OREGON EMERALD

Official student body paper of the University of Oregon, published every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of the college year by the Associated Students. Entered in the postoffice at Eugene, Oregon, as second class matter. Subscription rates $1.00 per year. Single copies, 5c. Advertising rates upon

HARRY N. CRAIN ..... EDITOR Adelaide Lake ..... Women's Editor Assistants

Elsie Fitzmaurice, Dorothy Duniw ay, Helen Brenton, Leith Abbott, Herman Lind, Bess Colman, Alexander Br own, Levant Pease, Helen Manning, John Houston, Gladys Wilkins, Elva Bagley, Alene Phillips, Louise Davis, Frances Stiles, Erma Zimmerman, Ken neth Comstock, Mary Ellen Bailey, and Helen Downing.

JEANNETTE CALKINS ...... BUSINESS MANAGER Catherine Dobie ..... Manager

Harris Ellsworth, Lyle Bryson, Madel ine Slotboom, Dorothy Dixon, Frances Schenk, Foreign Advertising.

Promptness and accuracy in the matter of delivery is what the Emerald seeks to obtain. If you are not getting your paper regularly, make a complaint, but make it direct to the Circulation Manager. Address all news and editorial complaints to the Editor.

PHONES

Manager 177-J News and Editorial Rooms 655

Editor 841 Businesss Office 1200

BOOST AND BOOST FAIR.

The missionary work of the students on the campus lead- telling of his experiences with the tiss Peterson were each above the avering to a big enrollment in the University for next year has been that his company was probably one of well started. Junior Week-End saw the high schools of the the ones sent to the front to support state well represented on the campus and the high school stu- the British and French troops in their familiar. But no less popular, though of the theatre stage, and possessed of dents were given every opportunity to become familiar with the University and its work. But they were shown almost exclusively the side of college life which deals with recreation. the opportunities for enjoyment which the students have outside of their work hours.

The task of convincing these high school boys and girls that they should continue their educations beyond the preparatory school stage and that Oregon is the place for them to come to continue their studies, should be carried further, however. It is en- list or that I have established a new tirely probable that every one of the high school students who visited the campus last week has a fairly definite idea of what Chas. Croner over here. They are not line of work they want to pursue in college and their next natural thought toward Oregon is regarding what it has to offer this is no time to take one. along the line of the preparation they seek. Not only are they interested in this phase of the University, but their parents want der. All the British officers are. I this kind of information above all other.

Supply them with it. We are confident that no college or Intelligence Officer as I have experiencuniversity in the West has more to offer in the courses taught in the University, but that confidence must be backed up by facts chair in the deepest dug-out and never and figures when we are talking to prospective students. The leave there. Be busy as hell when the facts and figures are available, both in the University catalogue and in the various bulletins which are published by the Univer- all the Company and platoon comman-

Keep in touch with the high school students you know, find into Germany and get information. out what line of work they intend to take up in college and, if this sector bailing out dugouts, draining Dregon has anything to offer them along that line, tell them about trenches and burying corporals and t - send them every bit of information you can get that will keeping my recruits from getting the help them in deciding what they wish to do. If you honestly feel when they come around to inspect. that Oregon can give the student in question as much, or more Probably you remember Gerry Watas any other college, urge that student to come here. But above kins who ran Bond's canoe place one all else, be honest. If Oregon does not offer the line of work 16th Infantry. His captain was shot which the student wants tell him so. We want all of the stu- by a recruit so Gerry commands the dents we can get, but we want them to get an education that will company. I relieved him and was with fit them best for their future life.

OPEN GIRLS' BASEBALL

Kappas Win from Alpha Phi with 22-4 Score.

Y. W. C. A. Puts Delta Gamma Out of Race-More Games Next Week.

;ame, the Kappa Kappa Gammas romped to victory with a score of 22 to 4 played in the men's gymnasium Thurs- Jennie McGuire .........Right Field "My letters will probably be post tay afternoon. Consistent teamwork on Inga Winter ......Left Field cards from now on unless I get a fine he part of the winners showed that they tave been practicing and are out for Frances Elizabeth Baker ......Pitcher rictory in the finals. Lack of practice explained many of the errors and poor aitting of the Alpha Phis. Gladys Beatrice Yoran .........First Base Smith and Helen Brenton, as pitchers for the winners and losers, respectively, did good work not only in the field but with the bat. The line-up is as follows:

карра карра башта.
3ladys Smith
Mary IrvingLeft Shortstop
Margaret Hamblin, Right Shortstop
Helen Nicolai
Iean GeislerSecond Base
Esther Warner Left Field
Helin Anderson First Base
Alive Van Schoonhoven Right field
leanette Moss Third Base
Alpha Phi.

