TO LECTURE IN ALASKA

Alfred Powers Departs for Six Weeks' Tour May 10.

Will Give Red Cross Talks with Films and Slides if Absence Leave Is Granted.

Alfred Powers, of the Extension Division, has been asked by the Northwest Division of the Red Cross to go to Alaska to do special Red Cross work, and if his leave of absence from the University is granted, he will leave May 10 for a six weeks tour of the principal Alaskan cities.

He will give lectures illustrated by lantern slides and films of the work the Red Cross is accomplishing and will aid in the campaign in raising Alaska's $40,000 share of the $100,000,000. The Red Cross has set as its goal in its next drive to begin May 20.

Mr. Powers will also get the people of Alaska interested in gathering and shipping sphagnum moss for use by the Northwest Red Cross Division. The sphagnum moss found in Alaska, says Mr. Powers, is considered the best in the world and he expects to be able to arrange for several shiploads of the moss to be used in making dressings and pads.

For the past five months, Mr. Powers has been field representative of the Red Cross for the state of Oregon and has delivered lectures in about 75 towns all over the state on the work of the Red Cross. He will take with him to Alaska the slides he has been using in his work here.

In a letter to Dean Eric W. Allen, Earl Kilpatrick, director of the Extension Division, who is at present in Seattle as director of the bureau of development of the northwest division of the Red Cross, writes: "We consider ourselves very fortunate in getting Mr. Powers as he is ideal for this work." Mr. Powers is awaiting official authorization of his request for leave of absence. He expects to hear from President Campbell soon.

In his absence, the regular staff of the extension division will take care of the work of the department.

SOLVE AND EVANS IN ARMY

Freshman and Senior Leave for Camp Lewis; Crowd Says Farewell.

Clad in their oldest clothes and smiling their happiest smiles, Melvin Solve, '18, and Ernest Evans, '21, were at the base ball game at 4 on Saturday. No one would guess that they were leaving on the 5:25, Southern Pacific for American Lake with thirty-seven other men who had been drafted. They left the game and went directly to the train where they found seventy-five University students and about seven hundred townspeople to send them off.

A group of students started a young yell practice in the station park and although the train was more than an hour late the crowd remained loyal to the last minute and the time passed quickly for the men who have been summoned to serve their country. When they left they were still smiling. Richard Gray, '20 whose home is in Turner, Oregon, joined them at Salem.

McCLURE, '12, GETS NEWS OF U. MEN "OVER THERE"

Oregon Graduate, Now Captain, Tells of Battle Line; Says War Will Last Two Years.

Captain Walter McClure, '12, of a Company in the 26th Infantry now on the fighting line in France, in a letter to his mother dated March 25, says that he has received letters from Hi Dunbar, Charles Cronor, Ralph Hurn and Lee Bown who are also in France but not near where he is. He intends to try and see them when he gets his leave.

Speaking of the battle lines he says: "We have had a very quiet week so far, but we hardly know how to take it, whether he's tired or saving ammunition, we know not."

"I am in perfect health and my men and I are getting very valuable experience. I have plenty of soap and tobacco and wollen material now though candy will always be welcome and necessary. I just paid sixty francs or about $10.50 for a small shoulder of pork, the first I've tasted for nearly a year.

"I now have six lieutenants and a second in command who is a captain of the reserve corps; I expect to lose two of them soon though. We will be in here for a month more and I don't expect any trouble. I expect the war to last two years, yet it all depends on the speed of the United States."

STUDENTS TO VOTE UNIFORM 'O' MEASURE

sports as I can see no good reason for a distinction being made between the insignia representing the letter winners in the different majors.

At Leland Stanford university a uniform sized letter is awarded for all major sports and a small "S" inside a ring is given for minor sports.

Supporters for a uniform sized letter for Oregon say they do not feel that Oregon should adopt a uniform letter because other schools of this part of the country have done so but that action will serve as an example to Oregon.

They further elucidate that the chief reason with oppositionists to the measure offer is that it is breaking a tradition of Oregon. Many students declare that a uniform sized letter will destroy individual interest in the different forms of sports principally football. They say that football man expands more hard work and energy to gain his letter and that football is really primarily a college sport and should therefore be recognized as such by a larger letter than is awarded for track, basketball, baseball and wrestling.
