

TRAINING CAMP RULES OBSERVED IN DRILL

Military Affairs Committee Decides Course Shall Be One in Regular Army Work.

POWER GIVEN COL. BOWEN Commandant to Arrange Classes, Fix Credits and Hours; No Drill Saturday.

Drill at the University will be taken up this term under the rules and regulations of the United States Reserve Officers' training camps.

As the requirements now stand, drill will be done away with on Saturday mornings, but will be taken by all students on all five class days for 36 minutes.

"We are leaving it up to the commandant," said Karl Ontbank, yesterday will be required to take the courses.

"If the Saturday classes are taken up it will be by volunteer students only," he continued. Probably special instruction will be given at this time, but no one will be required to take the courses.

"RATTLE DEM BONES"

Faculty Minstrel Show to Be All-Star Attraction.

Promoter Thacher Will Stage "Uncle Tom's Cabin" With Real Bloodhounds.

A galaxy of the most famous stars among the faculty, have consented to appear in the all-faculty, black-face minstrel show to be staged in Guild hall, the early part of February, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

"I have met with very enthusiastic response from the faculty," said promoter W. F. G. Thacher yesterday. "Not one of those I have approached has refused to join this all-star cast.

The first part of the performance will be a real, old-fashioned minstrel, with four live endmen and a witty inter-locutor. The "line" will be made up of a triple quartet, who will warble old time negro melodies and folk songs.

After the real minstrel part, will come the "olio," made up of skits and specialties. Among the stars to appear will be Arthur Faguy-Cote, John Stark Evans, Mrs. A. Middleton in song and varied numbers; Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mrs. Faguy-Cote, and Mrs. Peter Crockatt, in a pickinny song and dance; Miss Catherine Winslow and Miss Hazel Rader, in a dance number; Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Mrs. J. F. Thorne; Professor Reddie and Dr. E. W. Hope, in an Irish chambermaid burlesque; and Peter Crockatt, in a Harry Lauder imitation.

"Christmas Is Coming;" So Is Colonel Leader.

Latest Report From Commandant Says Santa Will Bring Him.

Ever since the opening of college this fall, there have been rumors that we were to have a British army officer at the University to give us instruction in drill and trench warfare.

First it was "doped out" that Colonel John Leader, retired, of the army of England, would be here by the beginning of college, last October.

Next, he was scheduled to arrive during the month following.

Next, it was reported that he would be here during the Thanksgiving vacation.

Now, he is said to be on the way.

Karl Ontbank, secretary to President Campbell, said yesterday that he had at last received a cable from the colonel, stating that he had been released from service, and will be here as soon as possible.

"He will probably stop in Washington, D. C., on his way across the continent," said Ontbank, "but should be here by the time that the Christmas holidays are over."

"Yes, he should be here."

ALEX PEARSON TO STUDY AVIATION AT BERKELEY

Senior Is One of Four to Pass Exams in Seattle; Received Commission at First Presidio Camp.

Alex Pearson, Jr., a senior, is spending a few days in Eugene, before going to Berkeley, where he will enter the aviation training school. Mr. Pearson received a second lieutenant's commission at the first Presidio training camp, was unassigned, returned to the University and then went to Seattle two weeks ago, to take an examination for work in the aviation department.

He was one of four out of fifteen contestants, to pass the examination. After spending a few days with relatives, in Portland, his home, he will go direct to Berkeley for an eight-week preliminary training in ground work. Then he will spend a month at a flying school, either in San Antonio, or San Diego. After he is able to fly, he will be made a first lieutenant.

Pearson was a chemistry major, doing excellent in science and mathematics.

UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS TO LECTURE IN PORTLAND

Courses on Applied Economics Will Be Given Before Organization of Business Men.

Several members of the University faculty have been invited to deliver a series of lectures now being given under the joint auspices of Reed College and the school of commerce, before the City club, an organization of prominent business men in Portland.

