

Student and Faculty Activities

By Dorothy Parsons

Wednesday night the present student council were hosts to the new members at the second annual banquet. The Hotel Osburn was the scene of the festivities. Clever menu cards were provided each guest. Toasts followed the meal, Nick Jaureguy presiding as toastmaster. Ernest Watkins gave the greetings to the new members, Jimmy Shady responded. Kari Becke spoke on the student council, Jennie Huggins, on "Co-education", and all the old members gave toasts. Those present included: Nicholas Jaureguy, Ernest Watkins, Karl Becke, Leura Jerard, Martha Beer, Frances Shoemaker, Fred Kiddle, Jeannette Wheatley, Harold Tregilgas, Harold Hamstreet, Floyd Westerfield, George Cook, Emma Wootton, James Sheehy, Harry Crain, Burle Bramhall, Lillian Boylen, Don Newbury, Cora Hosford, Randall Scott, Lynn McCready, Kenneth Moores, Martha Tinker, and William Steers.

One hundred and twenty girls enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Campbell's home this morning at the first annual Senior breakfast.

Underclass members of the Young Women's Christian Association were individual hostesses for every Senior girl. The original plan of having breakfast on the president's lawn had to be abandoned on account of rain but Mrs. Campbell generously opened her home for the occasion and the affair proved most delightful. An informal program of talks followed the breakfast. Mrs. Campbell spoke a word of welcome, Miss Mary Watson and Miss Tirza Dinsdale spoke of association ideals, Ruth Wilson gave the association welcome to the senior girls and Mildred Brown responded for the fourth year women.

It is planned to make the breakfast an annual affair.

Y. W. C. A. acted as hostess for a breakfast this morning on President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell's lawn in honor of the senior women of the University. Each member of the association escorted a senior woman.

Delta Delta Delta entertained with a father's and mother's dinner Wednesday evening. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Spangler, Mrs. W. O. Starbuck, Mrs. Amos Wilkens, and Mrs. Blewett.

Tula Kinsley is attending the Sigma Chi dance at O. A. C. tonight. She is the guest of Mary Kern.

Mrs. Beach and Mrs. Slocum are visiting their daughters at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

Mrs. W. F. Osburn has issued invitations for a formal dance May 26, at the Hotel Osburn in honor of the present senior class. Several junior men also received invitations.

Katherine De Voe, Margaret McKim and Sophie Hunter are spending the week-end at Roseburg, attending the Strawberry festival.

In honor of Babe Cochran's birthday, Chi Omega entertained at dinner Thursday. The guests were Miss Jane Caples, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. F. B. Dunn and Amy Dunn.

Dan Robinson and Forest Watson are spending the week-end in Portland. The latter played in the annual golf tournament between Tacoma and Portland held in Portland today.

Miss Winnifred Bouthit of The Dalles is the guest of Eulalie Crosby at the Chi Omega house.

Kappa Alpha Theta entertained at dinner Thursday for Miss Adelaide Clark of Marshfield, and the Misses Mary Kruse and Era Godfrey.

Margaret Mahoney spent Junior Week-end with her sister at the Chi Omega house.

The juniors of Phi Gamma Delta entertained at dinner at the chapter house Friday.

Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Benson were entertained at dinner Thursday by Gamma Phi Beta.

Frank Sciefe, Joe Bell and Nick Jaureguy entertained at dinner at the Osburn Thursday night.

Attending an alumni meeting of Sigma Nu at the local chapter house are Elmer Paine, Dean Hayes, L. L. Goodrich, N. S. Robb and Paul Willoughby.

Frances Frater and Leta Rhodes are spending the week-end at Riddle.

Helen Hair is at Independence where she is the guest of Dorothy Childs.

Mary Warwick and Margaret Rogers are spending the week-end at their homes.

Miss Staughten of Salem is the guest of Mrs. Grey at the Chi Omega house.

