WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH WASHINGTON.

For the first time in the history of Junior Week-end that gala event is to be minus the attraction of an inter-collegiate track meet, due to the failure of the University of Washington to fulfill its agreement to send a team here for the meet which was scheduled for next Saturday. Besides being a disappointment to the students, the cancellation of the meet is to rob the week-end program of one of its most attractive numbers and one athletic event which visitors expect especially to see at Oregon, where Coach Hayward has built up a nation-wide reputation for track athletes.

The reason given by the Washington authorities for withdrawing from the meet is not one which speaks very highly of their institution and the spirit in which it is meeting the problems of war times. Judging from outward appearances we would say that the Purple and Gold has lost its fight and is suffering from an acute attack of the "blues." Their plea is that the war has robbed them of all their athletes and totally disorganized their athletic department, and that they would be unable to enter a team to be compared in any way with those put out in former years.

Washington is not alone the sufferer from inroads made upon the ranks of track athletes by the war, nor are other conditions existing there one iota worse than those which Oregon has had to face this spring. But Oregon has not lost its fight, even with the certainty of the first defeat in years staring it in the face. Without a single track veteran on the campus and with Coach Hayward unable to direct the work of the inexperienced men, the work here has gone right ahead and the question of cancelling meets because the team was not up to the standard of former years has not been thought of.

Without throwing any more boquets at ourselves than the action of the board of the Seattle institution warrants, the track team of this year is deserving of more credit than has been any other team to represent Oregon in this line of athletics in recent years. Day after day the men who represented the Lemon-Yellow in the O. A. C. meet this afternoon have been plugging away with the full knowledge that they stood no chance in the world of winning anything as a team and that not more than one or two of them had any prospects of earning a letter. But they had the fight—they were not quitters.

Just what the trouble is with Washington we don't know, but, venturing a wild guess, we would diagnose the case as one of common "cold feet."

ALUMNI MEDAL CONTEST SET FOR TUESDAY, MAY 14

Gold Trophy to Go to Best All-around Debater—Four Men and Two Girls Trying Out.

The annual Alumni Medal contest has been set for Tuesday, May 14, according to a statement made yesterday by Professor R. W. Prescott, instructor in public speaking.

The contest is of unusual interest this year because there will be two separate tryouts, one for the men on the question which they used in their debating this year and another tryout for the women on the question they debated the University of Washington co-ed team.

The judges for the contest have not yet been chosen.

Only Varsity debaters are eligible. The terms of the contest are that an hour before the contest the contestants draw for sides, then they have the hour in which to put the finishing touches on their speech. In the tryout each speaker is a whole team by himself, and he must defend every statement that he makes.

The contestant who makes the best all around showing is given a gold medal valued at $27.50.

The men entering the contest are Hugh Brunk, Day Bayly, Ralph Holzman, and Carlton Savage. The girls who are contesting are Amy Carson and Ruth Graham.

"THE ARRIVAL OF KITTY" TO FEATURE SURPRISES

Seat Sale for Senior Play to Open May 9, at Eugene Theatre; Capacity House Is Prediction.

When the curtain rises on the first act of the senior class play, "The Arrival of Kitty," at the Eugene theatre next Friday evening, the audience is slated to receive several genuine surprises. Part of these surprises will be due to the play itself; the rest of them will come from the acting of the crack cast that has been selected to put over the 1918 senior offering.

All the women who will appear in "The Arrival of Kitty" are well known student stars. Mrs. Emma Wootton Hall, who will play the role of Jane, has achieved so many dramatic triumphs that college audiences have come to expect a good performance from her as a matter of course. Helen Maurice as "Kitty Benders," the leading lady of "The Girl in Red" company, has probably the best acting part she has yet played at Oregon. Rosamund Shaw plays the part of Aunt Jane, a really human old maid. Among the men Couch, Hazeltine, and Calkins have been cast for parts which give them splendid opportunities to display their dramatic talent.

The seat sale for the senior play will open at the box office of the Eugene theatre Thursday morning, May 9, at 9 o'clock.

CHEMISTS TO MEET HERE NEXT SATURDAY

Oregon Branch of National Society Will Cover Industrial and Engineering Work at Session.