The first part of the course, which now is in progress, is being given by Professor Hudson B. Hastings, of Reed, while the latter part of the course will be given by the University men.

Among those who will speak for the University, on various phases of applied economics are Dr. W. D. Smith, Professor O. F. Stafford, Dean A. P. R. Drucker, H. B. Miller, director of the school of commerce, and W. B. D. Dodson, secretary of the Portland chamber of commerce.

GIRLS PICK CLASS CAPTAINS

Basketball Teams Prepare for Championship Struggle.

The captains of the co-ed basketball teams have been chosen and everything is set for the inter-class games, which are to come off on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, of next week. The captains promise that their respective teams are going to give the others a hard fight, and particularly is this so of the juniors, who hope to have "19" engraved on the Hayward cup for the third time.

The captains of the teams are Grace Rugg, freshmen; Eva Hansen, sophomore; Hazel Rankin, junior, and Esther Furuset, senior.

The juniors and seniors struggle on Tuesday, and the freshmen and sophomores on Wednesday. Then the two teams will have it out on Thursday. All of the games will be played at five o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Hazel Rader has been coaching the teams.

SOPHS DEFEAT FROSH WITH 3-0 SOCCER SCORE

Steers and Madden Star for Second Year Team—Jacobber and Schmeer for '21's.

The sophomore class showed their superiority over the freshmen, when they were victorious, with a score of 3-0, in the annual freshman-sophomore soccer game, Tuesday afternoon.

In the first period the ball was almost constantly in freshman territory. Due to the defensive playing of Bill Steers and Dwight Parr, the freshmen were unable to bring the sphere beyond the center of the field, while the second-year forward line continually rushed it to their opponents' goal posts. The lopsidedness of the ball made the registering of goals difficult this period. Madden managed to place the necessary "English" on the pigskin on but one occasion, and the half ended with the sophomores ahead, with one goal.

The freshmen kicked off at the beginning of the second period. The freshman backfield, consisting of Leslie, Trowbridge and Jacobberger, was kept busy booting the ball from in front of the frosh goal, but the sophomore offensive was too strong for the first-year men. Only twice during the period did the frosh bring the ball near the sophomore line, and on both occasions Margason booted it for out of danger.

Madden scored all three goals made in both periods. Bain and Kelleher showed some strong offensive work also, while Steers and Parr were placed at defensive.

For the freshmen, Leslie, Jacobberger and Schmeer played the most consistent game.

RALLY! RALLY! RALLY!

Every student in the University is expected to be on hand at the corner of Thirteenth and Hilyard streets, at 7 o'clock sharp, Friday evening, when the big farewell rally for Coach Bezdek, will be held. Coach Bezdek leaves on the Shasta at 7:48, and it is important that the parade start on time.

EVERYBODY BE THERE.

DEAN WALKER PLANS INTRAMURAL SPORTS

New Director Declares Every Male Student Will Have Chance for Athletic Development.

To Make Schedule for Series Among Military Companies and Classes.

Oregon students who expect to be drafted need have little fear that they will not be in the best possible physical condition, should the plans laid out by Dean Walker, newly elected director of intramural athletics, be carried out to their fullest extent.

Walker, in the capacity of his new position, will have full charge of the athletic development of all male students of the University. The Varsity teams will be handled by separate coaches as before.

Every Man to Have Chance

"Our plan," he said, "is to attempt to develop athletics so that every man will be allowed to compete and, thereby derive a benefit.

Gymnasium credit will be allowed the same as in the regular gymnasium classes, beginning immediately, will be basketball games between the various organizations on the campus. As soon as possible, a schedule of series will be arranged for teams representing the year classes, and the various military companies.

Running at the same time with basketball will be hand-ball, indoor baseball, wrestling, swimming, and probably boxing. Walker expects to have a whole league of his own in baseball teams, later in the spring. Track meets and tennis matches will be arranged at that time.

"One of the great advantages which we expect to derive," he said, "is to develop material for our Varsity teams."

