

McCart, Rook Hurler, Too Much for Fresh

Saturday's Game Gives Freshmen Clean Sweep of Two Contests with Locals.

Jacobberger and Houston Play Good Ball for Class of 1921.

It was a case of too much McCart when the Oregon freshmen tackled the O. A. C. Rooks out on Cemetery Ridge Saturday morning and as a result the Aggie babes walked off with the contest 6 to 0. McCart was in rare form and base hits off his delivery were as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth, only twice did the Fresh break into the hit column and one of these was a scratch.

The first hit off of the Corvallis twirler was gathered by "Cork" Young in the sixth frame when he landed on one of the big boy's fast ones and sent it down the third base line. The hit should have been snared by Kasberger, the Rook third baseman, but it got by him clean, and must, therefore, be recorded as a hit. The O. A. C. scorer gave Kasberger an error on the play, but as he did not get his mitts on the ball or was not set to field it, there is no rule that will substantiate this manner of recording the play. The second hit was a two bagger by "Dinty" Moore in the eighth inning. After getting to second on the hit "Dinty" stole third but died there as Young fanned for the third out.

Arm bothers Jacobberger. Jacobberger pitched a good game for the Fresh but he was bothered with a sore arm that kept him from putting on his steam delivery. Nine hits were recorded off of him and he issued free transportation to four and whiffed seven. McCart fanned twelve and walked only one batter. But 32 men faced the big Aggie in the entire nine innings.

The game was featured by the brilliant fielding of Johnny Houston, the Fresh third sacker, who handled seven chances without a boot. He cut off several drives that were bound for the outfield and in all played a regular bang-up game around the difficult corner.

The victory on Saturday gives the O. A. C. Rooks two straight wins over the lemon-yellowers, as they won the game at Corvallis last week by the score of 7 to 4. This will probably wind up the season for the freshmen as no other games have been booked.

WEEK-END IS SUCCESS FROM EVERY ANGLE

houses entertained with informal dancing parties.

Friday was campus day and the noon train again brought more guests for the week-end.

Military Feature Innovation.

A feature which was better this year than in former years was the military review and retreat on the drill field immediately after the campus luncheon. Always before this, the students, headed by the winning float from the canoe fete, have marched through the downtown streets and back to the University.

While most of the juniors were busy decorating the Armory for their dance, the fresh started Saturday morning off with a baseball game with the O. A. C. rooks.

The swimming meet Saturday afternoon was another largely attended event. Juniors Win Most Points.

Three events were pulled off and the Juniors succeeded in winning the most points. The schedule for events follows:

Canoe race.—Seniors—Herbert Heywood and Jack Montague, 5. Freshmen—Nish Chapman and West Seamen, 3. Juniors—Harold Grey and Claude Hill, 1. The sophomore canoe, paddled by Harry Jamieson and Carter Branden, tipped over before the finish.

220 Yard Swimming Race—Juniors—Paul Spangler, 5. Juniors—Clyde Mason, 3. Freshmen—Joe Trowbridge, 1. 100-Yard Dash—Sophomore—Newt Estes, 5. Juniors—Harold Grey, 3. Freshmen—Leggett, 1.

The tug of war between the freshmen and sophomores has not been tried for several years, and if the fun caused by this tug of war is any hint for the week-end next year, then it will surely be an annual event. A three-quarter inch rope was stretched across the mill race on Alder street between the Kappa Sigma and the Delta Tau house, and ten Sophs and ten husky fresh were given sides and the pulling began. The tug of war was short lived, however, for the strength of both sides was so great that the rope broke with a snap. One might say that a tree on the Sophomore side was almost uprooted.

Fresh Show Fight.

The freshmen knew the game and showed unusual stick-to-it-iveness as they lined up against the side of a house and sent forth loud calls for more of their green-capped brothers. For a while it looked as though it might be a free-for all, but at a little friendly council meeting the freshmen were made to understand that it was a tradition that the freshmen be mill raced at this particular time. The Fresh were game and went in of their own accord. A few sophomores who were unwise enough to get separated from their brother sophs were mobbed and carelessly given an opportunity to show their swimming ability in the icy waters.

The next event was the annual burning of the green caps by the fresh. Throwing their caps into a barrel on the baseball field they soon issued forth in a dark smoke, to be no more. Dean Straub and Jimmy Sheehy presided at the impressive ceremony.

600 at Prom.

More than 600 people gathered on the floor of the Armory to enjoy the Junior Prom Saturday night. Due to the time taken for the several numbers given by the Girl's Glee club and the time taken for the presentation of the canoe fete, Koyl and Gerlinger cups, the faculty allowed the dancing to continue until ten minutes of twelve.

Sunday morning saw the different organizations off for all-day picnics, or for mill race parties.

The majority of the guests left Sunday evening on the 5:25, and many of the rushees were heard to say, "See you next year."

WILL CONTEST TONIGHT

Six Seekers After Alumni Medal; Will Use Intercollegiate Questions.

This evening the six contestants for the alumni medal will meet in Dr. John Straub's room in Guild hall at 8 o'clock to prove who is the strongest debator.

In this contest each one is working for himself and the medal goes to the best individual debator. The presentation of the medal is an annual alumni practice.

The contestants are: Amy Carson, Ruth Graham, Kenneth Armstrong, Hugh Brunk, Day Bayley, and Ralph Holzman.

The women will debate their intercollegiate question—Resolved, that the tendency of the newspapers in larger cities to consolidate is a solidary movement in national life.

The men will also use their intercollegiate question—Resolved, that at the close of the present war all the nations should establish an international supreme court with police power to enforce its decrees.

The judges for the evening are members of the University alumni and they are, Peter Crockatt, instructor in the economics department; Victor Morris and Burleigh Cash, both instructors at the Eugene High School.

CLUB TO PUT ON PROGRAM

Spanish Students to See Sketch at Meeting Thursday.

The next meeting of the Spanish club will be held at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. A program has been prepared consisting of musical selections, reading, jokes, and a short sketch, written by the members of the club. This shows the attempts of some Americans to speak Spanish with their guests from South America, creating many humorous situations. An invitation is extended to all students interested in Spanish to be present.
