Girls to Have Single Debates

The girls' teams will select sides and will have only the single debates. They will have the same judges as men, but will appoint their own timekeepers, one for each team debating. Prof. R. W. Prescott selects the chairmen for the occasion.

Because of the failure of several of the teams to select their coaches so far, a list of members of the faculty and old Oregon debaters who have had experience in coaching has been prepared as available coaches. No judges have been selected yet.

The list of available coaches are Walter Myers, Peter Crockett, Victor Morris, L. L. Ray, all old Oregon debaters on the campus or in Eugene, Dr. J. H. Gilbert, Prof. W. F. G. Thacher, Dr. E. C. Bates, Miss Mary Perkins, Miss Ida V. Turney, Miss Julia Burgess, Karl Onthank, Dean D. W. Morton, Prof. H. C. Howe, Miss Mabel Dorsey, Dr. J. F. E. Bovard, Prof. E. E. DeCou, R. C. Clark, Dean E. W. Allen, Prof. F. L. Stetson and Prof. Geo. S. Turnbull.

The two heads of the intramural debate leagues, Helen Brenton and Herman Lind, are urging that every organization turn out for this work as it is most important.

Cooperation of All Asked

"It is to the direct interest of the University," says Helen Brenton, "that these intramural series be carried through and if it is done successfully it requires the co-operation of every single organization. This means that each team must choose its team and coach and get busy. The whole debate program is a thing being watched throughout the state and the reputation of the University for interest in intellectual activities depends to a certain extent upon the way this debate is put over."

KATE CHATBURN LEAVES

Sophomore Accepts Position in Salem High School.

Kate Chatburn, a member of the sophomore class, left this morning for Salem, where she has accepted a position in the commercial department of the Salem high school. She received notice of her appointment to the place yesterday. Miss Chatburn will teach the theory of shorthand. This is a new position in the department, which now has five instructors. Miss Chatburn was taking the civil service course in the School of Commerce. Her home is in Bandon, and she is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She will begin her new work Monday.

Do Frivolous Germs Wink at Girls from Villard Handrail?

Do yellow fever germs wink at the girls from the hand rail at Villard hall after assemblies, and do typhoid fever germs slide down the rail in order to get out before the hall is closed up? This is the problem confronting one of the girls of the advanced class in bacteriology under Professor A. R. Sweetser, head of the botany department of the University.

Another member of the class is going to study the mercenary germs, those found on money, another is going to find how many gain their education from books, and postage stamps are going to come in for their share of the investigation. Dishes, old pieces of soap, shaving brushes, and tooth brushes are only a few of the other haunts of the bacteria which are going to be raided and their inmates catalogued.

When the term is over the suffering bacteria are to be subjected to a further indignity. Their shortcomings and faults are to be put into theses by their tormentors, and so be published to the world.

SOCIAL HYGIENE IS SUBJECT OF TALKS

Dr. Margaret Nordfeldt Sent by War Department to Speak to Women.

A series of lecture on social hygiene will be given next week for the women of the University by Dr. Margaret D. Nordfeldt, New York physician. Dr. Nordfeldt is coming here under the auspices of the United States war department and will talk Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at 4:00 o'clock in Guild Hall.

"I hope the girls will avail themselves of the privilege to see life in the reconstruction period," said Dean Louise Ehrmann, "through the eyes of an eminent scientist." Gymnasium classes will be dismissed on Wednesday in order to let the girls attend and the roll will be called at the lecture.

The war department, which arranged a series of lectures for University women under the educational work of its social hygiene department as a war measure, is carrying on the work during the reconstruction period. All the lecturers are women physicians on the staff of the division's official lecture bureau who have had special training and experience in this work.

Dr. Nordfeldt was formerly a practicing physician in New York City and when the women's section of social hygiene was organized in the war department, Dr. Nordfeldt offered her services on the lecture bureau. She has had wide experience in this work and comes thoroughly accredited from the government.

This week Dr. Nordfeldt is lecturing at the State Normal School at Monmouth and will arrive in Eugene Monday. While here she will occupy the guest room at Hendricks Hall. After her lectures Dr. Nordfeldt will hold private conferences with students who desire them, and all day Friday will be given to these conferences.