Helen Brenton ...... Pitcher ... Pitcher ... Professor Reddie Lois Macey ...... Left Shortstop . Final doughnut baseball game, Professor Reddie himself did partic-Elizabeth Carson . . . . Right Shortstop • Tuesday at 4. Delta Taus vs. Phi • ularly fine work in this play as well as Mice Tighter ...... Second Base . . . . . . . .

Helen CaseLeft	Field
Lucille McCorkie First	Base
Gretchen ColtonRight Kathryn JohnstonThird

Y. W. C. A. won ever Delta Gamma cigarettes or rotten weather. with the score of 9 to 6 in the second "I am now prophesying that the war Helen McDonald, second base and Fran- easily last till I am 150. ces Baker, pitcher, won most of the

Essie McGuire ..... Right Short Stop Tirza Dinsdale ...... Left Short Stop hand and steady my heart. Ida Dinsdale ......Catcher

Mildred Huntley ...... Second Base Carlotta Reed ......Left Field Vivian Chandler .... Right Short Stop Alleyn Johnson ..... Left Short Stop Caroline Alexander ....... Pitcher he himself may inflict the same punish-Era Godfrey ...... Catcher

The other teams of the doughnut league have yet to play their games. The Delta Delta Deltas have forfeited their match to the Phi Beta Phis because they have not been able to or-

GRAD WRITES FROM

Walter McClure Gives Data on Intelligence Officers; Says British Leaders Are Wonders.

RUNS INTO GERRY WATKINS

Athlete Has Tonsilitis Due to Cigarettes or Rotten Weather.

Probably no wearer of the Oregon O" has seen as much of the front line trenches and as much of the "big push" as Captain Walter McClure who is now seeing service with the 26th Infantry Company M. He is not only in France-he's in that strip of territory nearest No Man's Land, where the star shells are thickest and Fritz is the most entertaining.

Captain McClure has written several interesting letters back to the campus Allied troops, and the last one indicated age in their characterizations. recent tight pinch. The letter, typical at the same time a bit difficult to get of a true Oregon Man's fighting spirit,

"April 21, 1918."and your letter was in the bunch. Possibly I've been slighting you but I've been very busy, and from now on will be busier. We move for the big show and go "pronto" so don't be surprised if you read my name in the casualty

"Have received letters from Hi and near here but we may run across each other soon. I'm due for a leave but "This Colonel Leader must be a won only hope we'll be as good as they are. Maybe I can give you some dope on the ed it in the army. You must be a rustler, have the ability to get the best die Colonel comes around, be looking over reports, maps and photographs, know ders and order them to lead the patrols

"Have been having a fine time in wind up and puncturing the officers year. He is a 1st Lieutenant in the him two hours before we recognized each other. He is a very capable of-"One of my gas sentries woke us at 11:30 last night with a gas alarm as an April fool joke. He wears his head in a sling this morning. "My disposition is affected today with tonsilitis. I guess it's due to too many game of the series Friday afternoon. will last three months or three years, Lack of practice was conspicuous. Era so take your choice. I figure that any Godfrey, catcher for the Delta Gammas pay I draw after April 10 this year is did the best playing on her team while pure profit, and if I last till July can "Steer clear of infantry. Its a dog's Making a veritable hit-fest of the points for their side. The line up is as life-you're either dodging water buck. ets full of German hate or moving con-Linuously.

Ruth Anne Wilson ....... First Base | "Keep your eye on the casualty list over the Alpha Phls in the first game of Helen McDonald ...... Second Base and send some French pinks if I need

"blighty" and get a nurse to hold my

(Continued from Page One.)

ment on the officer. Failing in this he will keep the invention secret. A quarrel between von Diesbach (Fergus Reddie) almost ensues after this ultimatum, finally to end, when word is brought in of the officer's death.

