

DOUGHNUT LEADERS RETAIN TOP RUNGS

Phi Deltas Beat A. T. O.'s 11 to 3; Three Other Games Played.

Doughnut League Standing table with columns for League, W, L, Pct.

Four more hotly contested games of the interfraternity series were played off this morning under the direction of Bill Hayward, official referee.

In the first contest between the Sigma Chis and the Sigma Nus the former had things much their own way walking off with the long end of the 12 to 2 score.

Score: Sigma Chi, 12; Sigma Nu, 2. Breed, 6; C., Hayslip; Moore, 2; F., Carter; Hanna, 2; F., Gilbert; Brown, 2; G., Hollenbeck; Blake, 2; G., Shattuck.

In the second of the contests the Kappa Sigma's amount of beef was too much for the Oregon Club who were white-washed to the tune of 7 to 0.

Score: Oregon Club, 0; Kappa Sigs, 7. Estes, 3; C., Still; Rousseau, 2; F., Boylen; Davis, 2; F., O'Rourke; Butler, 2; G., Mautz; Purdy, 2; G., Masterson.

The Phi Deltas won the third mix against the A. T. O.'s by the score of 11 to 3. The A. T. O.'s were crippled by the loss of "Lucky" Bonney who was the greatest downfall of the Betas on Thursday and who has been declared ineligible by Coach Huntington who is using Bonney on the Frosh squad.

Score: Phi Deltas, 11; A. T. O., 3. Margauson, 2; C., Eggleston; Gamble, 5; G., Hempy; Strachan, 2; G., Hildebrand; Myers, 4; F., Adams; Roberts, 2; F., Whittaker.

In the last of the contest the Delta Taus took the Friendly hall aggregation to a cleaning 15 to 2. La Londe was the only one to get a basket for the Dorm, while Mort Brown and Askey shined for the Deltas.

Score: Delta Taus, 15; Dorm, 2. Askey, 4; C., McArthur; Brown, 7; F., Say; Woodruff, 2; F., Clark; G. Madden, 2; G., LaLonde; E. Madden, 2; G., Watson.

PROGRAM OUT FOR COLONIAL FESTIVAL

Everybody to Dance; Mrs. Leader and Mr. Thacher to Aid in Tableaux.

A program of dancing, singing, plays, readings and recitations, lasting from 8:15 to 11:30, has been worked out by the committee in charge of the colonial fete to be staged in Guild Hall, and in the hall of the administration building, February 22.

The Women's League, sponsor for the entertainment, will give all money above expenses to the women's building fund. Plans for the fete are under the general direction of Helen Anderson, and they are shaping into effective work.

In discussing the development of the program up to date, Miss Louise Ehrmann, dean of women, said yesterday afternoon, "I feel that aside from the historical and social value of the occasion, the hearty co-operation of so many faculty folk and students, speaks well for the spirit of Oregon."

Working Out Music Plans Margaret Biddle and Professor Barron, with a committee which they have chosen, are working out pleasing music, not only for the feature dancing, but as a part of the program in the foyer upstairs.

The schedule for the evening has been arranged to include the following events: 8:15 to 9:00—Play in Guild Hall with colonial dancing, tableaux and singing in the foyer.

9:00 to 10:00—General dancing throughout the building with a repetition of the living tableaux.

10:00 to 10:45—Recitations and readings in Guild Hall by Portland talent.

10:45 to 11:30—Dancing.

It has been decided that an admission of fifty cents a person will be asked, all of which over that needed for expenses will go to the woman's building fund. The Woman's League attempts to increase this fund every year and has heretofore sold postal cards with this end in mind.

FROSH OUTCLASS HIGH SCHOOL 12 TO 9

Basketball Team to be Picked Soon; Rivalry Keen for Places.

The frosh basketball team defeated the Eugene high school team Friday afternoon after the varsity game. The frosh succeeded in tossing six baskets making 12 points, against the high school's nine points, three of which were converted fouls.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The announcement yesterday of the date for the lifting of the ban has scattered all clouds from the social horizon and left looming up as the initiating event for the new period the long anticipated sophomore hop.

