

FEW STUDENTS OUT FOR R.O.T.C DRILL

Naval Reserve Men Will not be Required to Work With Corps.

About 160 men answered "here" yesterday afternoon when the roll was called at the R. O. T. C. drill hour. This figure included men in the naval reserve who are on the inactive list, some of whom have been turning out although no instructions had been received from the headquarters of the 12th district at Helena, Montana, in regard to the requirements.

A message was received this morning at the military department, however, stating that the naval reserve men will not be required to drill.

"A selection of acting officers can not be made," said Colonel W. H. C. Bowen, "until all the men turn out." The military department is very desirous of getting the organization in shape before the inspector visits the University. About half of the men have as yet failed to appear.

Colonel Bowen stated yesterday morning that all S. A. T. C. equipment at the University including blankets, cots, mattresses and surplus clothing was being shipped to the deputy zone supply officer at Portland. "There will be more than a carload of stuff," said Colonel Bowen.

INTERFRATERNITY DEBATE SCHEDULED FOR FEB. 6TH

They are going to take in the matter of question and schedule. It is thought, however, that the co-ed committee will probably adopt a similar schedule and the same question. Both Professor Prescott and Helen Brenton, head of the women's debate, consider that it would be a most novel plan to have the women debate on the same question as the men. This plan will probably be accepted by the women. By doing this, debate would be absolutely an all-round student activity, and it would be the reason for a turning out of the entire student body.

Competition to be Lively
The objection to this plan has been raised that it would take too many judges and too much time. These weak points are remedied by the fact that the same judges can be used for the men and women, if the schedules do not conflict. By doing this, only thirty judges would be necessary and these can be readily obtained from the faculty. The time problem is also eliminated by the fact that each debate is to last but for half an hour. Each debate is arranged to consist of four six-minute speeches and two three-minute rebuttals. This will make the competition lively and will give everyone attending the debates an opportunity to attend both a men's and a women's debate, thereby getting for themselves a good understanding of the question and an idea as to who will beat in the ultimate debate when the victorious sorority and fraternity teams clash during an assembly hour.

Representatives Shosen
The women representatives, in whose hands the plans for co-ed debate rests, are: Helen Hair, Delta Delta Delta; Marie Badura, Hendricks Hall; Helen McDonald, Gamma Phi Beta; Ruth Graham, Alpha Phi; Ruth Montgomery, Kappa Alpha Theta; Grace Rugg, Chi Omega; Madeline Slotboom, Delta Gamma; Helen Anderson, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Alice Thurston, Pi Beta Phi; and Marie Ridings, Oregon Club.

FLOOD OCCURS IN DEADY

A few mornings ago when the representatives of the zoology department reached their offices they found that their peaceful domain was peaceful no longer. A billowing main greeted them, on which sailed venturesome blotters and staid records. The stuffed owl in the corner cast a reproachful glance at them. But the professors breathed a sigh of relief that the store room had not been visited, for if the flood had gained that sanctum it would have taken all of the electric light wires and telephone wires on the campus to have dried the infirmity linen stored there.

One little water faucet had caused about enough trouble for that day and was promptly and without farther delay very effectively squelched by a worthy professor.

The only real damage that had been done, it was found, was when a lot of water which came rushing down from the cracks above had been caught by a set of books which happened to be in the way.

It is said that while no fish were discovered playing in the new lake, yet even the pickled frogs were given a chance to croak.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Although all entertainment on a large scale has been suspended for a time, various committees are still at work completing arrangements for college, class and organization dances which are planned to be held as soon as the faculty announce the possibility of social gatherings. Never were such complete and pretentious details worked out in decorations and features and if all plans mature the period after the final lifting of the ban will be the gayest in the social history of the University. In the meantime dinner gatherings make up the week-end schedule in which Greek letter initiates hold a prominent place. Several alumni members have returned to the campus for the week-end and will come in for their due share of attention.

Alpha Phi is initiating today for the following pledges: Aulis Anderson, Laurel Canning, Gwladys Bowen, Helen Carson, Lucile Elrod, Maurine Elrod, Austrid Mork, Isabelle Kidd, Ila Nichols, Dorothy Reed and Dorothy Stine. After the initiation a banquet is being given by the members of the fraternity at the Hotel Osburn. Dark red roses will be used on the table and wine and silver tulle will form a part of the decorations.