Senior Game Saturday

The only games that have been played so far under the direction of Mr. Walker, are football and soccer. In the former the sophomores defeated the freshmen by a score of 21 to 0, while the seniors defeated the juniors with a score of 6 to 0. A final game will be played on Kincaid field, next Saturday afternoon between the seniors and the sophomores. In the only game of soccer, that has been played, the sophomores won from the freshmen by a score of 3 to 0.

VISUAL INSTRUCTION CATALOGUES PREPARED

Extension Division to Send 200 Copies of the Publication to Schools of the State.

The extension division of the University has 20 copies of the visual instruction catalogs ready to be sent to the different schools of the state. Every town and rural school of Oregon will receive one of the catalogs, with the suggestion from the extension division that they make actual use of the sources of instruction that are offered this way.

The catalog contains 45 sets of slides on campus and University life, 33 reels of films, 28 industrial exhibits, and several sets of rock and mineral substances prepared by the geology department. Besides these there are 25 sets of slides on physiology made up by the biology department, and 26 sets on botany sent by the botany department.

NEW WAR BOOKS IN LIBRARY

Seven Recent Publications Will Be Ready Next Week.

Several new books have been added to the collection of war books in the University library, since the classified list was made out last week. It is the present plan to add a supplement to the list as soon as enough new books warrant it.

New additions are, "Kultur Self-Revealed; Gems(?) of German Thought," by William Archer; "With a Field Ambulance at Ypres," by William Boyd; "On of Their Own Mouths," being an account of statements made by Germans in America; "Militarism," by Liebknecht; "Our Part in the Great War," by Arthur Gleason; "German Terror in France," by Toynebee; "Dixmude, An Epic of French Marines," by Le Goffic.

The books are being catalogued and will be ready for circulation this week.

Illegality Will Thrive at Annual Frosh Smoker.

Protection has been secured from the "powers that be," so it is assured that the municipal eye will wink at the numerous illegal operations to be perpetuated next Friday night, at the frosh smoker.

With the assurance of enough money to enable each and every green-capper present to gamble away his time and free money at any of the various games of slim chance, that will be in operation, every imaginable device for the squandering of the frosh smoker currency will be in full operation.

All this will transpire through a haze of smoke, closely resembling a gas attack on the German trenches. "Missouri meerschaums" and the fragrant weed will be plentiful, so the most loyal members of the "Jimme Club" will be capable of having a good time.

Faculty protection has been obtained by the presence of Dr. Landsbury and Dean Walker, so the "roof's off" and "the sky's the limit."

"I drink, I smoke, I dance, I gamble," is the slogan of the evening. This is the twelfth consecutive year for this event, and everything is ready for the big "blowout" Friday night, December 7, at the Kappa Sigma house.

'Let's go, frosh!'

STUDENTS IN ORDNANCE ORGANIZE PERMANENTLY

F. W. Bond of Pendleton Is President of Class Which Plans Reunion After War Closes.

Students in the ordnance class of the School of Commerce have formed a permanent organization, which is to continue until after the war. One of the main objects is to hold a reunion of the class as soon as the war is over.

F. W. Bond, of Pendleton, has been elected president of the class, and E. R. Slade, of Salem, secretary. An entertainment committee is to be named, and a series of social sessions will be held.

The class will complete its practical work here, on Saturday, December 22, and will spend the following week in Portland, visiting industrial and commercial plants. The object of these visits is to learn how stores are received, handled and distributed. The following plants will be visited: Marshall Wells Hardware company; Union Pacific shops, Portland Railway, Light & Power company shops; Fleishner & Mayer, wholesale dry goods; Ford Motor company assembly plant, and Willamette Iron & Steel works.

Professor C. C. Jeremiah, who has charge of the course, will accompany the men to Portland and direct their trips. Sergeant Erwin K. Wild, who has been giving the military instructions on the campus, also will go to Portland with the men.

