

OREGON'S VICTORY UPSETS ALL DOPE

Prophets at Sea Trying to Pick Winner of Contest With Aggies at Portland.

BEZDEK SOUNDS WARNING

Coach Urges, "Don't Get Cocky;" Little Data to Give Line on Chances.

When the Oregon team beat California in last Saturday's fray on Kincaid Field, the sport dopsters of the north-west received another setback. The sport prophets of this section of the country were almost unanimous in the opinion that the southern university would down its much lighter and less experienced rival by a good margin, and when Bezdek's warriors downed the Golden Bear, another instance of the uncertainty of the journalists' pastime of picking the winner before-hand, was made history.

As a consequence of the surprise, the forecasters are now in doubt as to the Oregon-Aggie contest in Portland, on Thanksgiving Day. Up till last week the Corvallis institution seemed to have the advantage in that they had held their opponents to much smaller scores than the varsity had, but now the dope is completely upset.

Both Beat Multnomah

At the beginning of the season, Multnomah club of Portland, was downed to the tune of 14 to 7 by the Varsity. A few weeks later, the same aggregation with a great deal more practice held the Aggie eleven, to a 6 to 0 score. Nothing definite was based on these two contests. However, when Pipal's outfit sent the Idaho team home with the short end of a 26 to 6 tally, the forecasters immediately began to pick his team as the favorite for the Thanksgiving classic, for Bezdek's warriors had only been able to score a two-touchdown margin on the eastern institution. On top of this, the Aggie squad were able to hold Dietz's Washington State crew to a 6 to 0 score, whereas this aggregation had downed the smaller Eugene eleven by the tremendous score of 26 to 3. All these things considered, the so-called dopsters began believing that the only thing that would win for the Varsity would be that unconquerable Oregon spirit, which prevailed to such a great extent in last Saturday's classic. Realizing between the two institutions for the last thirteen years, still the writers thought that the O. A. C. eleven had the odds for this game.

Now a Jumble of Scores

Now the entire matter is a jumble of mixed scores. Pipal's men were defeated by the Bear Staters on the California gridiron by a 14 to 3 score. Comprising this battle with that on Kincaid Field last Saturday, seems to give Oregon the advantage for next Thursday. But in taking into account this difference it must be remembered that in that game, the California eleven played upon their native gridiron, and therefore had a great advantage, as compared with their playing on Kincaid Field against Bezdek's fighters.

Reports were received from Corvallis yesterday morning that "Darkhorse" Newman, captain and fullback on the Aggie eleven, will be unable to participate in the fray. Whether or not this is one of Pipal's "bear stories" is uncertain, but it may be taken for granted that every possible regular will be pitted against the Varsity. "Scooty" Dutton, who last year was kept out because of injuries, has been out with the squad during the last few days, and is doing his utmost to get into condition for the contest. No other serious injuries were received by the agriculturists, so the team as a whole will be in good condition.

Varsity Men in Good Shape

As for the Varsity, it may be said that no really serious injuries were sustained in the California game, although several of the men received slight bruises. Dow Wilson has a badly swollen thumb, "Brock" Leslie a rather severe charlie-horse, and "Doc" Medley a sore shoulder, but all three will undoubtedly play in the game. Also, Stan Anderson will be out again in a few days, having recovered from a case of blood poisoning. So taking all things into consideration, a real battle may be expected in Portland, next Thursday. Coach Bezdek held a light workout with his men yesterday afternoon. Signal practice took up most of the time, which was shortened in order that the men might celebrate their own victory by dancing with the other students, in the gymnasium. Bezdek's main watchword for the coming contest is "Don't Get Cocky," and it was with this phase of the situation, that he dealt at length in yesterday's war talk to the men.

Team Surprises Coach

"The boys surely surprised me," he said, "but we must remember that the big battle is yet before us."

A more strenuous practice will be held tomorrow, a scrimmage with the freshmen, behind closed gates, being the main thing. The practice from now on will all be secret in order that an intensive training may be had, and all followers of Bezdek will be prohibited from seeing the men work again until the Thanksgiving Day celebration.

BAND BOYS SEND CARDS

Norman Byrne and Lee Bourne Remember Oregon From Distant Lands.

Although former students of the University are now in distant parts of the country, or even in foreign lands, they cannot forget their alma mater. Mr. Albert Perfect, the director of the University band, recently received cards from former students who played in the University band. One came from Norman Byrne, who is playing with a marine band, now in Peking, China. Another was from Lee M. Bowne, a member of the former 3rd Regiment Oregon band, which until recently was stationed at Lon Island, N. Y. In the same band with Bowne, are Potter, Crowner and Simpson, all being former Oregon students.

ALUMNI COUNCIL MEETS DURING HOMECOMING

Will Send Emeralds to Members of Association in Service, Also to Those Who Pay Dues.

