

BEZDEK WANTS MEN; OFFERS CHANCE TO ALL

EVERYONE WEIGHING OVER 140 EXPECTED OUT, ONLY 20 RECRUITS ON FIELD THUS FAR

SHY HUNTINGTON NOT TO COME BACK

Doubtful if a Single Old Letter Man Will Appear This Season—Recruits Show Snap

With the first week of football practice history, Coach Hugo Bezdek turned his attention last night to signal practice and to working out plays for the Multnomah game, now but four days distant. In one short week, the coach has drilled the rudiments of the game into the twenty-odd inexperienced but willing players who have volunteered to work for the lemon-yellow.

Scrimmage was held for the first time Saturday afternoon before a good-sized crowd of fans. The session developed one fact—that Oregon will be represented by a scrappy team. The 'varsity fought like tigers all through the 60-minute period. Three times touchdowns were recorded against the second team in two 15-minute quarters. "Chief" Wilson accounted for two of the markers, and Bill Steers plunged across for the other. Bill also executed a brace of perfect drop-kicks, one from the 30-yard line.

Fresh Are Stubborn.
The frosh offered more stubborn resistance and even managed to score when Perkins scooped up a fumbled ball and raced over the line. One touchdown and a drop-kick—both by Bill Steers—finished the scoring for the afternoon.

The 'varsity appeared to better advantage on defense than when they had the ball. Time and again Bas Williams or Arthur Berg would break up plays before they got to the line. Little yardage was gained around the 'varsity ends, and more often Anderson or Wilson would nail his man for a loss. The work of the backfield was rather ragged, and much fumbling was done.

Steers' Punting Is Good.
For the most part, only plays of the simplest order were attempted. Only two forward passes succeeded, and the same number were intercepted. Bill Steers' punting was up to his usual standard.

Hope that Shy Huntington might return was shattered yesterday, when definite word was received from the premier quarterback that under no condition would he be able to come back. Pete Jensen's case remains in

CAN'T ARREST DR. SUN YAT SEN, ASSERTS OREGON CHINESE STUDENT

Tao Sun Says His Chief is Too Strong to be Haled into Court; Not Worried Over Situation.

The publication of a dispatch from Peking, China, announcing that President Kwo-chang has ordered the arrest and punishment of Dr. Sun Yat Sen carries no fear to Tao Sun for his pocket book.

"They can't do that," said Sun when shown the dispatch. "Once they attempted to punish Dr. Sun Yat Sen and the rulers lost control to him. Again they tried to arrest him, but the ruler lost his life. Dr. Sun Yat Sen is in control of southern China and is too strong a man to be haled into court by Kwo-chang.

"I think that my expense money to continue at the University will keep coming right along until I finish my course in political economy next fall. Then I will go back and help Dr. Sun Yat Sen. He is a good man for China."

Sun came to the University this fall to complete his education before returning to China. He has been studying for nine years in Japan and in America at the direction of Dr. Sun Yat Sen.

DRILL STILL LACKS TRAINER

ANSWER NOT HERE FROM LIEUTENANT-COLONEL LEADER.

Rushed Condition of British War Office Thought to be Cause of Delay.

Selection of an officer to conduct military drill at the University is as yet undecided. President Campbell is still attempting to obtain Lieutenant-Colonel John Leader, of the British army, a veteran of three wars and of many campaigns in the present war. No word has been received from the British war office as to whether Lieutenant-Colonel Leader can be detailed here. Colonel Leader himself is anxious to come and the delay is probably due to the fact that the war office is rushed with more important matters.

A cable was sent yesterday for a definite answer, but several days must elapse before an answer can be received, on account of the difficulty in sending cablegrams to England at this time.

In case of Colonel Leader's inability to come, President Campbell has several capable American and Canadian officers in mind for the position.

MISS PECK TO SPEAK ON TRADE CONDITIONS

WILL LECTURE ON "THE PROSPECTS AND POSSIBILITIES OF SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE"

Evening Subject to be "The Conquest of Huascarán," Open to the Student Body.

Miss Annie S. Peck, world-famous mountain climber, author and lecturer, has been secured to speak before the students of the University on Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday evening of this week. The lecture on Wednesday evening will be given in Villard Hall, under the auspices of the Woman's League. Her subject will be "The Conquest of Huascarán." It will be illustrated. Miss Peck is the only woman who ever climbed Huascarán, which is the highest point on the American continent (21,812 feet), yet attained by any American, North or South. Her lecture also will include an account of the partial ascent of Mt. Sorata and other explorations.

