

OREGON MEN DEFEAT O. A. C. TENNIS TEAM

University Wins Five Out of Six Events; Watson Loses to Powers After Fourth Set.

Brown and Hershner to Go to Seattle for U. of W. Matches.

Oregon made it five out of six at Corvallis Saturday in the second and last series, after taking all the events in the first series of tennis games with O. A. C. Forest Watson, the only Oregon man to lose his match, was defeated by Powers, of O. A. C., 6-2, 10-8, 3-6, 6-4. Watson played a good game but met a hard man in Powers and all the luck seemed to be with the "Aggie" representative.

Mortimer Brown made short work of his opponent taking three straight sets, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1. Hyde, Brown's opponent, was hopelessly outclassed by the Oregon wizard and was not able to put up much of a fight.

Haseltine showed up well in his match with Henderson and took it in fine style, 7-5, 7-5, 6-3. Bill has been playing a good game of tennis this year and his showing Saturday was very creditable. Hershner took his match from Reynolds after having lost the first set. The score was 4-6, 6-1, 7-5, 8-6.

Doubles Easily Won.

In the doubles Watson and Haseltine triumphed over Henderson and Powers 5-2, 4-6, 10-8, 8-6. Brown and Hershner took three straight sets from Hyde and Reynolds 6-2, 6-4, 8-6.

Three members of the Oregon Tennis team will leave Thursday for Seattle to meet the University of Washington during the week-end. Brown, Hershner and either Haseltine or Watson will make the trip. Haseltine and Watson will meet Wednesday afternoon and the winner of this match will go. May Win Letter.

Oregon, say tennis enthusiasts, should be able to take this meet as the class of tennis they have shown in the O. A. C. meet is hard to beat. As the constitution of the student body declares that in order to win a letter in tennis the contestant must be northwest champion, at least two of the Oregon men have a chance to win their monograms. They are Brown and Hershner, and if Haseltine wins in his match with Watson he will also have a chance, as he won his match against Henderson of O. A. C.

FIVE ONE-ACT PLAYS PRESENTED BY CLASS

Second Year Dramatic Students Give Performance for Guests at Guild Hall.

Members Have Entire Charge of Staging, Directing and Costuming.

An invitational performance of five one-act plays was given by the second year class in dramatic interpretation last Saturday evening in Guild Hall. Examination Schedule Out Fees Due For Graduation

Examination schedules for the last lap of the year are out. The starting pistol sounds at 8 o'clock just two weeks from tomorrow, and midnight sessions with the high cost of electricity will be distinctly in order. For the benefit of the Seniors it is added that no recommendation for a degree for anyone will be given to the Board of Regents until the diploma fee of $10 is paid. This regulation has been made to do away with the trouble always experienced at the office in former years in collecting the fees. When they were not required prior to graduation, it was a very easy matter to get a degree and then forget or neglect to pay the fee. For this reason the faculty has found it necessary to delay the recommendation until after the fee is paid. The schedule follows:

Wednesday, June 12.
8:00—3, 4, 5 hour 11 o'clock classes.
10:00—3, 4, 5 hour 10 o'clock classes.
1:30—Compulsory Military Course and 1 o'clock classes.

Thursday, June 13.
8:00—3, 4, 5 hour 8 o'clock classes.
10:00—3, 4, 5 hour 10 o'clock classes.
1:30—English Composition, all divisions.
3:30—All "X" courses.

Friday, June 14.
8:00—3, 4, 5 hour 9 o'clock classes.
10:00—3, 4, 5 hour 2 o'clock classes.

All other courses to be arranged by instructor. Evenings and Saturday days permitted.

CHILD EXPERT ARRIVES

Dr. W. H. Slingerland of Russell Sage Foundation in State.

Investigation of Children's Welfare Will Begin at Once.

Dr. W. H. Slingerland, child expert of the Russell Sage Foundation, arrived in Eugene last Friday evening prior to beginning an investigation of children's institutions in Oregon. Dr. Slingerland was sent to Oregon by the Russell Sage Foundation at the request of the University extension division and citizens of the state interested in child welfare. During his stay in Oregon Dr. Slingerland will maintain an office in Portland. Saturday was spent by Dr. Slingerland in consultation with members of the extension division. Dr. B. W. De Busk and Dr. E. S. Conklin, of the department of psychology. He left for Portland Saturday night.

"Dr. Slingerland's program is not yet prepared," said Guy E. Dyar, acting director of the extension division, "but I think that he will submit it to us within a very few days."

The expenses of this investigation will be borne by the extension division. Earl Kilpatrick, director of the division, volunteered its payment as soon as it became known that the legislative enactment, which authorizes such an investigation, did not provide for it.

HOME ECONOMICS WORK TO BE WIDER NEXT YEAR

Number of Instructors Will Be Increased, Quarters Extended and Freshmen Admitted.

A complete course in home economics, which will be so much bigger than the one given this year that the quarters will have to be extended and the staff is planned by Miss Lillian Tingle for of instructors will have to be increased, next year.

Some of the courses planned for next year are the following: Textile study, sewing, dress design, household management, care of children, home nursing, home decoration, practical food preparation, home economics, journalism, social workers' food preparation. Mrs. Edna Datson will assist with the instruction in social workers' food preparation. Prof. Eric Allen will assist in home economics journalism and Professor Rebec will help in instruction in care of children.

It is hoped by Miss Tingle that it will be possible to have a practice house next year where the girls may have an opportunity to spend a certain length of time doing practical housework and trying home methods.

WOMEN HARVEST RADISH

First Product of Hendricks Hall War Garden Is Pulled.

The first vegetable to come from the Hendricks hall war garden was a radish pulled Wednesday by Ada Hall from the Junior plot. The head junior gardener immediately got in connection with Mrs. E. P. Datson, house manager, and got an order for next week. Because of the large number of radishes needed for 60 hungry girls, the freshmen have been asked to help fill out the first order.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATIONS ON

All Girls Taking Gymnasium Must Make Appointments Immediately.

Physical examinations for girls taking gymnasium will begin right away, according to an announcement given out from the department of physical education for women yesterday. All girls who take gymnasium must take these examinations and must be signed up ahead of time on a placard posted in the women's gymnasium. Only a short time will be given for girls to make their appointments. Examinations will last until the end of examination week.
