OLD OREGON NOW.

Oregon students returning to the University after service in the army, the navy and the marines—and there are a large number of such students who have already expressed this intention for the coming quarter in letters of inquiry to the President's office, as to courses—will come back to the same Oregon which they left to enter the service.

It is good to look upon the record Oregon has made this quarter, perhaps the most trying period in its history. Through the assistance of the S. A. T. C. the enrollment has increased, the Oregon Spirit has not been permitted to decay, and the faculty has been maintained so that with the opening of the new quarter the University will enter upon the old standards with all the advantages responsible for Oregon's growth and greatness in the past.

With the opening of the new quarter all Oregon schools and departments will open offering all the old, and, in many instances, new courses now being planned for the time when the University will resume its pre-war work. With the exception of the school of law which was forced to suspend its courses because of the extensive military work but will not resume its regular work with the opening quarter, all schools and departments have been maintained and are now in readiness to begin a stronger and more extensive work than before.

From the present plans of the faculty there is nothing to give fear but that Oregon will offer the same high standard of work that has characterized this University in former years. In academic work Oregon will again begin her steady advancement of the past few years which was halted temporarily by the introduction of military work to the virtual exclusion of much of the regular University work.

As far as the college life is concerned, present indications are that everything will be back on the normal basis following Christmas holidays. And in this life there will be the old Oregon Spirit and traditions which have lived and are now to place the University in a position to maintain its high place among the universities of the coast.

On the athletic field Oregon's record of achievement has also been maintained under the most trying circumstances and has come out triumphant. O. A. C.'s defeat of Oregon last year was her first victory over Oregon in ten years, and this year Oregon won again on O. A. C.'s field in the old Oregon way. Added to this Oregon's Huntington-coached warriors, every one of whom has the old Oregon fight and deserves a place on the Oregon varsity for the work they have done this year, in scoring the University's first defeat of the University of Washington since 1906.

And Oregon will continue with renewed vigor that which she has started this quarter. Rejuvenated by the return of old students, Oregon will have the same high standards of learning, the old Oregon fight and the other advantages of this University which first gained Oregon's present standing among universities and made the Oregon Spirit known as something distinct in college life.

Any welcome from Oregon, however quavering, would find its response in the lasting Oregon Spirit of old Oregon men who would return if necessary to rebuild Oregon to its rightful place. Oregon can extend this welcome with a feeling of pride that neither the University nor its spirit has decayed in the least, for next January again it will be "Mighty Oregon."

SOCIETY

The students who remained on the campus during the Thanksgiving holidays were kept busy going from one form of celebration to another. Never, in the history of the University was there a truer inspiration for merry making and never were there so many delightful parties crowded into one week-end. Festivities, small and large, formal and informal were set by different campus groups for some night during the holidays and even the afternoons were arranged for. Faculty members entered heartily into all activities and did everything in their power to make the week-end a pleasant one for the students. As next week-end is the last opportunity for college entertainment before examinations, many gatherings are being planned for Friday and Saturday nights. The impromptu student body informal yesterday in the mens' gymnasium was a good evidence of the Oregon spirit and the enthusiasm which backs the teams.

Leopold Godowsky, the world famous pianist, his daughter, Vanita Godowsky, and Mrs. Margeurite Hughes, violinist, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Faguy-Cote for breakfast yesterday morning. The party stopped in Eugene Monday morning for a brief visit en route to Marshfield where Mr. Godowsky assisted by Mrs. Hughes, will appear in concert.

Thanksgiving dinner at Hendricks hall was a delightful affair this year, with fifty members of the S. A. T. C. and several faculty folk as guests of the hall girls who remained for the holidays. In the dining room the guests were seated in groups of eight. Pink carnations and greens made the tables unusually attractive. After dinner the evening was spent in dancing. Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher played several delightful piano selections and Miss Eleanor Lee sang. President P. L. Campbell presented a Thanksgiving message and Lieutenant Thacher gave a brief talk on the University as it will be upon the demobilization of the S. A. T. C.

Members of Pi Beta Phi who remained on the campus for the holidays were hostesses last Friday night for a very informal dancing party. Rose-haws were used in the decorations and refreshments were served later in the evening. Mrs. F. W. Renson and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Faguy-Cote were the chaperons. Guests of the evening were: Alyce Sutton, Lois Pixley, Esther Fell, Rollin Woodruff, Stan Emery, John Houston, Charles Comfort, Don Orput, Bill Acres, George Doust, Sam Lehman, Willard Hollenbeck, Leon Keeney, James Whitaker, Walter Frances, Robert Shirk, Arthur Ritter, Charles Huggins, Christine Farris, Kelly Branstetter, Carl Newberry, Howard Kelly, Stan Atkinson and Warren Kays.

