Campus Society

Edited by Pearl Craine

Dancing was much in vogue on the campus during the Thanksgiving holidays. Every night during vacation some one of the fraternities entertained with an open-house dance. On Wednesday night, Chi Omega extended their hospitality to the students who were left in Eugene, and on Thursday night this was followed by dancing at the Delta Delta house. Members of Phi Delta Theta were hosts on Friday evening and the week's festivities wound up on Saturday night, with a party at the Kappa Sigma house. Many of the students who spent part of their vacation away from Eugene, returned by Saturday evening, and the latter event assumed almost the proportions of an all-University dance.

Dancing at the Eugene Country club was enjoyed by Tokolo, sophomore society, last Thursday evening, when Carl Knudson, Lee Waldron, Ernest Boylen and Clair Holdridge, members of the organization, entertained in its honor. Guests of the evening were Professor and Mrs. Arthur Faguy-Cote, Florence Powers, Gladys Smith, Jessie Garner, Gertrude McCabe, Jeanette Moss, Gene Geisler, Beatrice Gaylord, Kathleen Forrester, Paula Linn, Marguerite Gross, Thelma Stanton, Florence Hemenway, Pauline Beals, Roberta Scheubel, Kate Schaffer, Florence Sherman, Don Roberts, Dwight Wilson, Harold Tregilgas, Charles Dundore, Bill Steers, Everett Pixley, Dow Wilson, Herman Lind, Jack Dundore, Harold White, Ned Fowler, and Lay Carlisle.

The hosts expect to leave the University soon to enter the service. Of paramount interest among the happenings of the week is the annual sophomore dance, which takes place in Hayward hall this evening. The ballroom has been decked in greens, combined with streamers of purple and gold, the class colors, while at one end of the balcony, a huge American flag occupies a prominent position. A patriotic feature dance has been planned. The list of patrons and patronesses of the event include Governor and Mrs. James Withycombe, President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Professor and Mrs. C. C. Jeremiah, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Schmidt, Professor and Mrs. A. R. Sweetser, Professor and Mrs. O. F. Stafford, Miss Julia Burgess, Professor Harthan, and Mr. William Hayward. This is the first big class dance of the year, and efforts toward a simplicity in keeping with the times have been made.

The spacious rooms of the Sigma Nu house were thrown open to the senior class last night for their annual lottery dance. Since the event was in the nature of a "hard times" party a wide variety of original and clever costumes were in evidence. Special music was furnished during the evening by Miss Bess Hendershott, soprano.

Members of Mary Spiller hall club, were the guests of Pi Beta Phi this afternoon. Time was spent in sewing on the table-cloths, which are to be a part of the equipment of Hendricks hall, the new women's dormitory, which will be ready for occupancy after the Christmas holidays.

Lieutenant Chester Huggins is spending the week-end at the Alpha Tau Omega house. Mr. Huggins has just come from the officers' training camp, at the Presidio, where he won his commission as second lieutenant.

Following the custom originated by the class of '18, last year, the juniors held their masquerade lottery dance, in the gymnasium, last evening. Beside the dancing, several features were put on by various members of the class. Costumes of all kinds were in evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calkins were Thursday evening dinner guests at Delta Gamma.

Kappa Alpha Theta entertained Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons, Dorothy Parsons, and Harold Tregilgas, at dinner last Thursday evening.

Harold Sexton, ex-'18, of Camp Lewis, spent a short furlough at his home in Eugene last week.

Halfred Young and Lathrop Dougal, both of Portland, and Clarence Cooper, of Corvallis, are spending the week-end as guests of Alpha Tau Omega.

Betty Allison, after attending the Thanksgiving game, in Portland, spent the remainder of the holidays at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, in Corvallis.

Lieutenant Wallace Benson is spending some time in Eugene visiting his mother, Mrs. F. W. Benson, Pi Beta Phi chaperone. Mr. Benson has recently come from the officers' training camp at the Presidio, where he received his commission. Mr. Benson is staying at the Sigma Nu house.

Lieutenant Wallace G. Benson has returned to the Sigma Nu house for a week's visit.

Bart Spellman, who arrived Sunday to visit Sigma Nu, left Thursday evening for Seattle.

Miss Mary Watson, Mabel Weller, Essie McGuire and Jennie McGuire were dinner guests Thursday evening at Mary Spiller hall.

William Lowell, '11, spent a few days with Sigma Nu, at the beginning of the week.

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained Nellie Sloan, Ruth Scott, Flora Campbell, Betty Henderson and Dorothy Miller at dinner, Friday evening.

Glen Dudley is a visitor at the Sigma Nu house this week.

Dean Elizabeth Fox was a Monday dinner guest of Kappa Alpha Theta.

FRATERNITIES MAKE FLAGS

Service Banners Flying From Four of Greek Letter Societies Already.

Service flags, indicating the number of men enlisted, are now beginning to wave from the various fraternities on the campus. So far Beta Theta Pi, Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Delta Theta and Sigma Chi are the only ones with the flags completed.

Sigma Nu, the oldest fraternity on the campus, with a banner spangled with sixty-seven stars, will head the list. The flag is not yet finished, but will be floating soon. Kappa Sigma also expects to have a flag in a few days.

JENKINS ENLISTS.

Wilford Jenkins, of the class of 1918, left this afternoon for Vancouver, where he will enlist in the Quartermaster's department. Jenkins lives in Eugene.

Gladys Cartwright, '14, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, in Salem. Miss Cartwright teaches in Dallas high school.