Famed As Explorer.

Miss Peck has won world-wide fame as a mountain climber and explorer and recently has returned from her sixth visit to South America. She is pronounced by experts of both America and Europe as having a fund of the most accurate and instructive information on South America yet presented before the North American public. In her recent ten months' tour of South America she lectured in Spanish and Portuguese to commercial bodies and general audiences in all the leading commercial centers, receiving much consideration from South American officials and highly appreciative notices from the press.

To Aid Woman's League

Her Wednesday evening lecture will be open to the entire student body and to the general public as well, and an admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged, the proceeds to assist the Woman's League in its work.

On Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock Miss Peck will speak before the class in Industrial and Commercial Service, and Dr. W. D. Smith's class in geology, in Villard hall. Her subject will be "The Prospects and Possibilities of South American Trade." This lecture also will be illustrated. It will be open to all students of the University and to members of the faculty, and admission will be free. Arrangements have been made for all students of the school of commerce to attend.

In her mountain-climbing expedition to South America Miss Peck has made a close study of the trade possibilities in the southern republics and has acquired a valuable fund of information on those subjects.

ASSEMBLY SPEAKER IS Y. M. C. A. WORKER

WELLINGTON H. TINKER WILL TALK ON WORK THE ASSOCIATION IS DOING IN THE ARMY

RESOLUTIONS ALSO TO BE GIVEN

Condolences at Death of Mrs. Wm. S. Hayward, Mrs. Grace Granger, and Kenneth Kellems.

"The Army Y. M. C. A. at home and abroad," is the subject announced by Wellington H. Tinker, for his talk at tomorrow's student body meeting. Other attractions will be talks by President Campbell, Coach Bezdek, William Hayward, a report of the hour set for military drill, a letter from Mrs. Henry Villard, and reports from the various committees of the student body.

Tinker Prominent.

Wellington H. Tinker, at one time general secretary of the University of Michigan, and now one of the staff of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., will tell what his committee is doing for the boys at the front, and in the various training camps. While in Eugene, he will be the guest of the Beta Theta Pi, and much of his time will be given to personal interviews.

Harry Crain will give a report of the decision of the student council upon the hour set for military drill.

President Campbell will read a letter from Mrs. Henry Villard, afterwards introducing Mr. Tinker.

Resolutions Come Up.

Three resolutions of condolence will be introduced, to give the students opportunity for expressing their grief at the deaths this summer of Mrs. Wm. L. Hayward, Mrs. Grace Granger, and Kenneth Kellems, all well known around the University. The resolutions will be introduced by Harold Tregilgas, Kenneth Moores and Wm. Haseltine respectively.

A report by Lynn McCready, chairman of the standing committee of student body dances, and a short talk by Helene DeLano, president of the Woman's League, will complete the meeting, after a few selections by the University band have been given.

DEAN WALKER'S FRESHMAN ELEVEN IS ROUNDING RAPIDLY INTO FORM

Players Working Harder than Ever; Schedule Soon to be Announced by Manager Tiffany.

With the signing of Dean Walker as coach of the freshman football eleven, things begin to look brighter in the "frosh" camp and the prospect of a winning team looks less like a dream with every practice.

Walker is always ready and willing to work, and he makes the fellows believe they have the only real team in the state. It is hardly possible that a team equal to the one last year can be turned out, but from watching them at practice it seems that there is more real work and less "sluffing" on the job than for several seasons. The "frosh" line looks good, and while the backfield is somewhat slow, this can be remedied in time. The backfield is light and will have to develop a great deal of speed to hold its own against the gang from O. A. C.

According to Graduate Manager Tiffany, the proposed freshman schedule will be one of the stiffest the "frosh" have enjoyed for several years. As several of the dates are still hanging fire, Tiffany was loathe to give out the schedule at this early date, but promised to release it in time for the next Emerald.

"Bill" Hayward has little to say in favor of the infant eleven, summing up his whole opinion in "the rottenest bunch of football players I have ever seen."

Despite the unkind words of "Bill," Walker says he will produce a team that will "knock 'em dead."

CLASSES ARE STARTED IN EXTENSION FIELD

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT OPENING IN PORTLAND AUGURS WELL FOR DEPARTMENT THIS YEAR

SCHEDULE OF COURSES IS ANNOUNCED

Many Professors Will Give Work Away from Campus During Coming Semester.