Hendricks hall residents remaining for the holidays were hostesses at the hall Friday night for an informal dance. The spacious drawing room and dining room were thrown together making ample room for the dancers. Patrons and patronesses for the affair were: Dean and Mrs. E. W. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. William Vance and Miss Tirza Dinsdale. The guests were: Richard Shinn, Sergius Gaulke, R. Monroe, F. C. Adams, Gerald Porter, Julian Leslie, F. L. Stanley, Ray Hempy, R. Nelson, K. J. Ackley, Harry Ellis, Lindsay McArthur, Joseph Driscoll, Don Morelock, W. B. Foults, Gordon Fletcher, Don Lucas, R. L. Riley, L. C. Monroe, F. Allen, Asa Eggleston, J. C. Fuller, William Rebec, Vern Henderson, Wayne Ackerson, Fred Tostivan, Clyde Mason, Tracey Byers, Martin Askey, A. Leavitt, Henry English, Norris Jones, Evon Anderson, C. W. Williams, Paul Anderson, B. O. Lamb, J. L. Woodings, August Pindle and L. J. Erwin.

Miss Louise Fitch, national president of Delta Delta Delta, returned to the campus yesterday after an absence of a year. Miss Fitch was sent to France last winter by the Y. W. C. A. to gather material for a book dealing with the work of that organization overseas. She is well known on the campus having been Delta Delta Delta chaperon last winter. Wednesday afternoon Miss Fitch will talk to the members of the local Y. W. C. A. at 5 o'clock in the Bungalow rooms on her experiences in France. Many delightful affairs are being planned in her honor among the college and townspeople.

Mrs. P. L. Campbell returned to Eugene Friday after a brief visit in Portland, where she was busy doing war work. Mrs. Campbell is state chairman of Women's League for National Defense.

Ruth Roche '17, left during the Thanksgiving holidays for the eastern coast where she will soon embark for France as a reconstruction aid.

Members of Kappa Alpha Theta, who remained for the holidays entertained a group of their friends Saturday night in the chapter house with a delightful dinner and dance. Chrysanthemums and greens were effectively used about the rooms. The hostesses for the occasion were: Eve Hutchinson, Theodora Stoppenbach, Beatrice Wetherbee, Melba Williams, Lillian Auld, Margaret Thompson and Ruth Montgomery. Mrs. S. R. Johnston chaperoned the party. The guest list included: Jack Montague, Hugh Thompson, Don Orput, Carl Newberry, John Houston, Mr. Hamilton, Lieutenant A. Barney and Lieutenant Cornelius Willis.

Mrs. W. O. Hadley, of The Dalles is spending the week at the Alpha Phi house as the guest of her daughter Elizabeth.

Gladys Hollingsworth spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Seattle where she attended the graduation banquet and dance of the naval aviators there.

Members of Delta Delta Delta who spent their vacation days on the campus were hostesses last Friday night for a delightfully informal dance in their chapter house. A black and white scheme was carried out in the decorations. Those receiving bids to the dance were: Alys Sutton, Patty French, Clifford Manerud, Lawrence Manerud, Dick Lyons, Vernon Dudley, Don Vanborskirck, Howard Storey, Bart Shirk, Ray Hempy, Walter Hempy, Charles Ryram, Charles Huggins, Stanley Atkinson, Dewey Knox, Henry Koepke and A. B. Adams, Miss Gertrude Mann chaperoned the affair.

Brilliant orange shades and greens converted the chapter house of Kappa Kappa Gamma into a delightful dancing bower last Friday night when the chapter members who spent the vacation on the campus entertained sixteen of their friends. Jazz music added to the pep of the evening. Mrs. E. J. Frasier and Mrs. M. E. Wright acted as chaperons.

News of the wedding of Gladys Wilkins, '18, to Lynn McCredie, ex-19, first lieutenant in the ordnance department, Thanksgiving, came as a complete surprise to her Oregon friends. The wedding took place in Trinity church in Boston, where Miss Wilkins has been visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Colonel and Mrs. C. C. McCornack, for the past two months. The couple will make their home in Atlantic City, where Lieutenant McCredie is now stationed. Both Mr. and Mrs. McCredie were active in student affairs while on the campus.

Announcement of the engagement of Ruth Young, a member of the class of '20 to J. Ralph Beck, a member of the S. A. T. C. at Corvallis, was made known to a group of her friends last night at a small informal gathering for which Helen Brenton, Esther Banks and Margaret Gray were hostesses. The news was not a complete surprise to her friends. Miss Young has figured prominently in plays given by the dramatic interpretation department of the University since she came to the campus a year ago from O. A. C. Miss Young is a member of Alpha Phi.

land, extinguished a fire which broke out in Hendricks hall, the women's hall of residence, yesterday afternoon, after the flames had burst from a third-story window, attracting the attention of women students outside.

The girls who saw the flames dashed into the building ready to fight them. They found, on reaching the upper story, Miss Howard, breathless and exhausted, but victorious. The fire was out. Miss Howard had used a broom and mop to good effect.

The fire, which was caused by the ignition of a cedar mop left on a radiator, did no damage aside from charring the wall and destroying a window curtain.

Following were the percentages allotted to the colleges in each state: Idaho, 12 per cent; Oregon, 41 1/2 per cent; Washington, 46 1/2 per cent.

The entire western department, which includes besides the colleges in the three states already mentioned California, Montana, Wyoming and Nevada, raised a total of $160,000. A telegram from George Irvin, head of the students division of the drive, brings the following message: "Congratulations, western department, you are second highest percentage to attain goal in nation."
