

PI BETA PHI HOSTS AT INFORMAL DANCE

Palm Room at Osburn Scene of Party Given by Alpha Tau Omega Friday Night.

Sigma Chi Entertains for Third Event of Week-End at Chapter House.

An informal dance at the Pi Beta Phi house is among the social functions of this evening. A conventional colonial design, in shades of rose and green, has been worked out on the friezes of the different rooms. Fern and Oregon grape have been clustered about the walls.

A number of out-of-town guests are here for the occasion. Among them are Louise Clausen of Coquille, Narcissa Jett of Gardiner, Myrtle Isaacson of Marshfield, Clara Calkins of Klamath Falls, Louise Odell of Portland, Marian Weiss of Portland, Janet Daniels of Portland, Lois Thomas of Cottage Grove, Laura Rand of Salem, Gladys Beals of Tillamook, Mary Packwood of Portland, Martha Rice of Portland, and Helea Rose of Portland.

Patronesses are Mrs. F. W. Benson, Dean Elizabeth Fox, and Mrs. Edna P. Datson.

Miss Tirza Dinsdale Entertains Sister with Breakfast Over Campfire.

In honor of her sister Ida's birthday, Miss Tirza Dinsdale entertained a merry group of picnickers this morning at an early-morning breakfast. Leaving the University at 8 o'clock, the guests were conveyed in autos out to the picnic grounds along the Willamette river, on the other side of West Springfield. After a breakfast cooked over the campfire, the guests started homeward, but made another stop when a tire blew out. However, the girls showed their ability to run an ambulance in France, and soon had the tire mended. They arrived at the University about half-past eleven.

Besides the guest of honor, Ida Dinsdale, those present were the Misses Lindsey, Elizabeth Fox, Mary Watson, Ruth Westfall, Helen Brenton, Dorothy Collier, Ruth Wilson, Lillian Hausler, Helen McDonald, Dorothy Wheeler, and Tirza Dinsdale.

MISS CROCKER IS GUEST AT TEA

After-speech Hour is Filled by Honor Affair for Portland Curator.

Honoring Miss Annabelle Crocker, curator of the Portland Art Museum, who gave a short talk Tuesday afternoon in the studio of the architecture building, on the exhibit of the Portland art students, now on display in the studio, Professor and Mrs. Alfred H. Schreff gave a very informal tea in the exhibit room of the architecture building Tuesday, after Miss Crocker's lecture. The guest list included: Colonel and Mrs. John Leader, Professor and Mrs. W. F. Thatcher, Miss Lillian Tingle, Professor and Mrs. P. P. Adams, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Mrs. E. M. Pennell, Miss Camilla Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Faguy-Cote, David Campbell, Professor and Mrs. George Rebec, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion McClain.

LOTTERY DANCE HAS FEATURE

Sigma Chi Decorates with Blue-and-gold for Dance at House.

Sigma Chi entertained with dancing at their chapter house last night. The rooms were made unusually attractive by the lavish use of greens and streamers of blue and gold, the fraternity colors. A lottery dance, where the names of the partners were found concealed in flowers, which were distributed among the guests, was a clever feature.

Patrons and patronesses of the event were Lieutenant Colonel John Leader and Mrs. Leader, Dr. E. W. Hope and Mrs. Hope, Professor R. S. Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton. Other guests included Paula Linn, Mable Cochran, Genevieve Rowley, Ruth Montgomery, Bertha Davis of Corvallis, Ann Appel, Marjorie Kay, Beulah Smith, Gladys Wilkins, Ethel McGilchrist, Lillian Bohnsen, Elizabeth Stansfield, Era Godfrey, Elizabeth Hadley, and Lyle Bryson.