Professor Stafford to Speak on Utilization of Waste Wood Products.

The May meeting of the Oregon section of the American Chemistry Society will be held at the University Saturday, May 11 at 4:30.

The society is made up of college chemists and men interested in industrial and engineering lines, and all aspects of chemistry are covered. The meetings are generally held in Portland and between 25 and 30 men attend.

Professor O. F. Stafford, head of the department of chemistry in the University, will speak on the Utilization of Waste Wood by Distillation Processes, explaining his two methods, that of the new distillation method for obtaining useful distillation products, acetic acid, wood alcohol and turpentine, and that of the new means devised for making gas from wood.

BOOKLET ILLUSTRATING GYM WORK TO BE ISSUED

Descriptions and Pictures of Physical Training for Oregon Co-eds Will Be Out in Ten Days.

A booklet announcing the courses offered by the physical training department for women, emphasizing the professional training given, will be off the press and ready for distribution in about ten days, according to Miss Mabel Cummins, director of that department.

The booklet will be illustrated with pictures of students in folk dancing, in classic dancing and in outdoor gymnasium work. It has been the special effort of the photographer to get pictures showing motion, and in order to obtain this effect some of the pictures have been retaken a number of times. "The girls who have been flitting about on the campus near the gymnasium on sunny afternoons have not been there for any purpose except to have their pictures taken," said Miss Cummings.

TO HEAR BISHOP SUMNER

State Head of Episcopal Church to Talk at Wednesday Meeting.

Bishop Sumner will be the speaker at the Y. W. C. A. meeting next Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock at the Bungalow. No topic has been announced for his talk. He will meet with the Y. W. C. A. cabinet at 4:30 on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Tirza, campus secretary of Y. W. C. A. is planning a meeting for all Episcopal women in the University with Bishop Sumner at four o'clock Monday afternoon at Hendrick hall. She does not know definitely whether this will be possible.

WHEELER AT FORT WORTH

Former University Instructor Does Psychological Work in Army.

Dr. R. H. Wheeler, formerly instructor in psychology on the campus, who left last summer to take a government position in Washington, D. C. has just been transferred to Fort Worth, Texas, as chief psychologist. There he will continue the same line of work, conducting tests, probably in the ranks of the draft army. For the last few months he has been on duty at Camp Oglethorpe, Georgia, a medical officer's training camp.

LESS TIME FOR WAR BOOKS

Heavy Demand Forces Library to Cut Month Limit to Seven Days.

Books on the war shelves in the library, on account of their popularity, have been made seven day books, as a label pasted in the back of the books borrowed will show. This is the first time in the history of the library that the time limit on any of the books has been limited to seven days, said Mrs. Mabel McClain, circulation librarian, but the demand for the books made the policy advisable.

Eugene Bible University Celebrates in Many Ways

Friday was Eugene Bible University Day at that institution and the day was spent in part in serious work for the University and in part in sports. At noon a good "Hoover" dinner was served. In the afternoon there were various activities, including a baseball game between the single and the married men attending the school. Much enthusiasm is reported at the University along all lines.

VARISITY IS DEFEATED IN FIFTH CONTEST

in today's game getting four hits out of five trips to the plate. Steers had an average of .500, getting three safe blows out of six times up. For O. A. C. Lodell was the leading sticker with three out of six.

The O. A. C. diamond was in bad shape for a contest and Medley, Steers and Runquist looked as though they were in a hay field. Umpire Newell called several bad ones during the afternoon, but as he was not partial in his decisions neither team has anything to kick about in this respect.

The crowd was small and there was little pep on the part of the Aggies until their team won the contest. Colonel Lender was an interested spectator to today's "Comedy of Errors." He occupied a position of honor on the Oregon bench and warmed up several Oregon players during the game. The Colonel showed a marked ability to "pick 'em out of the sky" but flatly refused to use a glove.

Berg and Dunton will be the Oregon battery for tomorrow's contest, while O. A. C. has not announced her pitcher. Tomorrow's game will start at 10:30.

The box score:

University of Oregon.		O. A. C.