LEGISLATORS FRIENDLY

Members Appear to Favor Education Bills, Says President.

The attitude in general toward educational institutions is friendly at the legislature, according to President P. L. Campbell, who returned this morning from Salem, where he has been attending the legislature for a few days. The request for the $100,000 appropriation for the University will be presented to the ways and means committee next week, and there the money allowed for such appropriations will be figured out according to the six per cent limitation. It is not known, yet, just how much will be available.

Members of the legislature have been extended an invitation to visit the University during the session of the legislature, but owing to influenza conditions, President Campbell said that they may send a committee to visit the University.

FIRST CONFERENCE GAMES MONDAY AND TUESDAY EVENINGS

Varsity to Clash With Strong Washington State Team on Local Floor.

"Let's go." Everything is ready for the first Northwest Conference basketball game of the season, which will be played on the local floor Monday evening between the Washington State College five and the University quintet.

The game is billed to shove off at 7:00 o'clock and every able bodied student should be among those present. This will also be the first conference game since the S. A. T. C. went to its happy hunting grounds. The University band will be out and yell kings Carter and Houston will be on the floor to lead the crowd in their vocal contributions to the evening's entertainment.

The Oregon team looked good in the game with Willamette. They had their weak points, but they also had some strong ones and from the present indications they should have an even break with the Washington State men.

Washington has four old men on their squad and they are all good men. Among them is Glover, who played for them in 1915. Other old letter men are Hollman, Kotula and Gains. The Washington State team meets the University of Washington this week-end, which will give some dope upon which to determine the strength of the Washington "U" team.

Dean H. Walker, coach of the Oregon team, is not sure that his team will be able to score a win over the Washington Staters, although one thing is assured, and that is that it will be a grand little fight and the visitors are not going to have everything their own way.

Fourteen men were sent in by the Pullman officials as their list, although it is hardly possible that they are bringing the whole gang with them. The big idea here is to get a gang out for the game that will give them a real reception. The college is back on its normal basis and the old Oregon fight should arise again Monday and Tuesday evenings. The students need a couple of games in order to get into their proper frame of mind for the O. A. C. games which will follow.

The playing of the games at 7 o'clock will leave plenty of time for library "pigging" afterwards, or, if such things are done, a little study. Dean Walker wishes it announced that student body tickets must be presented at the door. The tickets may be secured from Mr. Tiffany's office in the administration building.

"Let's go!"

SECRETARY VANCE GOING

To Return to College Work; Vancouver Chaplain to Succeed Him.

William F. Vance who has had charge of the campus Y. M. C. A. since the advent of the S. A. T. C., at the University, of Oregon, is leaving week after next for the College of Idaho at Caldwell, Idaho, to resume his duties as Professor of History at that college. His successor will probably be Paul DuBois who has been acting as chaplain at the Vancouver barracks for some time. Mr. DuBois is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, and before the war had charge of the Y. M. C. A. work at the University of Ohio. Mr. Vance is sorry to leave, he says, as he has enjoyed his work here greatly. Mr. Vance was an instructor at Caldwell before he came to Oregon but was given leave of absence to take up his Y. M. C. A. work during the period of the war.

OLD CUSTOM IS REVIVED

First Exchange Dinner Scheduled for February 3.

In order that the girls on the campus may become better acquainted, the exchange dinners which were in vogue on the campus in previous years will be renewed. The first dinner is scheduled for Tuesday, February 3.

At the meeting of representatives from the different houses which was held at the Chi Omega house, plans for these dinners were made. According to Nell Reidt, who has the affair in charge, the dinners will be very informal and no extra preparations will be made, as the main idea is to get the girls together.

Muddle Over Mix Is Cleared Up; Affair to Be Most Barbaric Yet

Orgy of Mud to be Held First Saturday When Weather Permits—Girls' Attendance to Count Toward Victory.

Delay, muddled arrangements, and general fumbling in connection with the underclass mix have ended and preparations are now being made for the staging of the event on the first Saturday on which suitable weather prevails.

An agreement has been reached. The mix to be more barbaric than ever. At least there will be nothing artistic this year, in order to adapt the mix to winter conditions. The girls will not participate.