The basic principles of Prussianism were laid bare in the play, which was dramatized, from the original story, by

• the other two; and Lyle McCrosby

Ray Conch Wtites that Oregon Men Pass All Physical Tests

Camp Work Appears to Be Stiff, but Boys Have Hopes - Semaphore Arm Signals Necessary.

All the men who went to Camp Lewis | salutes, tight close order drill and from the University have been accepted, promptness. according to word received this morn_ ing from Ray Couch. "One thing is sure; bedding, etc., service record taken and we are in and in to stay, for which I am | first books issued; and placed in quartruly thankful," says Couch in his letter to Colonel Leader.

The boys took the physical examinathe war," he writes. "We have no real est type of military technique such as lutely necessary here."

"The detail arrived at camp 10 a. m. May 15, were assigned barracks, issued antine for a period of two weeks. Only civilian candidates are in this company."

So far Robert Cosgriff has been acttion May 16. "After a short talk by ing as first sergeant and Couch is hand-Major General Greene, we were given ling the paper work. "Everyone will the oath and enlisted for the period of get a fair show at all of it in every phase," Couch says. "I will try to let work as yet and have not had all of our you know anything of importance for equipment issued, not even uniforms, but the fellows to know as prerequisites to that will come in due time. All aspects a camp, as they come to me here. I are that this is to be the stiffest camp | would say that they should all be well yet given, but we all have hopes. One acquainted with semaphore, arm sigthing is quite obvious and that is the nals, and if possible the company paper way the officers insist upon the strict- work, as I have found that it is abso-

military official. Norman Phillips, Nor- Colonel Leader enjoyed the situation vell Thompson, Frances Frater and Cur- and the chance to "see himself" with as "The Straggler," having been played once in Guild Hall last year, was more across. The audience showed true delight and appreciation of Professor Reddie's great talent at impersonations, and "Just received a fine bunch of mail it was quite impossible to remember that one was not serving and listening to the endless whims of an old man. Particularly dramatic was the climax of the play, and the scene where the Straggler, last to answer the final muster role of the Third guards, graws himself to a last salute at the strains of his national troop regiments.

> Helen Guttery as the niece, Bob Mc-Nary, as Sergeant McDonald and Curtiss Peterson as Colonel Midwinter, were his supporting characters and formed an at-much zest as anyone-probably more.

Colonel Leader himself-his uniform, own laugh-everything but Bill-were the lines were completely lost last night.

"O'Flaherty, V. C." having only four characters, had very grave difficulties for presentation on a stage the size its amazing ability to look naked and cold and bleak. With so small an audience the lines were often difficult to get when Norvell Thompson, as O'Flaherty, spoke them in his rich Irish brogue. With an extremely difficult and slippery role to carry, he did it with absolute consistency throughout, never for a moment relaxing his merry, half-cynical air any more than he forgot to use _is acquired brogue. Rosamund Shaw as Mrs. O'Flaherty, and Margaret Crosby, anthem played by the band of passing as Tessie the maid, likewise turned to shamrock green temporarily, and Miss Shaw was especially and broadly just

A great deal of annoyance to both the players and audience was caused by seating people late and the noisiness of the ushers. Always difficult to hear his cane, his mustache, his drawl and his distinctly in a half-filled house, many of the amazement and delight of the audi- | These three attractive, worth while ence as the Colonel, alias Fergus Red- plays will be produced again tonight at again, lectured and scolded 8:30, and it is the hope of the commit-O'Flaherty, V. C. The likeness gained tees in charge that the Saturday night

第二条 Electric Cleaning Co.

832 Olive St. Phone 827

for the up-to-date hostess

For the after theatre bite, the hasty lunch or afternoon tea, as well as for regular every-day use, electric table cookery has become all the rage. Of course, you can not take advantage of these popular conveniences unless your home is

High Grade Wiring at Low Prices

is our motto this spring. Modern methods have brought the electrical home within the reach of all and we can quote you prices on a partial or complete wiring plan that will prove a pleasant surprise to your pocketbook.

Why not settle this wiring question NOW! It will cost you nothing to have our representative call and make you an estimate.

SIGWART ELECTRIC CO.

