CHANCE TO SAVE OREGON

A big chance for every student to show his Oregon Spirit and do something substantial for the University is offered earlier this year than usual, even before the first big demonstration of Oregon Fight at the opening football game. It is an opportunity for every student to co-operate in preventing Spanish influenza from getting a foothold on this campus. The safety of Oregon rests as an individual responsibility.

Seven hundred out of twelve thousand cases of Spanish influenza at Camp Devens, Mass., have resulted in death. At the University of Washington there are eight hundred cases and already several deaths. The disease has spread to the coast. Some forty bad cases of grip, none of them declared to be Spanish influenza, by physicians, are under observation here at Oregon.

Oregon must be made safe. Precautionary measures have been taken by the faculty and military authorities. Regulations of conduct have been made, and perhaps more rigid regulations will follow. But all will be useless unless every student co-operate in obeying all the orders that the disease is not brought in here.

The co-operation of all the students at this University is a part of what is meant by "Oregon Spirit." Obey the precautionary measures issued for your own safety and for Oregon. When you have even a slight cold report to the doctors provided by the University. If more stringent regulations become necessary, obey them.

ON SAYING "HELLO"

Open house is over. Now what about getting acquainted? We have all met each other and henceforth will always say "Hello." That word is a great little ice-breaker and helps us to launch our friendships.

Every normal life is one of friendship and there are more than a thousand chances on the campus for adventure into it. Every red-blooded person loves to discover people. That is one field that is inexhaustible and ever changing.

Let us get out of our little exclusive cliques and remember that the secret of having friends does not depend upon what we possess, but on the friendly spirit that we manifest.

College friendship is many sided and must involve both give and take. Oregon has always been famed for her spirit of democracy and the old tradition must be kept alive this year.

H. B.

Intensive military training on the campus is evidenced by the freshman who has asked if his mail going out must be censored.

Now that the men in the S. A. T. C. are settled "Mighty Oregon" will be heard more on the barracks piano.

When is yell practice for Saturday's game?

Don't get the Spanish "flu." You will want to give Oregon those lungs at the Saturday game.

WOMAN'S LEAGUE NAMES SPONSORS

Two Hundred Members of Upper Classes to Look After New Girls.

Announcement of the sponsors or big sisters for the freshmen women in the University has just been made by Dorothy Flegel, president of the Woman's League. The sponsor system has been the custom at the University of Oregon for a number of years, and under it each entering freshman is sponsored by a sophomore or upperclass woman. The purpose of the sponsor is to see that her sponsee has an opportunity to become acquainted on the campus and to attend University games and functions. The annual dance given by the sponsors in honor of the sponsees is being planned for some day in about two weeks.

Following is the official list of sponsors and sponsees:

WOMEN TRAIN FOR LABORATORY WORK

Seven Students Enrolled; Oregon Girls Now In Cantonments.

This year a new course to train women as laboratory assistants in army hospitals is to take the places of enlisted men, has been introduced in the University of Oregon under the general direction of Dr. John F. Bovard who is in charge of pre-med courses in the University.

The demand for laboratory workers is very great because the army has had to take all the available assistants from the universities and colleges.

The courses offered include a study of bacteriology, physiology, sanitary hygiene, microscopic methods of bacteriology and personal hygiene. For those who wish to get into the service as soon as possible the courses may be completed in three months but it is considered advisable to spend at least six months in order to get better sequel of courses.

Upon the completion of the work a certificate will be given stating the courses completed signed by the president of the University and the director of the work. The University reserves the right to give recommendations to those who have shown themselves proficient and especially adapted to this kind of work.

The women enrolled in the course are: Mary Mathis, Mary Irving, Grace Gilmore, Madeline Slotboom, Mabel Weller, Harriet Garrett and Eleanor Spall.

Three Oregon women are now doing laboratory work in army cantonments. They are Dora Birchard who is a laboratory assistant at Camp Lewis; Hazel Rasor, a laboratory assistant in a cantonment in Palo Alto, California; and Mary Chambers who recently accepted a position as assistant technician in the base hospital laboratory at Ft. McArthur, Waco, Texas.

MEN'S GLEE HOLDS TRYOUT

Arthur Faguy-Cote to Form More Clubs if Material is Available.

Tryouts for the men's glee clubs, to be organized under the direction of Arthur Faguy-Cote, of the school of music, were held tonight. Mr. Cote will form for the men as many glee clubs as necessary to fill the demand. Anyone who wishes to try for a place on one of the "glees" should see Mr. Cote at once. Realizing the importance of music in the military programme, the school of music will encourage all to take part in musical activities this year, and will provide many special entertainments for University and townspeople. Mr. Cote will direct an operetta later in the year.

people than were the other schools represented.

Another matter taken up by the conference was the allied war drive which will soon be launched. In this drive seven organizations, which are doing work among the soldiers, are united to raise $170,000.000. Oregon's quota is to be somewhere in the neighborhood of $770,000. Just what the University will be asked to raise will be announced in a few days.

It is probable that the Y. M. C. A. will open a "social counter," or canteen, which term is not used by the "Y." Rumor also has it that the Y. W. C. A. will have charge of the counter but no one can be found to verify this report.

MRS. PENNELL IN LIBRARY

Mrs. Ellen M. Pennell, formerly assistant professor in the history of art, has discontinued her class work and is now in charge of the newspapers and maps in the library.

Oregon Men Made Officers

Six University of Oregon men have recently received commissions as second lieutenants, according to Leonard Floan, ex-'20, now in the 80th Co., M. T. D., stationed at Camp Hancock, Georgia, in a letter written to Karl W. Onthank. Floan is one of the men receiving a commission. The other five are Ray Couch, Jay Gore, Barle Bramhall, Harold Jenkins and Carter Brandon.