Attendance on the side lines at the mudorgy will count, however, as for as the women of the underclasses are concerned. Points to count toward the winning of the mix will be awarded for this feature.

Harry Jamieson, junior class president, has appointed New Fowler as chairman of the mix. Ned will conduct it, aided by the seniors and juniors, as is the usual custom. "Shy" Huntington, Bill Hayward and Dean Walker will serve as the referees and judges. They are all experienced, and they say that the mix will be conducted on an absolutely fair basis.

Mearl Blake has been appointed as general chairman for the sophomores by Eddie Durno. His assistants will be: Jonny Houston, class yell; E. Brandenburg, sandbag; Bill Hollenbeck, flag rush; John Brock, tie-up; Wayne Laird, cane rush and Lieth Abbott, class stunt.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN WILL VISIT CAMPUS

Delegates of World Wide Guild to Speak at Bungalow Monday.

Miss Helen Crissman, national field secretary of the World Wide Guild, national organization of Baptist missionary societies, and Miss Elsie Kappen, field secretary for the Columbia river district of the Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary society, are to be guests of the University women Sunday and Monday.

Miss Crissman and Miss Kappen are making a tour of the universities and colleges of the Northwest in the interest of the World Wide Guild. After their visit here they will spend Tuesday and Wednesday at McMinnville College, and Thursday and Friday at O. A. C. Both Miss Crissman and Miss Kappen are University of Michigan women.

A meeting for all University women will be held Sunday at 4:30 in the Bungalow, at which Miss Crissman and Miss Kappen will talk of their work. The Student Volunteers of the University and the Eugene Bible University will hold a meeting at 4:00 o'clock Monday at the Bungalow, when Miss Crissman and Miss Kappen will be the principal speakers. Girls who will be unable to attend the meetings may have an opportunity to meet and confer with these women at the Bungalow Monday from 9 to 12 in the morning and from 1 to 4 in the afternoon.

While at the University Miss Crissman and Miss Kappen will be entertained at the different houses on the campus. They will be guests at the Alpha Phi house at Sunday dinner; Pi Beta Phi will entertain them Sunday night; they will be Hendricks Hall breakfast guests Monday morning; and Kappa Kappa Gamma will be their hostesses for lunch.

RECORDS TO BE COMPILED

Data on Work and Activities of Every Student will be Collected.

Plans for the collecting of records of every student who has ever attended the University and a personal history of his work and activities while here, are being discussed by the student council and a committee made up of three members of the faculty, three alumni and three students. A preliminary meeting of this board was held this morning in President Campbell's room.

The problem of getting a regular historian for the undertaking was discussed. The question arose as to whether the position should be filled by a member elected by the student body and the work counted as a regular student body activity, and whether a regular room should be provided for the one who held this office.

A meeting for the furthering of these plans has been set for a week from Tuesday, at which time a definite decision will be made as to how the work is to be carried out and just how the business of getting a line on every student will be accomplished.

SENIOR AND FROSH GIRL HOOPERS WIN

Second Victory for Each Team; Next Game Set for Tuesday.

The second set of games of the women's series of interclass basketball was won by the seniors and freshmen when the class teams played Thursday afternoon in the outdoor gym. The seniors won from the sophomores by a score of 21-9 and the freshmen won from the juniors 22-17.

Twice in succession the seniors and freshmen have won. The excellent team work of Maud Lombard and Hazel Rankin, senior forwards, seems to be a prediction that the seniors will win the cup again this year. The freshmen, however, are working hard and play well. Dorothy Reed, freshman forward, is showing up well and piles up the points for her team.

Mary Mathis, junior forward, continues to shoot baskets successfully. She made 10 of the junior's 17 points.

Final Game Thursday.

Miss Gorman, coach, said that as yet it has not been decided whether the "Round Robin" series will be played again or whether the series being played now will be finished and in two weeks indoor basketball games will start. However, there are two more games to be played in this series. The seniors and freshmen and the sophomores and juniors will meet Tuesday evening in the outdoor gym. The following Thursday, the final game of the series will be played when the classes which have won the largest number of games will play for the cup.

The Line-up.