During the past week several large though informal affairs were given by faculty and students honoring Mrs. Geo. T. Gerlinger, University regent and Mrs. Esther Allen Jobs of Portland who spent several days on the campus.

Members of Chi Omega were hostesses this afternoon in honor of their new house mother, Miss Nancy Calhoun Johnson. The guest list included prominent college and townspeople.

In the receiving line were Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean Louise Ehrmann, Miss Nancy C. Johnson, Miss Charlotte Banfield, Mrs. John Leader, Mrs. Fred Stickles, Mrs. H. D. Sheldon and Nell Reidt, Miss Julia Burgess and Mrs. Harvard Moore, poured. Bunches of red roses were about the rooms and on the tea table.

The freshmen of Kappa Kappa Gamma were the honor guests at a surprise dinner party at the chapter house on Thursday evening. The hostesses for the affair were the sophomores, Evelyn Grebe, Clara Corrigan, Edna Howd, and Mary Ellen Bailey.

The general color scheme was the fraternity colors, dark and light blue, these colors not only being carried out in the decorations but also on the place cards. The guests were seated at small tables lighted with candles covered with blue shades. The guests at this charming party were: Helen Huntington, Doris Pittenger, Eleanor Spall, Emma Garbade, Phebe Gage, Lois Barnett, Anna Mae Chipping, Leila Marsh, Brownell Frasier, Brownell Frasier, Janet Frasier, Hazel Young, Mildred Apperson, Norma Medler, Alice Evans, Mary Evans, Frances Tate, Florence Tonneson, Miss Camille Dosch and Mrs. Lucile Thurber, and Edwin Durno, George Stearns, Herman Lind, Ogen Johnson, Bill Bolger, Sam Lehman, Vincent Jacobberger, Wyndham Buren, Martin Howard, Nish Chapman, Ned Fowler, Elmo Madden, Crecece Farriss, Sandford Gehr, Elston Ireland, William Hollenbeck and Carl Newberry.

Mrs. Austin Chaney, nee Annette Spencer, a freshman at the University last year, arrived last night from San Francisco and will spend the next two weeks visiting her sister, Bernice Spencer, at the Pi Beta Phi house.

Rivalry for Places on Team. Shy is going to have the freshmen squad out every night next week in order to pick the team.

The first regular freshmen game will probably be with the O. A. C. rooks on February 14. It will take considerable work to develop a good team work.

"Skeet" Manerud the marvel of Eugene high school teams for the last three years, is going out for the frosh team Monday. "Skeet" would have been captain of the high school team this year but he finished a year early in order to enter the local naval unit this fall.

The lineup for the freshmen team follows: Veach (two baskets), Ray Moores, Bonney (two baskets), Kenneth Moore, forwards; Latham (one basket) and Callison (one basket), center; Vincent Jacobberger, Lorenze, Beller, Buren, guards. The high school lineup was Moores (two baskets), Schlinger (one basket), forwards; Bessonette (three converted fouls) center; Bryson and Hill, guards. Billy Morrison officiated at the game.

BISHOP AIDS FUND.

Right Reverend Walter T. Sumner bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, made the first contribution last Wednesday morning to the fund for the memorial to be erected in honor of the late Roswell Dosch, who was assistant professor of drawing at the University.

Kappa Kappa Gamma is holding initiation tonight followed by a banquet at the Hotel Osburn. The banquet will be held in the Japanese tea room and covers will be laid for 48 of the active girls and alumnae.

The initiates are: Phebe Gage, Frances Tate, Eleonor Spall, Alice Evans, Mary Evans, Norma Medler, Emma Garbade, Eleanor Lee, Mildred Apperson, Doris Pittenger, Hazel Young, Helen Huntington, Anna Mae Chipping and Lois Barnett.

Dinner guests of Gamma Phi Beta on Tuesday night were Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Wheeler, Professor and Mrs. C. H. Edmondson and Mrs. Brown, mother of Mrs. Edmondson.

Miss Elizabeth Bridge, visiting delegate of Gamma Phi Beta, left on Friday for Portland, after spending several days on the campus as the guest of the local chapter.
