

PATRIOTIC CO-EDS REFUSE HEARING TO SUFFRAGE RADICALS

MILITANTS ATTEMPT TO FORCE AN AUDIENCE UPON OREGON FRATERNITY SISTERS.

COURTESY EXTENDED BY "U" WOMEN VIOLATED

Kappa and Pi Phi Girls Resent Effort to Convert Dinner Into Woman's Party Meeting.

Taking advantage of a fraternal courtesy extended them by the local chapters of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi, of which national organizations they are members, Miss Anne Martin and Miss Calderhead, who were refused a hearing by the loyal women of Eugene, last night attempted to convert a social dinner at which they were guests at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house in to a Woman's party meeting and were repudiated by the women of the two fraternities.

Miss Martin and Miss Calderhead, both members of the radical element of the Woman's party who have been attempting to force President Wilson into supporting the national suffrage amendment by methods condemned throughout the country, arrived in Eugene several days ago and attempted to hold a meeting among the women of the city. Not only did the women refuse to meet with them, but also they were denied the use of the Hotel Osburn and other places where they wished to hold meetings.

Took Mean Advantage.

Miss Martin is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma and Miss Calderhead of the Pi Beta Phi. As a matter of fraternal courtesy they were asked as dinner guests at the Kappa house last evening and arrangements were made to have the Pi Beta Phi girls join the group in a social way following the dinner. According to members of the two fraternities the girls understood that the meeting was to be purely a social one and that political questions were not to be brought up. When granted a hearing Miss Martin at once launched into a discussion of the topic which the girls looked upon as taboo.

She urged that the fight which the militants have been carrying on in Washington for immediate passage of the national suffrage amendment be carried on even though it may hinder in the prosecution of the war. She said that it is necessary that the amendment be passed at once and condemned President Wilson for his refusal to recognize the militants who have been staging demonstrations in Washington attacking the president.

Women Leave Room.

Most of the women left the room when Miss Martin's remarks began to border upon the unpatriotic, but others remained to remonstrate with her. Her request to turn the gathering into a woman's party meeting was denied and when she offered to read a resolution calling upon President Wilson to urge the immediate passage of the suffrage amendment she was hissed down. Not for a moment would tudents in the ordnance class who are now completing their course of instruction in the School of Commerce will be on their way to the Government Arsenal at San Antonio, Texas, by November 12. This positive assurance has just been received by Prof. C. C. Jeremiah, director of the ordnance stores course, in a telegram from the War Department at Washington.

ORDERED TO SAN ANTONIO

ORDNANCE STUDENTS SOON TO GO TO GOVERNMENT ARSENAL

Prof. Jeremiah is authorized to enlist the men individually as fast as they complete their work, as each man will entrain for San Antonio immediately following his enlistment. The War Department considers it inadvisable to enlist the men in a body.

This means that as soon as the class returns to the campus from its visit to the industrial plants at Portland on November 5, 6, and 7, they will take their final examinations and be mustered into the federal service. Prof. Jeremiah believes that the details of examinations and mustering in can be completed by Saturday, November 10, so that the entire class of 50 men who have been recruited from various parts of the Pacific coast will become a unit of the national defense service at the earliest moment.

Classmates Submerge a Frosh Member.

Paint Appears on Campus, But the Freshmen Appear Soon and Green Marks Vanish

Halloween and the goblin spirit got the best of some freshmen last night if the signs of activity on the campus this morning between 12:30 and three o'clock can be taken as an indication. The evening's program ran something like this:

2 p. m.—Paint makes its appearance on the library steps, the senior bench, the fence about Kincaid field and several of the sidewalks leading to the University.

11 p. m.—The frosh vigilance committee meets on Kincaid field.

11:01 p. m.—The paint is discovered. 12:30 a. m.—"Prexy" Hammersley, under the watchful eye of a half dozen frosh, washes the senior bench free from stain.

1:00 a. m.—"Sig" Rosenberg gets some more hot water.

2:00 a. m.—Justice (Blindfolded, as usual) holds court in Kincaid field.

2:58 a. m.—Neptune receives his offerings at his shrine back of the Kappa Sig house.

"We were bound that we would beat 'em to it," said one of the frosh at the close of the program. "The seniors protect us so why shouldn't we protect their bench?"

The climax to the morning's celebrations came when a member of the vigilance committee was taken in hand and first ducked then hot-handed just as the third hour of today was striking.

Today and for several days to come, Rollin Woodruff will eat from the Delt mantle.