The line-up for Thursday night's game follows:
Freshmen—Dorothy Reed, F., Jeanette Moss, Grace Tigar, F., Mary Mathis, Ruth Flegal, G., Era Godfrey, Mildred VanNuy, G., Mary McCormack, Echo Balderce, J.C., Margaret Russell, Elna Thomson, S.C., Mahyl Weller.

Seniors—Maud Lombard, F., Lela Barnum, Hazel Rankin, F., Grace Rugg, Harriet Garrett, G., Nancy Fields, Lela Marsh, G., Ami Lagus, Claire Warner, J.C., Vivian Chandler, Marian Coffey, S.C., Marie Ridings.

COL. BOWEN TO PORTLAND

Going on Business Trip; Lieut. Garrett in Charge on Campus.

Colonel W. H. C. Bowen, professor of military science and tactics in the R. O. T. C., will go to Portland tomorrow on personal business. He will be gone three or four days. Mrs. Bowen, who has been ill for a few days, but is better today, will probably accompany him.

Lieut. A. Garrett will be in charge of the military department during Colonel Bowen's absence.

UNIVERSITY QUINTET BEATS WILLAMETTE BY 41 TO 14 SCORE

Oregon's Fast Snappy, Short Passes Keep Visitors Guessing.

OFFENSIVE WORK STRONG POINT OF VARSITY'S GAME

Eddie Durno Piles Up Count; Jacobberger Ties Him on Field Baskets.

Playing a fine game of basketball and taking Willamette off their feet by their fast, snappy short passes the Oregon basketball quintet took the first game of the season from Coach Mathew's W. U. team on the local floor yesterday afternoon by the score of 41 to 14.

The offensive team work of the varsity was of the highest order and they carried the ball down the floor with a series of short passes that had Willamette guessing most of the time. Eddie Durno and Francis Jacobberger, at forwards, proved to be a clever pair of basket shooters and were tied for field baskets, each getting six. Durno was high point man as he converted three out of four fouls.

Indian Is Conspicuous

The Willamette team trotted out about the biggest thing along the lines of basketball players that has been seen hereabouts for some time in the person of Wapato, the big Indian who held down one of the forward positions. Wapato tips the beam at about 200 pounds and when he mixed with Eddie Durno, who will register about 120 in the shade, there was all kinds of fun. The contest between these two proved to be a modern version of David and Goliath, as Eddie sneaked over 4 baskets on his big opponent.

At guard, Brandon and Chapman showed to advantage. The Oregon team did not appear to be extra strong on defensive but they were able to pile up a huge score by their offensive work. This plan worked all right in the game with the Methodists, but it remains to be seen whether or not it will work against a team as strong as Washington State college.

Varsity Scoring Steady.

Both Herm Lind and Jacobberger got a crack at the center position and there is very little to choose between the work of the two. For the few minutes that he was in the game Ned Fowler did some tall work. He scored 4 field baskets in about as many minutes of play.

The scoring on the part of the Oregon team was steady throughout the entire game. In the first half the varsity rolled up 20 points to the S gathered by the Salem team. In the second period the lemon yellow five made twenty of their 41 points while the Methodists got only 6. All of the points scored by Willamette in the last half were gathered by Sparks, who took Wapato's place at forward.

McKittrick, who is the official foul converter for the Willamette team, forgot his horseshoe or something yesterday as he missed all of the five chances that he had to get points on fouls. The game was comparatively clean and was kept on the jump by Lieutenant A. J. Garrett, referee.

"Oregon Spirit" Present.

There was a lot of pep at the game Friday afternoon. Yell leaders "Nick" Carter and "Pepperbox" Houston had the crowd with them and limbered them up for the big "Joings" Monday and Tuesday when the varsity celebrates the return to the Northwest conference by playing with the Washington State college five. The games will start at 7 o'clock and, according to reports it will be a just cause for murder if anyone stays away. The band will be out and the old "Oregon Spirit" should come back a million.

The lineup:

Oregon, 41 Willamette 14
Durno, 15, F., Wapato, 4, Sparks, 6, J. Berger, 12, Fowler, 8, F., McKittrick, 4, Lind, 2, J. Berger, C., Nichols, Chapman, 4, G., Ross, Rarey, Brandon, G., Dimmick, Referee: Lieutenant A. I. Garrett.