Harold Newton was a dinner guest of Beta Theta Pi Thursday.

Luncheon guests at the Alpha Phi house Saturday were Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Matson.

GRADS AT BARRACKS

Lawrence Dinneen and Harry Kuck in Company L.

A letter was recently received by Dean Eric Allen, of the journalism department from Lawrence Dinneen, a graduate who has enlisted in the army. Mr. Dinneen was city editor of the La Grande Observer until the time of his enlistment. He is now company clerk and orderly to the captain in Company L, at Vancouver Barracks. Mr. Dinneen writes:

"I do not like the idea of taking the life of my fellow-men, but I did what I deemed the duty of every citizen who has no one dependent upon him."

Other graduates that are in the regiment with Mr. Dinneen are Carl Fenton, corporal; Harry Kuck, stenographer at the regimental head-quarters; Esley Farley, corporal; and Laird Woods in the quarter-master's department.

HANK FOSTER STAR IN TRACK EVENTS

Freshmen High Point Winners in Saturday's Meet; Get Nine First Places.

Scott Springs Surprise in Mile; Company Two Totals 80 Points.

Running true to form, the second company easily won the inter-company track meet last Saturday with a total of 80 points. The others finished in the following order: Company Three, 58; Company One, 43; Company S.A., 37; Company Four, 31; Company Five, 6.

Individual honors went to Hank Foster, late of John Day high school, who amassed 28 points with first places in the 50, 75, 100 and 180 yard dashes and the 180 yard low hurdles, besides a third place in the broad jump. Bill Hayward was all smiles as his young freshman star took one race after the other. Foster is the first natural sprinter Bill has had since the days of Oliver Huston and, provided conditions are normal next year, he will make the conference fans sit up and take notice. Foster won a gold medal for the day's work.

Besides Foster, three other freshmen broke into the calcium. Fremont Hodson, although out of condition, ran a thrilling 440 in the fast time of 53 flat. He collapsed at the line but managed to drag himself across for five points. Hodson also finished second in the century broad jump. In the 880 he took it easy and grabbed one point.

"Dubs" Mulkey tied with Pete Jensen for second high point-winner by taking the broad jump and javelin throw and getting places in all the sprints—21 points in all. Carl Knudson ran away with the hurdles and nabbed second in the lows. Third places in the pole vault and high jump gave him some 15 markers. Verily, it was a great day for the class of 1920. Out of the 15 events, nine first places were won by its members.

Pete Jensen deserves credit for his consistent work. The high jump was his at 5 feet 4 1/2 inches—not much of a jump but good enough for a man not in training. He and Ernie Watkins both cleared the pole vault at 10 feet six inches and as both were in the same company they did not jump off the tie. Pete took second in the javelin, third in the high hurdles, fourth in the shot put and fifth in the discus.

The big surprise of the day came in the mile run when Randall Scott, after dogging Case's footsteps for three laps and a half suddenly uncovered a burst of speed that shot him across the line fifteen yards to the good. His time was five flat. Scott was not considered a look-in by the wisecracks.

The 880 started out at a two-mile pace, none of the runners seeming willing to take any chances by opening up. Around they went closely bunched until the home stretch. Then in a pretty race to the tape Don Belding barely nosed out Jack Montague. Two minutes and thirty seconds was the official time.

The discus shot put went to Bartlett and Furney respectively as was expected. Nobody pressed them to any extent in either event.

Company Two, with eight good 220 men, cleaned up on the four men half mile relay and eight men mile relay with ease. Company One walked away with the four men mile relay.

PRESS NOTICE

William Farnum, who stars in his fifteenth William Fox production, "The Price of Silence," is the veteran of almost forty-two miles of film. These figures are astounding, but here's proof:

Each of the photoplays in which Farnum has appeared as a William Fox star has been a five-reeler. There are 1000 feet of film in a reel. This would make 75,000 feet of celluloid for the fifteen
