

SIGMA CHI WINNER OVER KAPPA SIG NINE

Alexander Star of 13-to-1 Game; Fans Nine, Singles and Registers Homer.

TWO GAMES WEDNESDAY WHEN SEMI-FINALS BEGIN

Oregon Club Tossers Organize; Drill Changed to Give More Time for Play.

In a game that had good and bad baseball mixed in about equal proportions, Sigma Chi administered a sound trouncing to Kappa Sigma yesterday afternoon by the one-sided score of 13 to 1. Virgil Alexander was the particular luminary of the engagement. Alex pitched a one-hit game, striking out nine in the five innings and smashed out a single.

The first two innings smacked of big-league ball. Alexander turned the first three men to face him back to the bench on strikes. Also Fox kept Sigma Chi spikes off of the initial sack. In the second the Kappa Sigs loaded the bases on walks to Fox and Mason and Loughlin's base on account of being hit by a pitched ball. Alex settled down then, nabbing Fox at home and retiring the next two up.

Masterson reached first on an error in the third, stole second and scored on Jack Elliott's sacrifice hit.

The Sigs came back and here the fireworks started. Sims doubled, Kennon and Leonard got on through misplays and Clubb hit bringing in the first two. Alexander singled, cleaning the bases and later scored himself on an overthrow.

The Kappa Sigs went out in one-two-three order in their half of the fourth, but not so the Sigma Chis, who were not content until eight more tallies were marked up. A medley of errors and hits accounted for the massacre which ended with McCready's four-ply swat.

Strowbridge got the only hit for Kappa Sigma—a long three-sacker as lead-off man in and the game was over.

The Oregon Club held a meeting after drill yesterday to get a team together to enter the league. If they are successful, they will meet the winner of the Fiji Faculty game in the semi-finals.

Wednesday a double-header is on tap. The Faculty and the Fijis will play their postponed contest and Sigma Chi meet the Deltas in the semi-final round. Delta Tau and the Dorm also have a game to be played before Thursday, for the winner of their game is scheduled to play the winner between Sigma Nu and A. T. O. on that date. The change of the drill hour will permit two games a night to be pulled off until the schedule is brought up to date.

Yesterday's line-up:—Kappa Sigma, Masterson, ss; Elliott, cf; Hunt, lf; Fox, p; Mason, 3b; Loughlin, c; Strowbridge, 2b; J. Hunt, rf; Bronaugh, 1b.

Sigma Chi, Leonard, c; Clubb, 3b; Alexander, p; Reinhart, ss; Stam, 1b; McCready, 2b; Sims lf; Kennon, cf; Tregilgas, rf.

There are 175 students either below passing or on the danger line. Similar posts were sent out to both of these classes to serve the purpose of a warning.

LITTLE GIRL OFFERS HELP WOULD GIVE ALLOWANCE WORKS ON BUILDING FUND

Mrs. G. T. Gerlinger, a member of the board of regents, is in town with her little six-year-old daughter, Jean. Mrs. Gerlinger has been working for so long and so hard in her campaign for funds for the Womans Building that Jean is impressed with the need for money. When Mrs. Gerlinger went into President Campbell's office, Jean told Mr. Onthank, his secretary, that she had offered her part of her weekly allowance for the building fund.

Mrs. Gerlinger said later her allowance was five cents a week.

Mrs. Gerlinger was here for a meeting of the executive council of the board of regents, Friday night. Charles H. Fisher and W. K. Newell are the other members of the council.

TRUNK FOLLOWS CALLER

PRANK FLUSTERS NELSON

BETAS FEEL NEGLECTED

When Carl Nelson went calling Sunday afternoon he hadn't really intended changing his address entirely. The Gamma Phi Betas are a nice hospitable sort but they hadn't the slightest intention of adopting him as a permanent household fixture. But, alas for Carl, the fellows down at the Beta house couldn't see it that way. They figured that he spent more of his spare hours on the corner of Thirteenth and Alder than he passed under the fraternal roof on Twelfth street. So they took the most logical action one could expect. They carefully packed all of Carl's belongings in his trunk, locked it, and called for the expressman to take it where it would be of more use.

Thus, it came to pass that a strange trunk found its way to the Gamma Phi porch and thus it happened that one Carl Nelson parted with some small change in coaxing the expressman to return his goods and chattels to the house from whence they had come.

BISHOP WILL HAVE TIME FULLY TAKEN

Walter T. Sumner to Be Guest of Many Houses During Visit to University.

Prominent Oregon Clergyman Will Make Several Addresses on Campus This Week.