SOLDIER WINS ALICE GRAM

Charles Hidden, of Portland, Weds Suffrage Worker.

Miss Alice Gram, of Portland, former student at the University of Oregon, who has received considerable publicity lately, in connection with picketing at the White House, and a hunger strike in jail, following her arrest, has celebrated her release by getting married. Her husband is Charles ("Tod") Hidden, a soldier at Camp Mills, L. I., who also is a former University of Oregon student. The marriage ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. Hidden's sister, in Pennsylvania, according to a telegram received in Portland Wednesday. The bride is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, and Mr. Hidden of Phi Gamma Delta.

FACULTY MEN TO SPEAK

Extension Division Sends Lecturers to Meetings in Nearby Towns.

Three speakers of the extension division will be at work in neighboring towns during the last of this week, and the early part of next week. Professor Frederick S. Dunn will give an illustrated lecture in Coburg, next Friday night, on the subject of "Through Rome." E. L. Kezell will address the parent-teacher association of Irving on "Progressive Schools," next Friday afternoon. Miss Katherine Winslow goes to Cottage Grove Tuesday, to speak to the parent-teachers association on playground work.

OREGON WILL IGNORE CONTRACT BREAKING

No Action to Be Taken Against Washington for Canceling Game. Would Involve Legal Procedure.

FROSH ELIGIBILITY DECIDED

Partial Sport Schedule Mapped Out at Coast Conference in San Francisco.

SCHEDULE AS ARRANGED

- October 19 or 20: Idaho or Multnomah, at Eugene. -November 2: California, at Berkeley. -November 9: Date open. -November 16: W. S. C. at Eugene. -November 28: O. A. C. at Portland.

No action will be taken by the University in regard to the breaking of the football contract, by the University of Washington. This was the news brought back to the campus by Graduate Manager A. R. Tiffany, and Professor B. C. Howe, members of the University athletic council, who returned to Eugene last night, from the Coast Conference meeting at San Francisco. The meeting took place in the St. Francis Hotel, and was attended by representatives of the University of California, the University of Oregon, the University of Washington, Washington State College, and Oregon Agricultural College.

Legal methods proved the only way to settling the matter of the broken contract, it was decided, and rather than resort to court, the Oregon rep-

STUDENTS GET PRIZES

Mrs. Marguerite Dallas and Harris Ellsworth Winners.

Each Receives Five Boxes of Apples for Essays at Spokane Show.

How would you like to have five boxes of the choicest kind of apples come to you as a perfect surprise? That is what has happened to two members of Miss Julia Burgess' English composition classes, Harris Ellsworth and Mrs. Marguerite Dallas.

The boxes of apples came to them as prizes for essays submitted to the National Apple show, held at Spokane, November 19-24. The essays were on different phases of apple consumption, and were assigned by Miss Burgess, as part of the regular English work. Only five prizes were given by the apple show; entries came to them from all over the country, and two of the prizes came to Eugene.

Gives Box to Teacher

Ellsworth gave one of his boxes of apples to Miss Burgess and her English classes feasted on them yesterday. Mrs. Dallas' boxes were delayed in shipment.

Ellsworth is naive in his delight over the surprise of actually winning a prize. "I was certainly surprised," he said, "because you see, I had forgotten all about writing the essay." He kept two boxes of the apples to share with his Kappa Sigma brothers, and sent the other two home to his parents in Cascade Locks.

Ellsworth's essay was a unique one for a boy to write, for he gave a complete luncheon menu, with apples only, as the bill of fare. "It was cleverly written," said Miss Burgess yesterday, "and well deserved a prize. Mrs. Dallas' essay was entitled 'Here Am I, Says the Apple,' and consists of witty dialogue.

Other Good Essays Submitted

The five prizes awarded by the apple show went to Los Angeles, California, St. Moline, Illinois, Bellefontains, California, and two to Eugene. A prize was also offered for a slogan, this going to Almirra, Washington.
