WILL PRESENT GOLD TOKENS TOMORROW

President Jaureguy to Give Out Emblems at Assembly to 15 Men.

Westerfield Will Bring Up Question of Including Emerald in Student Tax.

Fifteen gold footballs will be presented to the football men tomorrow when the student body meets in Villard at 10 o'clock. These footballs are the gift of the student body to the men who made Oregon the champions of the Pacific Coast. Those to receive them are Tergart, Bartlett, Spelman, Rilsley, Snyder, Beckett, Mitchell, Say Huntington, Parsons, H. Muntington, Williams, Dudley, Monteith, Bezdek, and Bill Hayward.

Monteith is on his way to Alaska and his football will be sent to him. These gold footballs are about one inch long and are exact models of a real pigskin. On one side is engraved an "O" and the words "Pacific Coast Champions". On the other side is engraved the name of the player and the score of the Pennsylvania-Oregon game.

The total cost of the gold emblems was $95.50, of which $80 was raised at the Mask and Buskin play, and $8 by the collection taken at the rally following the victory over Pennsylvania.

The inter-fraternity basketball championship cup will be presented to Sigma Chi at the assembly. Floyd Westerfield will bring up the question of giving Emeralds free to registered students, according to Nicholas Jaureguy, student body president. This question will be voted on at the following meeting. A full report will also be made showing the exact situation at present concerning the football field, in order that every student may become familiar with the situation.

A slight change will also be made in the student body election rules, according to Jaureguy. The rules concerning the millrace will also be considered tomorrow.

DEPUTATION TRIP SUCCESS
James McCallum Delivers Sermon at Elmira; Team Loses Basketball Game.
Friday, Saturday and Sunday a Y. M. C. A. deputation trip was made to Elmira where union services were held in the Baptist church there. James McCallum delivered the sermon on "The Young Men's Christian Association, the All-round Developer."

McCallum, Warren Gilbert, J. D. Foster and Ray Hausler also spoke in an assembly at the high school.
The expenses of the trip were paid from the proceeds of a basketball game with the Elmira team Saturday night. Gilbert and Hausler played forward, Dennis Brown, McCallum and Chandler Harper guards, while Foster acted as referee. The Elmira team won with a score of 23 to 11.
Friday evening the visitors were entertained at a party in one of the homes, at which 80 people were present. A boxing contest, a hike and a snowball fight completed the program.

Mrs. J. Frederic Thorne Resumes Work After Ten Weeks of Serious Illness

Mrs. J. Frederic Thorne, instructor in the department of public speaking, has returned to her desk after ten weeks of serious illness. She will resume active work, assisting Professor Reddie in coaching the plays to be staged by the different classes in dramatics.

Mrs. Thorne was on the stage for fifteen years, during the early part of which she worked for the New York Sun, and the Boston Herald.

As for the stage career, it all began by accident.

Mrs. Thorne, then Katherine Cogswell, was attending school in Boston; she had had no theatrical work of any kind, not even in boarding school. But one day, Maude Banks, a friend of hers playing that winter in the old Boston Theatre, sent her a note asking her to come to the theatre. She went, quite innocently, and was met almost at the stage door by the director.

"Here's your part," he said. "They're waiting for you on the stage."

"I can't act" said Katherine Cogswell; but she went on the stage. And there she stayed for 18 weeks.

Mrs. Thorne played for a time with both of the Frohman's and in the Lyceum Theatre, in New York City, for three years. It was during that time that she did journalistic work.

In 1898 she made her first trip west, and spent the summer visiting her cousins, Mrs. Idaho Campbell of Eugene, and Mrs. Lisehen Miller, who died last year. The second trip was made with Frederick Ward, playing "The Lion's Mouth" in San Francisco and Portland.

The last ten years of her work were spent in playing Shakespeare leads.

It was the winter of the Big Grippe; everybody had it. Catherine Cogswell played everything but Mr. and Mrs. Macbeth; each performance she played a different role.

And this she doesn't tell; but Mrs. J. Frederic Thorne was known as "the beautiful Catherine Cogswell."

7 O'CLOCK BIBLE CLASS.

Oregon stands unique among Universities of the country in conducting a voluntary Bible study class at 7 o'clock which has an attendance of over 20 coeds despite the early hour. The class is open to all women of the University and it is under the auspices of the Christian association. Miss Mary Watson, instructor in English literature at the University, leads the discussion. The girls meet Tuesday mornings at the Bungalow.