Ruth Ann Wilson, '18, who is an instructor in the Roseburg high school, and Marion Bowen, will be dinner guests this evening at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

Professor and Mrs. Herbert Crombie Howe will be dinner guests this evening of Erma Laird at Hendricks hall.

Dinner guests at Hendricks hall Friday evening were: George Walker, Alexander Brown, William Rebec, Virgil and Lyman Meader, Rudolph Thompson, Harold Ellis and Miles McKey.

Roberta Schuebel of Oregon City and Helen Case of Tillamook are visiting at the Alpha Phi house this week-end. Miss Schuebel has been acting as her father's secretary during the session of the state legislature at Salem.

Miss Eleanor Lee, of the school of music, is leaving for Seattle Wednesday night to sing at a reception at the University of Washington.

Miss Elizabeth Bridges, national visiting delegate of Gamma Phi Beta, arrived in Eugene last night and will be the guest of the local chapter of that organization until next Friday. Miss Bridges is a member of the Eta chapter of Gamma Phi Beta at Berkeley, Calif. Many delightful affairs are being planned by University people in her honor while she is in Eugene.

Miss Celia Gavin, city attorney of The Dalles, who is attending the estate legislature as secretary to Mrs. Alexander Thompson, representative from Hood River, is in Eugene for the week-end as the house guest of Charlie Fenton. Both Miss Fenton and Miss Gavin were Friday evening dinner guests of Kappa Alpha Theta.

cher were Friday evening dinner guests at Hendricks Hall.

Pi Beta Phi is holding initiation today for Lee Fortmiller, Genevieve Haven, Narcissa Jewett, Velma Rosa, Marvel Skeels, Marjorie Deizell, Clare Calkins, Laura Rand, Audrey Roberts, Margaret Winbigger, Elsie Lawrence, Hazel Shattuck and Margaret Fell. Following the ceremonies in the chapter house a banquet will be served at the Osburn Hotel honoring the initiates. The table will be attractively decorated with red carnations forming a huge centerpiece and wine and blue tulle, the fraternity colors, will be used effectively in the decorations.

Alumni returning for the initiation of Pi Beta Phi are Miss Miriam Tinker of Oakland, Oregon, and Miss Gertrude Blackman of Portland.

Delta Delta Delta were hostesses at a dinner Thursday evening honoring the chapter patrons and patronesses, Dr. and Mrs. James Gilbert and Professor and Mrs. A. R. Sweetser.

Interesting to University folk is the announcement of the wedding of John Stark Evans, instructor in the University school of music, to Miss Marjorie Greig, of Tacoma, which will take place Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents. Several faculty members will attend the affair. Miss Greig attended school in California and has been prominent in war work in Tacoma for the past two years. Mr. Evans came to the University two years ago. He returned this term from Camp Lewis where he won a commission as second lieutenant of infantry. Dr. J. J. Landsbury will be best man. The couple will make their home in Eugene after a brief wedding trip.

PRESIDENT A GRANDFATHER

Baby Girl at Henderson Home; Parents are University Graduates.

President P. L. Campbell became a grandfather on Thursday, Jan. 10, when his daughter, Mrs. Sidney E. Henderson, formerly Lucia Campbell '12, announced the arrival of a 12-pound baby girl. The child has been named Susan Campbell Henderson. Mrs. Henderson was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, and her husband who also graduated in 1912, was a member of Sigma Nu.

BOYS START BIBLE STUDY

Organized Bible study classes for the men of the University under the general direction of the Y. M. C. A. will begin Monday evening, January 27. This was decided at a meeting of the friendly council in the Y. M. C. A. hut Thursday evening. The leaders and instructors in the work will be members of the University faculty and townspeople. Two men from each house will have general supervision of the work and will see that it is carried through as planned.

The classes for the men in the Oregon club will be held in the "Y" hut and the other classes in the houses and dormitory where the men live. The nature and scope of the work was recently explained by the national secretary and it is expected that this year will be one of the most successful in the history of the Y. M. C. A. on the campus. With the added advantage of the hut and a strong organization, more can be undertaken this year than ever before, says Herald White, president. The billiard table loaned the "Y" during the S. A. T. C. days by the Club cigar store is being returned and a unanimous vote of thanks and appreciation was given for the use of the table during the past three months.