Walter Taylor Sumner, Episcopal Bishop of Oregon, will find most of his time occupied during his three days visit to the University Campus. He will arrive in Eugene Saturday May 5 and will remain until Wednesday morning. Several of the Bishop's dates have been made far in advance. On Monday at 4 o'clock he will address all the University women in general assembly in the Y. W. C. A. On Tuesday at 4 o'clock he will speak before Dean Fox's Class in Vocational problems. On the same day at eight he will meet the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet and at 11 o'clock will address the Eugene high school. On Sunday the Bishop will speak at the vesper service at 4:30 o'clock.

Bishop Sumner was born at Manchester, N. H. He received his B. S. degree at Dartmouth and graduated from Western Theological Seminary, Chicago, 1914. He received his D. D. at Northwestern 1912. Before his ordination as Bishop of Oregon in 1915 he was rector of St. Georges Cathedral, Chicago. He is also Chaplain of the 1st Illinois Cavalry, Illinois National Guard.

The Bishop has interested himself in education, in societies for the suppression of vice, juvenile reform, child labor and prison reform.

Most of the Bishop's dinner dates have been filled for more than a year. He will be entertained by the fraternities, two sororities and both dormitories.

The dinner date for the Dorm has not yet been definitely decided upon.

Bishop Sumner lives at Bishopcroft, Portland Heights, Portland. An interesting feature about his house is the little chapel beautifully furnished and decorated. The Chapel has room for only about 12 people and is one of very few in America.

After leaving the University the Bishop will go over to O. A. C. where he will address the student body assembly there.

MAKING GUNS ON CAMPUS

Wooden guns to be used in military drill are now being manufactured on the campus. It was first planned to let the contract to a lumber mill, but later campus production was found to be more economical. One of the carpenters employed in the care of the buildings with an assistant has been putting out about 100 mock rifles each day. The entire lot will probably be ready for use in drill before the week is over.

Concert In Etna Opera House? Sure! Girls' Glee Club Goes to Creswell

(By Nell Warwick)

The party left at 7 o'clock, nine machine loads of it. It was the girls glee club on its way to Creswell to give a concert in the Etna Opera house, Friday night. They got a good start, Melba Williams and Ed Shockley racing the entire thirteen miles. Melba won.

The crowd which attended the concert was large and applauded generously and according to Manager Jerome Holzman, the trip was entirely worth while financially.

The same program was given at Creswell as was given at the home concert two weeks ago with the exception of a change in soloists, Dean Ralph Lyman singing instead of Miss Leah Perkins. At the concert trouble began. In the first place the bonfire in the Indian scene refused to burn. The fuse burned out and then the globe burned out but finally after ten minutes delay the fire burned brightly and affairs proceeded. This number was loudly applauded by the audience.

After the concert the club, accompanied by the automobile drivers and Miss Hazel Rader, went to the only lunch room in town for a feed. Such a large crowd was evidently unheard of, for there were not enough dishes. Soup bowls, tin pans and even paper plates were pressed into service, and after the cups gave out, bowls of all kinds were

CO-EDS TRAIN DAILY TO WIN HAYWARD CUP

Feminine Leaguers Kick Up Turf of Vacant Lots in Work-outs for Doughnut Series.

Kappa's Get Scoop Rathbun for Coach; Pi Phi's Hold Warm-up in Morning.

Data uncovered concerning hidden training quarters, unearthly hours for practice, and the determination of no less than ten teams to provide shelter for the Hayward trophy cup for next year, make the outlook for the women's doughnut baseball series exceedingly promising.

The Kappas have employed the services of Scoop Rathbun, varsity pitcher, for coach and although they have not yet practiced, announce that they will practice daily after dinner on the Patterson school grounds.

"We are going to clean up everything in sight," declared Captain-manager, Dorothy Flegal.

The Mary Spiller team has practiced every day either on the baseball diamond or in the outdoor gym. The whole house thinks the prospects are good.

The Thetas have organized both a first and second team and practice from 6 to 7 a. m. They are coached by Hazel Rader and Marian Coffey and have secured lots of material through making it expedient for their freshmen to go out for the team.

The Pi Phis continue to arise for early morning training which they declare to be the best. Captain Ella Dews and Louise Clausen are proving to be stars though with their whole house turning out daily they are developing several other strong players.

Oregon Club has several veteran players and promise to show up well in the coming contests. Captain Esther Furuseth thinks the team is getting into good shape.

The Delta Gammars are reported to be recovering nicely from their injuries and are going through their daily practice under the coaching of Jennie Huggins.

The Alpha Phi team is not fully organized but they promise to put in an appearance for their game Saturday.