HAYWARD WANTS MEN

ONLY FOUR CANDIDATES APPEAR FOR CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

U. to Meet O. A. C. Before Football Game Thanksgiving Day in Portland; Not One Veteran From Last Year's Team in College

"What I need is more men to work with," said Bill Hayward last night in speaking of the cross-country team. "So far only four or five eligible men have been turning out regularly, so I have no way of telling how we stand."

The annual O. A. C.-Oregon meet will be held this year in Portland just prior to the football game between these two schools on Thanksgiving Day. Instead of using merely four men as in former years either six or ten will be entered from each school, thus making the event one of much greater competition between the institutions, as well as between the individuals entered.

Last year, much to the surprise of everyone, Oregon tied the Aggies in Corvallis. However, not a single man who entered that meet is in school this year, so consequently Hayward had to develop a team from all new material. There is a chance for anyone above freshman standing to represent the University in this meet and every man who ever used a pair of track shoes is urged to turn out at once.

The schedule has not been arranged as yet but according to Hayward no varsity games will be held until after the Christmas holidays.

GIRLS' BAND TRYOUT SET

Will Contest Saturday; First Practice Monday in Villard

With practically enough girls signed up, tryouts for the University women's band are expected to be held next Saturday and the initial practice will probably be held in Villard hall Monday night, according to Albert Perfect, band director in the school of music.

Already twenty instruments have been promised, but ten or more are needed, Mr. Perfect said, so if any students can secure them from their home towns they are asked to do so.

CANOEING RECORD IS MADE

Gretchen Colton and Helen Case Do Mile and a Half in 13 Minutes

The canoeing record was broken the other day when Gretchen Colton and Helen Case got at the paddles. They covered the canoeing course which is over one and a half miles long in thirteen minutes. The fastest record previously made was seventeen minutes. This record was made at the inter-class race which is held annually in the Spring.

COMMITTEE GATHERS BOOKS FOR ARMY

FRED PACKWOOD IS CHAIRMAN OF GROUP APPOINTED TO COLLECT TEXTS FOR MEN IN THE U. S. ARMY CAMPS

Portland Public Library Co-operates With University by Forwarding Reading Matter to Men

Books for the members of the United States army now encamped throughout the country are being collected on the campus by a committee composed of Fred Packwood, chairman, Herman Lind and Jesse Witty and will be forwarded to the camps through the Portland public library. Mr. Packwood has arranged to have a box installed in the University library in which books may be placed at any time.

"Our quota is 1000 books," said Mr. Packwood today. "That means that each of us will have to give about three books. This is a comparatively small number as far as the individual is concerned if each one will take the matter seriously."

Mr. Packwood plans a house to house canvass among the sororities and fraternities, and would like volunteers to handle the collection of books from the town students. The collection of books must be given immediate attention, said Packwood, else the studies of the men will be delayed until they are ordered into active service.

Miss Isom, of the Portland public library, has written the following letter describing the nature of the books desired:

"Send the textbooks directly to us so that they can be sorted and shipped on call. The men at the camps have now got to the point where they send us orders for so many trigonometries, algebras, etc., they do not care for a miscellaneous box of texts. A large number of certain textbooks is still needed—algebras, trigonometries, geometries, arithmetics, Gregg shorthand, books on typewriting, spellers, modern histories, practical English, elementary French and Spanish. Do not send us any Latin books, I am having to throw out so many. Neither do they ask for physiology nor any of the sciences.

"I wish you would tell the students how much the books are appreciated. I had an interview with Dr. Coleman the

BASKETBALL IS BEGUN

OLD PLAYERS OUT FOR WORK BEFORE OFFICIAL CALL

Hayward to Take Bezdek's Place as Coach; Last Year's Men Have Charge Till Close of Football Season.

Although the official call for basketball has not been sounded as yet by Coach Bill Hayward, many members of last year's varsity and frosh squads are turning out regularly, getting into condition for the coming season, which will begin immediately after the conclusion of the football season. Every afternoon for the past week from eight to ten men have been shooting baskets and passing in the gymnasium and conditions are very favorable for a good team.

As Bezdek is going to leave as soon as football is over, Hayward has been appointed to succeed him in basketball. Bill has had considerable experience in that line, in that he has coached the freshman teams regularly while Bezdek took full charge of the varsity. Some of last year's men are taking charge of the practice until Hayward will be relieved of his duties with the football squad, which will be immediately after Thanksgiving Day.

"We are going to win and to wipe out last year's defeats," Hayward declared today. "We have the material, and with an early start we should be able to put a winner on the floor."

In order that all men will be given a chance, four baskets will be set up in the drill shed next to the gymnasium to take care of the overflow on the main floor. The frosh squad will be accommodated here thus leaving the gymnasium proper to varsity candidates only.