PRESS NOTICE

Charles Wakefield Cadman the American composer and authority on Indian folksong who appears in this city Wednesday, March 14 established himself firmly all over America as the most popular song writer. Not content with that, he has proven his talent for work in the larger form. Few composers have the second edition of a piano sonata to their credit. Cadman's A major sonata on Joaquin Miller's "From Sea to Sea" is acclaimed by critics and the leading pianists a distinctive contribution to American piano literature.

That Mr. Cadman's popularity is not confined to America is evidenced by the news that his Indian songs are constantly being sung in Russia, South Africa, Australia, and lately they were given in Buenos Ayres, South America.

The popular "Land of the Sky-blue Water" was introduced by the late Madame Nordica, a warm personal friend of the composer, in many foreign countries before her death. The publishers have "records" of the song in every part of the world. The original manuscript is now in the Congressional Library on public exhibit along with Mr. Cadman's pencil score of the piano sonata.

PRESIDENT NAMED DELEGATE

In a recent letter of March 7, President P. L. Campbell was designated by Governor James Withycombe as delegate for Oregon to the annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science to be held at Philadelphia on April 20 and 21. On account of previous engagements it will be impossible for the President to attend.

In preparation for the annual concert March 2, approximately $4000 worth of new and especially arranged instruments have been purchased for the University bands. Only the more rare instruments, which incoming students would not be likely to own, are listed among the new purchases.

Each instrument has been made especially for the Illinois bands, under the special supervision of Director A. A. Harding.—Daily Illini.

APRIL FROLIC SOON

All Girls on Campus Expected to Attend in Costume.

Prize Offered for Best Individual Costume and Cup for Best Stunt.

Every girl on the campus is expected to appear at the April Frolic in costume on March 24 at 7:30. No girl will be admitted to the lower floor unless she is masqueraded. Vaudeville stunts will follow one another in quick succession the whole evening, and according to Dorothy Wheeler, head of committees, they will be worth while. All of the campus organizations are going to put on stunts and there will also be several individual features.

The names of the skits must be in by March 18 in order to be put on the programs. The first organizations turning in the names of their stunts will be given a choice of places on the program. Roberta Killam and Charlotte Banfield have charge of the program and they are arranging a system whereby there will be no long delays between each stunt as has previously been the case. A prize will be awarded for the best individual costume and a cup will be given to the organization presenting the best stunt.

Ten cents will be charged for admittance to the lower floor and 25 cents for admittance to the gallery. This money will go into the Women's building fund.

The following are the committees in charge of the affair: general committee, Dorothy Wheeler, Jeanette Wheatley, Rosamund Shaw, and Cleome Carroll; eats committee; Frances Shoemaker, Olive Rilsley, Helen Wiegand, Ethel Murray and Adrienne Epping; stage committee; Roberta Killam and Charlotte Banfield; floor manager, Echo June Zahl.

Come Examine our Jewelry

An examination of our jewelry will mean a purchase. The outward appearance will please you; the "inward" high quality our name assures.

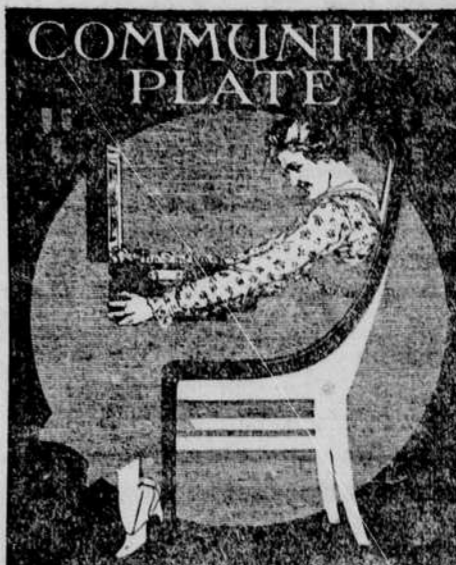

Judges of jewelry will buy our jewelry when they see it; those who are not judges must trust to one thing—the "reputation" of the establishment with which they deal.

We refer those who are not our customers to those who are.

We make "Quality" right; then the price right.