Classes in the University of Oregon extension division were opened last Friday and Saturday at the public library in Portland. A large attendance was noted in all the classes, especially in Prof. George Rebec's classes, and the botany class of Prof. A. R. Sweetser. Prof. Sweetser, who is offering laboratory work in connection with his course in botany, had an attendance of over forty in his opening class last Saturday, where he had made arrangements for but fifteen. Exact enrollment figures cannot be compiled until next week, but present indications point to a record enrollment and also a large attendance at lectures.

Classes Meet in Library.

The extension division offers several new courses to students this fall. All classes are held in the public library at Portland unless announced differently, and are held weekly unless designated otherwise.

The complete program of courses follows:

"Philosophy of History," Prof. Rebec, Friday at 8. "European Drama," Mrs. M. H. Parsons, Tuesday at 7:15. Philosophical Seminar, Prof. Rebec, Saturday at 8. "Child Development," Mr. B. W. DeBusk, Friday at 8. "Biology of the Bird," Dr. J. F. Bovard, Friday at 8. "Botany," Prof. Sweetser, Saturday, 9 to 12. "Recent European History," Prof. J. P. O'Hara, Saturday at 8. "Law of Contracts," Dr. E. W. Hope, Friday at 7 at Court House. "Elementary Music," Mr. W. H. Boyer, Saturday at 10, at Tilford building. "Teaching of Advanced Music," Mr. Boyer, Saturday at 11 at Tilford building.

"Descriptive Geometry" (1a), Prof. P. P. Adams, 6:15 on Friday; "Descriptive Geometry" (1b), Prof. Adams, Saturday at 1:15. "Descriptive

NEW COURSE IN MILITARY TRAINING GIVEN BY PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Fitness of Men for Special Work in Army Service Will be Determined by Examination.

A new type of training for national service is being offered by the University this fall in a course given by the psychology department, designed to prepare students for the psychological examination of enlisted men.

The course will train students to scientifically determine the fitness of men for the various special lines of army service, such as aviation, gunnery, or clerical work. The instruction is being given by the University under the direction of Surgeon General Gorgas, and according to Dr. Edmund S. Conklin, the course gives a training for which there is a great demand at this time.

Dr. R. H. Wheeler, formerly an instructor in psychology in the University, has already been called into the service as psychological examiner and is now stationed at Ayer, Massachusetts.

ORDNANCE COURSE POPULAR

Prof. C. C. Jeremiah, instructor in ordnance accounting, now being given at the University by the School of Commerce in co-operation with the War Department, has 63 applications for the second class, which will open about the middle of November. He expects his present class to complete its work by that time so that the men may enlist in the government service and be assigned to duties at the various arsenals throughout the country.

GLEE CLUB TRYOUT DAYS FIXED

FIRST TEST FOR MEN AND WOMEN AT 5 O'CLOCK WED.

Mrs. Daise Beckett Middleton and Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote to Meet Prospects in Music Hall.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED FOR EVENT

List of Amusements Includes Girls' Parade, Cap Rush, Decorating of Grandstand.

Tryouts for both men's and girls' glee clubs will begin Wednesday at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Daise Beckett Middleton, director of the Girls' Glee Club, will meet the girls in the order of their arrival in her studio in Music hall. Arthur Faguy-Cote, who will be in charge of the Men's Glee Club, announces a series of three tryouts the first to be held tomorrow at 5 o'clock in his studio. In the remaining two tryouts, to be given on Thursday and Friday at five, Mr. Cote will meet the men whom he will be unable to see tomorrow.

There are several vacancies in both glee clubs, and this will give a good opportunity for new material. Men have an excellent chance this year, according to Dr. J. J. Landsbury, dean of the school of music, because of the enlistment of many of the old club members.

DRAMA CLASSES MAY ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS

PROFESSOR REDDIE PLANS TO TAKE CASTS TO VANCOUVER, FORT STEVENS AND CAMP LEWIS

Rehearsals Begun for "The Straggler"—Reddie and J. F. Thorne Authors of Plays.

Entertainment for enlisted men at Vancouver, Fort Stevens, and possibly Camp Lewis, near Tacoma, is likely to be the main object of the outside trips to be taken by University students of dramatics this year.

Tentative plans have been made for a trip to Portland and Vancouver for the latter part of October or the first of November, and Professor Reddie is considering a second trip to show University plays at Portland, Vancouver, Astoria, Fort Stevens and Seaside. The latter trip, if successfully arranged, will be taken during Thanksgiving vacation. "Like Falling Leaves," one of the best modern examples of the Italian problem play, has been selected for presentation on the campus November 22 and 23, and will be used on the proposed trip Thanksgiving vacation.