Among those who have been turning out this week are Jay Fox, of last year's varsity, and Ned Fowler, Ernie Boylen, Lee Waldron and Carl Knudsen of the frosh team of last year. Others who ought to bid well for positions on the team are Carl Nelson, Walter Grebe, Lynn McCready and Dow Wilson, all of whom are experienced men.

PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN FOR HOMECOMING ON

SLOGAN OF COMMITTEE IS "HELP US 'SKIN THE GOLDEN BEAR' ON NOVEMBER 17"

1300 Former Students Are Urged to Return to Campus For the California Game and Big Celebration

"We are counting on you to come back to 'Old Oregon' for our annual Homecoming Day—Saturday, November 17. Bezdek's Varsity meets the veteran California eleven on Kincaid Field—help us skin the Golden Bear."

Come back and renew old acquaintances—come back and join us with a big "Oskie-Wow-Wow." We will guarantee you a lively time—big Campus Luncheon and Homecoming Ball in the big downtown Armory—both free to Oregon grads.

Oregon needs you—you can't afford to miss the Oregon-California game. Bigger—better—busier—Saturday—Annual Homecoming—November 17.

1300 Alumni Are Invited

This plea from the Alma Mater to her children was printed on postals and mailed yesterday to 1300 former Oregon students in the United States, including both graduate and under-graduate alumni. Besides these invitations, 1000 Oregon stickers are to be circulated, and the publicity committee urges every student to write to members of the "old guard" and use the miniature postals freely. The Portland Alumni association is making efforts to gain from Oregon camps permission for University men now in training to visit the campus November 17. The fraternities seem hopeful that many of the men now in the service may be present.

Marie Badura, head of the dance committee, has named the following as patrons and patronesses: Governor and Mrs. James Withycombe, President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, C. O. Peterson, mayor of Eugene, Frank Jenkins, president of Eugene Chamber of Commerce, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Stafford, Judge and Mrs. E. O. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bean, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Piper, Dr. John Landbury, Ada Hall and Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Bates.

Music for the dance will be furnished by Henderschott's 12-piece orchestra, and probably musical selections by the combined glee clubs.

Decorations will be made in the Oregon colors, but will be used only on the stage and for the punch booth.

Campus Luncheon Planned

"A real feed" is what Helene Delano, president of Women's League, wants the campus luncheon to be. The men's gymnasium will be the location of a regular cafeteria, say the members of the committee.

Housing of the guests is in charge of a committee headed by Paul Spangler, who says that each one will be properly taken care of.

Hearty co-operation is promised the University by downtown merchants, who are planning special Oregon windows with "lemon-yellow" greatly in evidence.

WAY TO CAMP BLOCKED

3RD OFFICERS' RESERVE CORPS NOT OPEN TO OREGON MEN.

Graduates of the University of Oregon apparently are not going to be admitted to the Third Officers' Reserve Training camps on the same basis as to the two previous camps. This would appear from the fact that to date the University has not been included in the list of those colleges and universities whose graduates are to be recommended for admission to the next camp.

It was at first announced that only men already in the federal service would be admitted this time. Later this was changed to include graduates of military colleges of repute and to a few universities which recently installed military instruction. Notable among these being Harvard and Princeton.

Application was made by the University for consideration when this list was being made up but apparently nothing has been done toward this end, for no notice has been received here of the naming of the University as one of the favored ones.

The plea for a place on the list was based on the fact that graduates made good at the other two camps and it should naturally follow that they would at this next series of camps.

Liberty Bond Speech Is Changed.

Prof. F. S. Dunn and George McMorran Find Their Audience Ready For W. C. T. U.

Nobody at Irving knew that Professor F. S. Dunn, of the University, and George McMorran, Eugene business man, were to deliver an address on Liberty Bonds last Friday when they stepped off the train at Irving and asked for direction to the "bond meeting." Both had carefully prepared speeches on Liberty bonds but inquiry at the depot revealed that there was no bond meeting.

Something was wrong and Professor Dunn and Mr. McMorran investigated further, it became known today.

One citizen was finally found on the street who told that the only meeting of the day in Irving was then being held at the schoolhouse. It was in the memory of Frances Willard, he said. He said that two Eugene men were scheduled to speak.

"Who was Frances Willard" asked Mr. McMorran.

Both later appeared on the speaker's platform at the memorial meeting but the details of their addresses were not given out in Eugene until yesterday. Mr. McMorran's remarks on the life of the W. C. T. U. founder were necessarily extemporaneous except for the patriotic touch given to the address through a mention of the Liberty bonds and Liberty bond week.

