By Dorothy Parsons

BISHOP WALTER T. SUMNER arrived in Eugene this morning and will visit on the campus until next Tuesday evening. Bishop Sumner is very popular at the University and will be extensively entertained during his stay. On Saturday he will be a luncheon guest of Pi Beta Phi and a dinner guest of Beta Theta Pi. Sigma Chi will entertain the Bishop at dinner Sunday and in the evening he will be the guest of Mrs. P. L. Campbell and Professor and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher. On Monday Bishop Sumner will be entertained at luncheon by Mary Spiller hall and at dinner by Kappa Alpha Theta while Tuesday he will lunch at Friendly Hall and dine with Alpha Phi.

Kappa Kappa Gamma will entertain at dinner tomorrow. Guests will be Emmett Rathbun, Carl Knudson, Arvo Simola, Herman Lind, Harold Cake, James Sheehy, Lyle Bain and Max Reigard.

The annual May-day breakfast with which the upperclassmen of Delta Gamma entertain their underclassmen was an event of this morning. The Delta Gammas and their guests embarked in canoes at an early hour and were off up the race where breakfast was served al fresco.

Mrs. Charles Grey, Chi Omega chapter one, is spending the week-end in Salem.

Marian Spoerl, of Portland, is a week-end guest of Pi Beta Phi.

Aline Johnson is spending the week-end in Sutherlin.

Grace Reed, ex-'18, is spending the week-end at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

Fifteen members of the local chapter of Sigma Nu were in Corvallis last week-end attending the installation of a chapter there. The new chapter of Sigma Nu was formerly Gamma Upsilon.

Miss Lillian Littler was the guest of honor at a charming dinner party at the home of Dorothy Wheeler last evening at which Miss Wheeler and Miss Helen Purington were hostesses. Covers were arranged for all of the active members of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Miss Littler will leave Eugene for her home in New York immediately after the closing of the University. She is a member of the junior class in the University.

Covers were laid for fifty-one members of Kwama in the Grill room of the Osburn Hotel Wednesday night. Inactive members and newly initiated ones met together on this occasion and responded to Mary Murdock's call for toasts. Leura Jerard, Emma Wootton, Vera Olmstead, Evelyn Tregilgas, Peggy Boylen, and Kate Flegal gave short and interesting speeches. During the evening Oregon songs and many popular ones were sung and the gayest of spirits reigned.

Miss Tirza Dinsdale and Miss Esther Anderson were Thursday evening dinner guests at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Mortimer Brown and Mr. A. J. Vance, of Medford, were entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at the Beta Theta Pi house.

Marie Gates, Carol Montague, Ethel Waite, and Ruth Montgomery spent last week-end in Corvallis where they were entertained at the Alpha Chi house.

Beta Theta Pi entertained at dinner on Sunday for Merle Hamilton, Dorothy Hunziker, Ruth Montgomery, Nellie Reidt, Gladys Shute, Belle Messick, Eugenia Deming, Mary Murdock, Florence Hemenway and Professor Harthan.

Mary Warrack spent last week-end in Portland where she served as maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Lavelle Young and Wellington Gilbert.

Don Newman, of O. A. C. was a week-end guest of Sigma Chi.

Margaret Rodgers spent last week-end at her home in Salem.

Bryan Turner is in Eugene this weekend, a guest at the Sigma Chi house.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Motschenbacher were Thursday evening dinner guests of Pi Beta Phi.

Sunday evening luncheon guests of Pi Beta Phi were Esther Erickson and Myrtle McClain, of Portland, Dorothy Dixon, Marion Gilstrap, Annette Spencer, Irene Stuart, Thelm Stanton and Winifred Forbes.

Members of Sigma Chi were guests of honor at an informal dance at the Rainbow last evening for which Charles Prim was host. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Motschenbacher, Mrs. M. E. Watson, Miriam Page, Kate Schaefer, Dorothy Dunn, Katherine Twomey, Doris Slocum, Anne Dawson, Elizabeth Summerset, Ada Otten, Eugenia Deming, Edna Howd, Rena Adam, Florence Sherman, Louyse McCandliss, Lillian Bohannon, Nellie Reidt, Ella Dews, Margaret Mansfield, Katherine Johnson, Tula Kinsley, Anna Lee Miller, Evelyn Tregilgas, Mary McDonald, Dorothy Parsons, Beatrice Thurston, Elizabeth Aumiller, Katherine Waason, John Kelly, Robert Case, Paul Farrington, Graham Smith, Fred Moxley and Bothwell Avison.

WORK OF THESPIANS IN 3 PLAYS APPRECIATED

Attendance of Last Night's Performance Less Pleasing Than Character of Production.

Attendance far less than the pleasing character of the productions warranted greeted Prof. A. F. Reddie's students in dramatic interpretation in Guild hall, Friday night, when three one-act plays were staged. The work of the actors was thoroughly appreciated by those present, who are recommending the plays warmly to their friends for this evening. New laurels were won by the members of the three casts who put on "Neighbors," by Zona Gale; "The Game," by Louise Bryant (U. of O., '08), and Charles Reade's "Nance Oldfield."

The first was decidedly meant to bring a laugh from the audience, and it "got by" with colors flying. Looking into the domestic scene of "Mis' Abel's" kitchen, the contributors to the Red Cross were admitted into the joys of a small town neighborhood gossip bee. Helen Bracht, as Miss Abel, upheld her usual high standard of work. She certainly didn't look as though she would ever be just "the fly-leaf of things," as she declared her husband once thought she should be—especially so from the way she wielded her flatiron. Mary Alice Hill also deserves mention for her interpretation of "Gran'ma." In fact, everyone has a share of applause coming, the only weak spot being the somewhat unconvincing love scenes between the two younger members of the group.

The second play was allegorical, por-