Gamma Phi and Tri Delt teams continue to practice but refuse to give any information. Chi Omega will enter no team.

WITHHOLD NAMES UNTIL MAY 4

According to Captain Willis Shippam, announcements of successful applicants to the officers' training camps will not be made before May 5, as the date for opening the camps has been postponed from May 8 to May 15.

PRE-MEDICS SHOULD STAY

Word From National Defense Urging Students to Complete Work.

Word was received here Monday from F. F. Simpson, chief of the medical section of the National Defense, urging pre-medics students not to enlist, as a constant supply of medical officers will be needed in case the war should last for years.

The letter reads: "In the present national crisis a continuous supply of adequately trained medical officers is absolutely essential for the maintenance of armed forces in the field. It would be folly for this country to prepare for the immediate emergency alone—we must face the possibility of the war lasting for years. It is, therefore, the patriotic duty of all college students intending to study medicine, to remain under instruction until the country can avail itself of their trained services.

"Medical schools are in a sense, 'munition works' necessary to produce trained medical officers for the army and navy. All graduates are urged to secure a hospital training which the surgeon-general of the army and navy consider essential for their arms of the service."

BEN WILLIAMS TO SERVE

Receives Notice That He is to Attend Officers' Reserve Camp at Presidio.

Ben H. Williams of the extension division has received notice from the officers reserve headquarters in Washington D. C. that he may attend the Officers' Training Camp in Presidio, Cal., when it opens on May 15.

At this military training camp there will be about 2,500 members of the infantry, cavalry and artillery reserve corps in training for commissions. Regular army officers will be in charge and it is expected that by July they will have 1,000 trained reserve officers.

Oregon Agriculture College will probably send about 200 down to this training camp.

NOMINATE STUDENT OFFICERS TOMORROW

Tregilgas and Sheehy Probable Candidates for Associated Presidency.

LACK OF ENTHUSIASM SHOWN SAYS JAUREGUY

Three Juniors Enter Lists for Emerald Editorship; Two Desire Secretaryship.

With student body officers to be nominated at tomorrow morning's assembly, rumors have begun to circulate as to who the candidates will be. The rumors are even more definite this year than formerly. Prospective candidates are unwilling to make themselves known as such beforehand, but insistent reports have made various names prominent.

Two candidates for the presidency of the Associated Students are practically certain. Harold Tregilgas and James Sheehy. Tregilgas is circulation manager of the Student Council, and treasurer of the junior class. Sheehy was president of his class as a sophomore, is an "O" man in base-ball and is sports editor of the Emerald. Ray Couch is a probable candidate for the vice presidency. Couch is a junior member of the Student Council.

Leura Jerard, another junior member of the Student Council, and Emma Wootton, editor of the 1918 Oregana, have been mentioned as candidates for secretary. Three juniors have entered the field for the editorship of the Emerald; Harry Crain, Adrienne Epping and De Witt Gilbert.

Jeanette Calkins and Joe Denn, rivals for manager of the Emerald.

Helen Brenton and Harold Newton have signified their intentions to run for editor of the Oregana.

Possible candidates for the Executive Committee are Charles Dundore and Don Roberts, but this list will undoubtedly be added to before the nominations take place. Martha Tinker and Lillian Litter will probably enter the field for Student Council members as competitors with others who will make their candidacy known later.

Nicholas Jauregui, president of the student body, in commenting upon the coming nomination said, "This year an unparadonable lack of enthusiasm is being shown by the students and especially by the underclassmen. I think every student who has special ability along these lines should run for some student body office.

In addition to the nominations, an amendment to the constitution will be brought up tomorrow morning. It provides for giving the Executive Committee the right to vote by a four-fifths vote any motion of any council requiring an appropriation. At present any of the councils can vote any appropriation which it deems necessary. The proposed amendment vests considerable additional power in the executive council and adds to its responsibility.

FACULTY MEN LECTURING

On Thursday, April 25, Earl Kilpatrick, director of the extension division, addressed the people of Woodburn while on his way to Portland. His subject was "Making the Schools Serve the Whole Community" and was the first of a series of five lectures as arranged by Dr. Fred B. Merritt, head of the community welfare department, of the extension division. Dean Eric W. Allen, Dean D. W. Morton, Dr. B. F. Saefie and Dr. Fred D. Merritt will be the other speakers.

Earl Kilpatrick, director of the extension division, returned home from Portland Saturday where he had been to open registration for summer school. He reports prospects for the summer school center at Portland as being fair. "The registration was naturally light," he said, "but that is to be expected so early in the season. People do not look that far ahead. On June 18 we will give them another chance."