PROMINENT MEN WILL SPEAK AT ASSEMBLIES

PRESIDENT OF REED COLLEGE TO GIVE ILLUSTRATED TALK ON WAR NOV. 14

Senator McNary, Dr. O. H. Richardson, F. D. Kershner, Will Address Students in Near Future; Morgenthau May Come

The schedule for assembly and programs for the rest of the term is now ready.

"We are trying to get men of prominence to speak at assembly this term," said Karl Onthank, secretary to President Campbell, yesterday, "and I think we have succeeded."

The assembly next Wednesday will be devoted to a campaign to raise the Y. M. C. A. army relief fund. The speakers have not been announced.

President William T. Foster, of Reed College, will speak November 14 on his experiences during his recent trip to France, and will give the reason for his changed attitude toward war. His talk will be illustrated with slides.

Senator Charles L. McNary is scheduled for November 21. The next week Dr. Oliver H. Richardson, professor of

MARINES PROMISED STRUGGLE FOR MONEY

BEZDEK SAYS BECKETT AND HIS COHORTS WILL DO MOST OF THE RUNNING

Coach Has No Experienced Men; Baz Was Play Breaker and Ball Carrier at the Same Time

(By William A. Haseltine)

No South Sea soothsayer is needed to tell who will win when Oregon bucks up against the Mare Island Marines on Multnomah field in Portland next Saturday. A glance at the sailors' lineup is sufficient to silence the most rabid Oregon enthusiast, but in spite of the fact that Oregon is out-doped from every angle, a quiet confidence is pervading the team that they will give the much-vaunted Marines a run for their money.

From what Coach Bezdek says, the running will be all on the part of Johnny Beckett and his cohorts.

"They can make the score anything they want to," said Bez. "There isn't a spot on my line they can't hammer for gains and as for offense—there is none."

Baz Williams Leaves Ranks

Baz Williams' departure from the ranks, left the coach without an experienced man in the line. Baz was the best man on the team at breaking up plays and could also take his turn at carrying the ball. Berg, who played guard, during the first part of the season will take his place Saturday.

Glen Macey and "Dot" Medley are both practically recovered from their injuries and may get in the battle also. Bezdek was undecided last night how many men he would take to Portland Friday morning. At least 18 will make the trip and possibly the entire squad. Everybody is assured the trip to the O. A. C. game on Thanksgiving.

Scrimmage Adds Gloom to Varsity

A long session of scrimmage Wednesday in which the freshmen and second team did about as they pleased with the Varsity, added to the gloom that has

House Managers Sign Pledge For Conservation of Food

The pledge card campaign for food conservation closed today when the house managers of the various clubs and fraternal organizations, in response to short talks by the food conservation committee appointed by Chairman Sheehy, signed the following pledge:

"To the Food Administrator: I am glad to join you in the service of food conservation for our nation and I hereby accept membership in the United States Food Administration, pledging myself to carry out the directions and advice of the Food Administrator in my home, insofar as my circumstances permit."

Speakers Address Groups.

A speaker went to each of the houses and spoke briefly during the lunch hour. Emma Wootton spoke at Kappa Kappa Gamma, Chi Omega, and Delta Gamma; Leura Jerard went to Delta Delta Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, and Mary Spiller; Jeanette Calkins addressed Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi and Alpha Phi; George Cook talked to Sigma Chi, Delta Tau Delta, and Phi Delta Theta; Thurston Laraway went to Sigma Nu, Beta Theta Pi, and Alpha Tau Omega; Jimmy Sheehy spoke to Kappa Sigma, Friendly Hall, and Phi Gamma Delta. Each house was given a food administration card to display in its windows.

Co-operation Willing.

The houses are reported by the speakers to be showing a sincere interest in the campaign. Without exception they have reorganized their menus so as to conserve the great staples, wheat, red meat, sugar and fats. "Cutting down on these four articles does not necessarily mean a reduction of house bills," says Jimmy Sheehy, "because substitutes have to be found for them, and the substitutes cost as much as the original article or even more."

Miss Tingle To Aid.

In the matter of substitutes Miss Lillian Tingle, head of the domestic arts department, is working out sets of menus which she will present to the various campus organizations soon. Miss Tingle says that substitutions must be made at random, but must be made with some knowledge of the nutritive values of the foods which we attempt to substitute. In a follow-up campaign Miss Tingle, with the co-operation of Dean Fox, will make talks to the houses in which she will give out some first hand information on foods which can be intelligently substituted for the four staples which we must conserve.

"The food campaign has so far been a great success," said Jeanette Calkins, a member of the food conservation committee. "Some of the houses anticipated the campus campaign and had already signed pledge cards and turned them over to A. C. Dixon, the county food administrator. Everyone was glad to co-operate."
