Smileage Book Catechism.

- Q. What is a "Smileage Book?"
- A. A "Smileage Book" is a book containing coupons entitling the holder to admission and seat tickets at Liberty Theatres, Liberty Tents and auditoriums under the management of the Commission on Training Camp Activities in National Guard Camps.
- Q. By whom are they issued?
- A. By the Military Entertainment Council of the Commission on Training Camp Activities, Washington, D. C.
- Q. What do "Smileage Books" cost?
- A. "Smileage Books" are of two kinds: The first cost $1; the second $5.
- Q. How many tickets does each book contain?
- A. The $1 "Smileage Book" contains 20 coupons; the $5 book contains 100 coupons.
- Q. Where are they good?
- A. In all Liberty Entertainments, in all National Army Cantonnments and National Guard Camps, under the management of the Commission on Training Camp Activities.
- Q. Are they good in naval stations and other camps?
- A. No. At present they are good only in Army cantonnments and National Guard camps.
- Q. Where will "Smileage Books" be on sale?
- A. The books will be on sale by local entertainment councils throughout the country and in department stores, drug stores and various central places of business.
- Q. Are the books to be inscribed by name to soldiers?
- A. There is space for an inscription to soldiers by name, but this is not necessary.
- Q. Are they transferable?
- A. Yes, to soldiers in uniform.
- Q. How many theatres have been built.
- A. One permanent theatre seating 3,000 has been built in each National Army Cantonment. Two Chautauqua tents seating 1,800 each have been erected in each National Guard Camp.
- Q. Are "Smileage Books" available for use by civilians?
- A. Civilians are allowed in these entertainments only when accompanied by a soldier friend with "Smileage" coupons.
- Q. How much money does the Military Entertainment Council hope to raise from the sale of "Smileage Books?"
- A. The goal for the drive of the week of January 28th has been set at 1,000,000 "Smileage Books," but if a million dollars' worth of smiles are good for our soldier boys, why won't two million dollars' worth be much better?
- Q. How can I get these "Smileage Books" to the soldiers?
- A. Send them by mail. Let the next letter you send to any camp contain a $5 or $1 book; think of the laughter in those coupons. And of course, if you have a boy, son, brother, sweetheart or husband of your own in camp, you will see that he gets one.
- Harvard football enthusiasts recently subscribed $5,500 for footballs, to be sent to the soldiers in France. The first consignment of 500 balls is already on its way.—Ex.
