors are open and I look into the room. I see one of my professors all sitting with their feet on desks and tables and bookcases. I follow the example of the American civilization. That is what I was sent here for to learn. I am sorry. I will not do it again.—Esung Tung He, '19.—Ex.

IOWA STUDES SEEK MATRIMONY

According to the statement of a prominent man in the field of child welfare work, the primary purpose of most boys and girls coming to the University of Iowa is to find a wife or husband, as the case may be. He says that of course some of them are never seen with those of the opposite sex, but that the majority of them are more interested in marriage than anything else.

SEWANEE GETS NEW FIELD

Sewanee is to have a new athletic field and a stadium. In the field there is to be a circular track a long straightaway for jumping, and all other requisites for a modern athletic field. The whole cost of fixing the field is estimated at $25,000.

HARVARD WANTS $10,000,000

To raise a fund of $10,000,000 for the unrestricted use of the university is the program announced this morning by the Harvard endowment fund committee. The formation of this committee and the launching of its campaign came as a result of the constantly increasing financial needs of the university without a corresponding increase in resources.
