Student and Jaculty Activities

By Dorothy Parsons

NE of the most interesting events of the year is the dinner-dance with which Sigma Nu is entertaining at the Hotel Osburn this evening. White roses, the fraternity flower, have been used in decorating the tea-room where dinner will be served. In the ball-room white roses and ropes of greenery have been artistically arranged, while in one end of the room is an enormous Sigma Nu pin made of daffodils and roses. During the evening the Sigma Nu quartet will sing.

The guests are Dr. and Mrs. Seth Kerron, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Orman Bean. Mr. and Mrs. William Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Willoughby, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin McCornack, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. As soon as the whistle had blown, signaling the end of the Oakland-Pendleton girls' basketball game in the men's people began to move around the floor and fill improvised programs. Difficulty in gettin ga piano delayed the dancers for a sohrt time, but soon this inconvenience was remedied and one of the jolliest informal parties of the year began. About 100 couples occupied the floor and the twelve or fourteen dances played by Hyde's orchestra were over all too