The Oregon Alumni Council held its meeting last Saturday afternoon in Johnson hall with Walter C. Winslow in the chair. After a few minutes of greeting the council was called to order and proceeded to work.

Dean Walker was elected to fill the vacancy existing in the council, succeeding Edward Bailey.

A motion was adopted to the effect that the council arrange to send copies of the Emerald to members of the Alumni who are now in the army, navy or marine service. Mrs. Alice Benson Beach was appointed chairman of a committee to provide a means for raising funds, with which to send the Emeralds. It was also decided to send Emeralds to members of the Alumni who pay up their dues.

Those attending the council meeting were Walter C. Winslow, Mrs. Camille Carroll Bovard, Karl W. Onthank, Mrs. W. T. Harris, Jerry E. Bronaugh, Marion McClain and Norma Hendricks.

The council will hold its next meeting in January.

THE HONORS OF ATROCITY.

The Sultan of Turkey has graciously conferred on the German Kaiser the diamond star of the Ittihar Order, Turkey's highest war decoration, and the Kaiser has decorated the Sultan with the star and chain of the Hohenzollern Order with diamonds.

The honors are even—the hero of the Belgian and Lusitania murders honors and is honored by the hero of Armenian massacres. No one will question the deserving of the honors or the respective fitness of the mutual donors and recipients.

But to the intelligence and conscience of the world a Liberty Loan button, showing that an American citizen has done his or her part in support of our government, is a vastly more honorable decoration than the diamond orders of the Sultan and the Kaiser. It signifies only a simple patriotic duty done; but the diamond orders stand for colossal infamy and murder.

Preparing for a Harvest

As the oats in her hat nodded and trembled they persistently tickled the ear of the man seated next to her. He stood it in silence for some time, then he ostentatiously took a huge pocket-knife out of his pocket and began to sharpen it on the sole of his boot.

"Whatever are you g-going to d-d-do?" cried the girl.
"Oh, don't you worry, Miss!" said the man, testing the edge of the blade on his thumb. "But the next time as them oats gets in my ear there's going to be a harvest."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

VICTORY OF OREGON CELEBRATED IN RALLY

Tremendous Turnout in Villard Graced by Presence of Aggies' Famous Iron Lady.

PEP OVERFLOWS INTO GYM

Big Informal Dance Is Given There in Honor of Surprising Gridiron Triumph.

Following President Campbell, Coach Bezdek was called upon for a speech. He responded by urging all upperclassmen to repeat to the new students the old traditions and fireside stories of the Oregon of the past.

Coach Gives Warning

"I am convinced," Coach Bezdek said, "that it does not take experience to make a football player if the man has the heart, and the mind and the determination to do. Saturday the boys played a game far better than I had expected, but we do not want to be overcome with overconfidence. The Oregon Agricultural College game at Portland, on Thanksgiving is going to be a hard game. The one place we don't want to be beaten, is in Portland."

Good old Bill Hayward was called upon next, and after having given the "famous lady" a few smiles, he turned to the audience and responded with a few well-directed words. Following Bill Hayward, Dean Walker and members of the team, were called upon for short talks. All present responded. Each was given three raps before and after speaking.

Informal Dance Held

After the last man had spoken, President Campbell announced that an informal dance would be held in the gymnasium at 4 p. m. For this announcement, President Campbell was given a mighty ovation of cheers, after which, the rally broke up at Villard.

At 4 p. m. sharp, the rooters once more gathered together, this time at the gymnasium. With the band playing catchy airs, and lively step music, more than 150 couples gave way to two hours of informal dancing. A few minutes before 6, the band struck up "Mighty Oregon," and with the fading of the last notes, came the end of Oregon's rally, which celebrated the victory over California.

A Case of Mistaken Identity

Soldiers have to do their own mending, and the thoughtful war office supplies them with outfits for that purpose.

On the occasion of a recent kit inspection, says the Journal of the American Medical Association, the recruits stood lined up ready for the officer, and the officer had his bad temper all complete. He marched up and down the line, grimly eyeing each man's bundle of needles and soft soap, and then he singled out Private MacTootle as the man who was to receive his attentions.

"Tooth-brush?" he roared.

"Yes, sir."

"Razor?"

"Yes, sir."

"Hold-all?"

"Hm! You're all right, apparently," growled the officer. Then he barked, "Housewife?"

"Oh, very well, thank you," said the recruit, amiably; "how's yours?"

He Lost His Enthusiasm

The worried countenance of the bridegroom disturbed the best man. Tiptoeing up the aisle, he whispered:

"What's the matter, Jock? Hae ye lost the ring?"

"No," blurted out the unhappy Jock, "the ring's safe eno'. But, mon, I've lost ma enthusiasm."