While arrangements have not yet been completed for the first trip to Portland, it is practically certain that casts for three one-act plays will make the trip about November 1. In case the trip is made, it is probable, according to Professor Reddie, that an afternoon matinee will be given at the Little Theater in Portland and an evening performance at the barracks at Vancouver, where several thousand soldiers are stationed.

Of the three plays which will be presented on the campus, October 25 and 26, and later on the trip to Portland and Vancouver, "The Friend of Man" was written by J. Frederick Thorne, and "Sayonara," a Japanese play, the name of which means "If it must be so," was written by Professor Reddie several years ago. The third play, "The Straggler," is based on events of the Napoleonic wars. Rehearsals for it began Monday.

COLLINS EDITS "REAL STUFF"

"Gleams Through the Mist," which for the past couple of years have illuminated the editorial page of the Portland Oregonian, have faded, and their author, Dean Collins, Oregon '10, has stepped into another field. Under the title "Real Stuff," Collins is no longer a trade advertising journal for the Film Supply Co., of Portland, Seattle and Spokane, the first number of which has just appeared. The paper is a four-page weekly, devoted to the film industry in the Pacific Northwest, and brims with Dean's typical humor.

BIG UNDERCLASS MIX IS SET FOR SATURDAY

NOT TO BE GIVEN UP, BUT DEAN STRAUB URGES FROSH AND SOPHOS TO OBSERVE ECONOMY.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED FOR EVENT

List of Amusements Includes Girls' Parade, Cap Rush, Decorating of Grandstand.

Rumors to the effect that the annual underclass mix would not be held this year so entirely unfounded, according to Dean Straub, adviser of the freshman class. "The mix will be held as usual, but I will urge both classes to economize as much as possible," he said.

Harold Grey, general chairman of the committee, has set the date of the mix at 1:00 o'clock next Saturday, October 13. The mix will precede the Multnomah game, and, according to Grey, will be the largest and best ever held.

The events of the day this year will include the decorating of the grandstand by the two classes, feature parade of girls, the cap rush, sandbag contest, and, if it is possible to get a ball for the occasion, a pushball contest.

Sophomore Committee Named.

The committee of sophomores to take charge of the grandstand decorating was appointed by President Fowler at a meeting of the class as follows: Girls—Florence Hemenway, Gertrude McCabe, Gretchen Colton, Marjorie Kay, Margaret Mansfield, Brownell Frasier, Ada Martin, and Alice Vander Sluis. Boys—Claire Holdridge, Harold Bardy, Harry Jamison, Si Simola, William Coleman, Morris Morgan, Oliver Gillenborg.

Dick Avison, Herman Lind, Curtis Peterson, Flint Johns and Ed. Padden were appointed a committee on stunts for the day.

Girls appointed to take charge of the girls' parade were Ezle Fitzmaurice, Anna Lee Miller, Grace Hamerstrom, Era Godfrey, Margaret McKim, Gene Geisler, Helen Case, Irva Smith. The committee on judging will consist of Bill Hayward, Jimmy Sheehy, Charles Dundore, Cora Hosford and Kate Shaeffer.

Juniors Urged to be Early.

The junior men are urged to be on hand early in their corduroys, and the seniors with their stars and other necessary equipment to maintain order and guarantee both lower classes a square deal.

The general committee of juniors in charge of the annual event are Harold Grey, chairman, Nellis Hamlin, Thurston Laraway, Dwight Wilson, George Cook and Bob McNary.

NEW HOME FOR SPANISH CLASSES IS MADE IN EDUCATION BUILDING

Room in Commerce Building Found Inadequate; Prof. J. Harthan De Fell Begins Extension Classes.

On account of the increasing popularity of the Spanish courses given by Prof. J. Harthan DeFell, the quarters originally assigned for these classes in the Commerce building have been found inadequate and arrangements have been made to accommodate them in the new Education building.

The possibility of developing trade relations between the United States and South American countries, where Spanish is the accepted language, together with Professor DeFell's happy manner of presenting his subject, is credited with having attracted an unusually large number of students to the Spanish classes this year.

Professor DeFell was in Portland last Friday and Saturday and opened two extension classes in Spanish, under the auspices of the University Extension service. One class is in elementary Spanish and the other in advanced Spanish. Both promise to become popular and to attract a large number of students, says Professor DeFell.
